The Lion and the Lamb William M. Shea, 2004-03-04 One of the most intriguing questions in contemporary American Christianity is whether the recent warming of relations between Catholics and conservative evangelicals promises a thaw in the ice age that has lasted since the sixteenth century American evangelical Protestants and Roman Catholics have hated and suspected one another since colonial times In the twentieth century however each community has experienced radical change and this has led to a change in the relationship between the two In this book William Shea examines the history of this troubled relationship and the signs of potential reconciliation His springboard is the recent publicity given to the 1993 document Evangelicals and Catholics Together in which several well known figures from each camp acting as individuals signed a statement affirming much more common theological and social ground than any other American Catholic evangelical group had ever done Looking back Shea surveys the long and very bitter history of published recriminations that have flown back and forth between Catholics and many kinds of Protestants since the 16th century He makes the case that Catholics and conservative Protestants reacted along parallel lines to western modernity especially naturalistic evolution and higher criticism of the Bible That deeper history leads him to the more recent history that has partially overcome the severe Catholic evangelical antagonisms Here he focuses on the rise of neo evangelicals associated with Billy Graham and the National Association of Evangelicals and on the changes with the Catholic church since Vatican II He goes on to offer systematic interpretations of recent evangelical literature on Catholics and Catholic literature on evangelicals The book ends with some historical but also theological social and personal conclusions This accessible groundbreaking and timely study will be indispensable reading for all interested in the religious landscape of America today

The Professionalization of Pastoral Care T. Dale Johnson Jr., 2020-07-21 When the organization and structure of the church in America was altered in the early 1900s to meet modern demands the role of the pastorate became more specialized to adapt to the burdens of the new efficient structure In 1920 Gaines Dobbins utilized the business efficiency model at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary to formulate a distinct ecclesiology Discontent with traditional methods of instruction in theological education Dobbins sought to implement theories and methodologies from modern educationalists He adopted a psychologized educational methodology and utilized the psychology of religion as an empirical measure of the soul human nature and human behavior Use of the social sciences seemed to grant Dobbins as a practitioner academic respectability within the realm of theological education Both the professionalization that resulted from Dobbins s efficiency standards and a working theory of human nature derived from psychological models were synthesized into a specialized system of pastoral care Dobbins followed the new shape of pastoral theology in America adopting Clinical Pastoral Education CPE as the model for pastoral training As a result CPE became an integral part of the curriculum at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary for over sixty years and spread to influence many other SBC entities

Rethinking Missio Dei among Evangelical Churches in an Eastern European Orthodox Context Vladimir Ubeivolc, 2016-09-30 Following a paradigm shift in his own personal understanding of mission Vladimir Ubeivolc proposes the adoption of mission principles based on missio Dei to meet the social and spiritual needs of people in Moldova Biblically grounded and insightful the lessons to be learned from this book apply far beyond Eastern Europe Dr Ubeivolc uses his knowledge from six years of research twenty years of pastoral ministry and a lifetime of experience to summarize the landscape of the Moldovan Evangelical and Orthodox churches and their historical approaches to mission His evaluation emphasizes the need for a biblical foundation to mission for Eastern European Evangelical churches This book s message is a timely scholarly reminder of the need to pursue holistic mission if the church of Jesus Christ is to be an authentic and effective vessel to bring transformation to people s lives and society
