Redeeming The Sin Social Science And Literature:

Redeeming the Sin Audrey Borenstein, 1978 Using Biographical Methods in Social Research Barbara Merrill, Linden West, 2009-05-18 Using Biographical Methods in Social Research provides an informative comprehensive accessible and practical guide to the nature and use of biographical methods combining a consideration of theoretical issues with practical guidance as well as reflections on the personal experience of doing research Barbara Merrill and Linden West consider important questions about who and what research is for and what makes it valid alongside the practical business of interviewing transcribing analyzing and writing up of biographical data The authors draw on their sociological and psychological orientations to provide a truly interdisciplinary approach to the subject and provide numerous examples of biographical research across the social sciences This book will equip students with all the skills necessary to undertake biographical research as well as to fully understand what they are doing and the assumptions they make about the nature of truth knowledge story telling and being human It will be useful for students and researchers using biographical methods in a range of disciplines including sociology social policy social psychology health care and education Science For Humanism Charles R. Varela, 2009-01-13 In this book Varela revisits the problem of structure versus agency Based on his original insight into Kant's role in the debate the author is able to solve this centuries old dilemma for the first time He goes on to explain the wider ramifications of his discovery addressing Giddens' Call the stalemate of the social and psychological sciences determinism in science and postmodernism The Kingdom Where Nobody Dies Audrey Borenstein, 2009-03-12 Echoes of the fatal shots fired in Dallas on November 22 1963 reverberate in this collection of seven stories set in Louisiana during the civil rights era For a varied cast of characters the artist in the title story who tells the tale of his sojourn at LSU during Kennedy's brief and shining moment through a retrospective of his paintings the schoolteacher soon to be married grieving with her mother over the shattered dream of a charmed and happy First Family's life the disabled man witnessing the killing of Oswald on the TV screen with a growing premonition of the coming darkness in the world the lawyer son of a Southern born mother and a Yankee father reliving the loss of his beloved wife in mourning the nation's loss the African American wife of a preacher praying to the ghost of her dead mother for solace the woman who in moving her family away feels the place reach out and pull them back the young couple transplanted from the Midwest entranced by the fairy tale beauty and amusements of their new life who become caught up in the social upheaval of the times the violent death of our youngest President is a crucible for the dawning of historical consciousness in the wake of the nation's loss of innocence An Afterword traces the genesis and the thirty three year journey to the publication of this book of stories Auguste Comte: Volume 1 Mary Pickering, 1993-11-26 The first volume of a two volume intellectual biography of Auguste Comte the founder of modern sociology and positivism Documents of Life 2 Ken Plummer, 2001-03-20 Documents of Life was originally published in 1983 and became a classic text providing both a persuasive argument for a particular approach and a manifesto for social research As a critique of anti humanist methodology in the social sciences it championed the use of life stories and other personal documents in research which are now widely used today This book is a substantially revised and expanded version which takes on recent developments Providing numerous illustrations from a range of life documents the book traces the history of the method examines ways of doing life story research and discusses the many political and ethical issues raised by such research The whole book has been substantially re written and Ibss: Anthropology: 1978 International Committee for Social Science Information and Documentation,1990-12-31 First published in 1981 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Writing the City Desmond Harding,2004-06-01 Writing the City examines and challenges the traditional transatlantic axis of urban modernism London Paris New York an axis that has often elided the historical importance of other centers that have shaped metropolitan identities and discourses According to Desmond Harding James Joyce s internationalist vision of Dublin generates powerful epistemic and cultural tropes that reconceive the idea of the modern city as a moral phenomenon in transcultural and transhistorical terms Taking up the works of both Joyce and John Dos Passos Harding investigates the lasting contributions these author s made to transatlantic intellectual thought in their efforts to envisage the city International Social Science Review ,1986

The Reportage of Urban Culture Rolf Lindner,1996-07-11 The current fascination with urban life has encouraged a growing interest in the Chicago School of sociology by students of sociological history It is generally accepted that the field research practised by the Chicago sociologists during the 1920s the Golden Age of Chicago sociology used methods borrowed from anthropology However Rolf Lindner also argues convincingly that the orientation of urban research advocated by Robert Park the key figure in the Chicago School and himself a former reporter is ultimately indebted to the tradition of urban reportage The Reportage of Urban Culture goes beyond a thorough reconstruction of the relationship between journalism and sociology It shows how the figure of the city reporter at the turn of the century represents a new way of looking at life and reflects a transformation in American culture from rejecting variety to embracing it Bibliographie Internationale de Sociologie 1980 ,1982 Each Bibliography lists and annotates the most important works published during the year They are arranged by topic and indexed by author subject and geographic location

Middletown Dwight W. Hoover,1992 Inspired by the immensely influential 1937 sociological study Middletown A Case Study in Cultural Conflicts by Robert and Helen Lynd Peter Davis s six documentary films about Muncie Indiana set out to examine the lives of Munsonians in the early 1980s The disputes and conflicts accompanying the filming revealed more about American values and customs than the films themselves While attempting to transform the data from the Middletown studies into a meaningful and interesting visual form the filmmakers were constantly distracted by the pressures decisions and perils of government and corporate funded documentary filmmaking Dwight W Hoover a Muncie historian and collaborator in the Middletown film project describes why the films were made and how they changed the lives of everyone involved The Structure of Artistic Revolutions Remi
