The International Trading System Alice Landau, 2005-02-03 The World Trade Organization WTO is without doubt one of our main instruments of globalization the controversy which is whipped up by this organization is arguably mainly caused by the mystery which surrounds it The International Trade System seeks to remove the clouds of misunderstanding that circle the multilateral commercial system by clearly

Redrawing Local Government Boundaries John Meligrana, 2004 Local governments today are under extreme pressure to undertake boundary reform The global trend toward urbanization has brought with it economic environmental social and regional demands that have severe implications for local governments and their territories As a result changing the areal jurisdiction of this most basic level of government has become a persistent and pressing challenge around the globe This collection examines the legal and regulatory procedures involved in such municipal restructuring Case studies from eight nations the United States Canada Spain Germany Israel Korea China and South Africa investigate how and why local governments have been enlarged in scope and reduced in number within each country Four key aspects are examined the geography of the local government boundary problem the procedures associated with boundary reform the roles of institutions and actors in boundary reform and the implications for urban and regional governance

Redrawing Local Government Boundaries offers a broad theoretical understanding of local government boundary reform and informs the wider scholarly discussion about institutional change state structures and the areal jurisdiction of local governments The first international comparative study of local boundary reform it will be a valuable reference for scholars and students of political science public administration geography urban studies and urban planning

Collaborative Regional Development in Northeast Asia Won Bae Kim, Yue-man Yeung, Sang-Chuel Choe, 2011-07-18 Against the background of accelerating globalization and growing economic interdependence in Northeast Asia over the past two decades including the recent global economic crisis this book sets out to examine the status and prospect of cross border cooperation It has synthesized diverse strands of discussion and different country perspectives to highlight the challenges and opportunities of collaborative regional development in Northeast Asia Distinct from previous studies this book attempts to capture international national and local viewpoints in regional development Practical experience across countries has been analyzed and consolidated to form the basis of a policy agenda for cross border cooperation Combining an intimate knowledge of the region and different disciplinary perspectives this book offers a wealth of information statistical and illustrative materials and analyses across topics and countries of the region Editors include Won Bae Kim Research Advisor of the Gyeonggi Research Institute and former Senior Fellow at the Korean Research Institute for Human Settlements Yue man Yeung Emeritus Professor of Geography and Honorary Fellow of The Chinese University of Hong Kong and Sang Chuel Choe former Chairman of the Presidential Committee on Regional Development in South Korea and Professor Emeritus of Seoul National University

China 2035: The End of Capitalism As We Know It Simón Levy, Ma Wukong, 2025-09-11 In China 2035 The End of Capitalism As We Know It Simon Levy and Mart n Pu al Casal deliver an electrifying and unfiltered account of the world s most misunderstood superpower and how it s quietly dismantling the global order America once built While the U S debates elections and Wall Street chases quarterly profits China is playing the long game From the mega projects of the Belt and Road Initiative to a radical new model of economic democracy this book reveals how China isn t just rising it s redefining the rules of success governance and prosperity This is not a book about China It s a book about your future Whether youre a startup founder policymaker or student China 2035 will challenge everything you think you know about democracy capitalism and global power Youll learn why Chinas political meritocracy might outperform Western elections how Chinese cities offer lessons in housing infrastructure and technology that Americans cant afford to ignore and what American entrepreneurs must grasp to compete in a post dollar multipolar world Most importantly youll discover how the next generation of power will be defined not by bombs or ballots but by bandwidth belief systems and billion person planning Bold uncomfortable and deeply researched this book is the blueprint the West doesn t want you to read But once you open it you won t see the 21st century the same way again This is the book America doesn t want to tell You About China This book doesn t just talk about China it forces America to look in the mirror A groundbreaking analysis of how China s rise is reshaping the rules of power freedom and the global future

Come Closer Anita Mendiratta, 2011 An invaluable resource for tourism leaders policy makers and stakeholders as they drive the global tourism economy forward Covering topics from the role of government diplomacy tourism investment and destination branding to niche tourism development media tourism safety and green tourism COME CLOSER offers a framework for strategic and practical tourism economy management and competitiveness The book includes valuable direction for managing the fine balance of government and private industry in tourism to create shared sustainable destination growth Using emotive anecdotes to bring readers closer to the heartbeats of the people who

America's New Map Thomas P.M. Barnett, 2023-09-26 Three tectonic and inevitable shifts have left the world at a crossroads North America is poised to either re-emerge as a global leader or turn back in time ceding power and influence to competitors The 21st century unleashed unprecedented changes across the globe to its climate to the demographic makeup of its nations and to the very nature of allegiance in the digital age With its global influence waning America must reevaluate its approach to globalization if it wishes to remain a leader In America's New Map: Restoring Global Leadership in an Era of Climate Change and Demographic Collapse Thomas P. M. Barnett bestselling author of The Pentagon's New Map: War and Peace in the Twenty-First Century and acclaimed geo-strategist offers seven throughlines to frame and redefine the ambitions and posture of these United States setting our Union on a bold but entirely familiar national trajectory In these pages Barnett offers a deep yet accessible dive into the three shifts that have led us to this point As climate change ravages countries closest to the equator global dynamics are shifting from an East-West emphasis to North-South in the greatest geopolitical transformation our world has yet experienced and the Western Hemisphere is far better positioned to exploit this radical reorientation than the East Aging demographics worldwide favor more slowly aging nations including the US while challenging rapidly aging nations like China incentivizing countries best to delay that transition by integrating younger faster growing populations into their ranks In combination these two tectonic forces collide with a third the exploding consumption of an expanding and now majority global middle class the bulk of whom reside along the increasingly unstable North South frontier Taking every variable of these unique circumstances into account America's New Map charts a path toward a bigger and better United States We will all be living in somebody's world come mid century this book tells Americans how to make sure it is one we can recognize as our own

As Borders Bend Xiangming Chen, 2005 As do other mighty forces such as wars nationalist aspirations and the shifting courses of great rivers globalization changes the world's borders by bending them out of shape and creating new transnational spaces State political boundaries no longer draw the definitive line in people's lives they once did Borders continue to contain self-described national populations and national activities but the penetration of economic globalization via growing cross border trade investment and resurgence of myriad regional ethnic groups is pushing and stretching the limits of borders into both interactive spaces and contested terrains Indeed new power centers with their own identities are springing out of once politically trivial and economically marginal landscapes While the terrorist attacks of 2001 and the SARS outbreak of 2003 prompted states to tighten border controls their efforts amount to only a temporary reversal of a powerful long term trend toward more open borders and the interactive transnational spaces that openness fosters This innovative book examines the complexities of de bordering and re bordering through a structured comparison of seven transborder subregions along the western Pacific Rim and an extended comparative analysis of the U S Mexico border and several European border regions Xiangming Chen offers a synthetic explanation for the complex and diverse processes and outcomes of economic growth social transformation infrastructure development and urban landscapes in the new transnational spaces around the porous and mutated borders on the Pacific Rim and beyond Relations of Global Power Gary Teeple,2011-01-01 This collection of original articles offers an up to date critical review of the global political economy today covering such topics as international finance corporate governance military power international labour standards global health human rights and more Assembling a group of top scholars the editors are able to provide a wide ranging yet coherent survey of contemporary international institutions and how they are governed In the process they offer a useful basis for understanding the financial crisis of 2008 Relations of Global Power is the only book available that examines the many different dimensions of the international regulatory structure across a range of issues placing them all within the context of neoliberal globalization It will be of interest to scholars of political science sociology policy studies public administration and global studies and will also appeal to activists and members of alter globalization movements Understanding World Regional Geography Erin H. Fouberg,William G. Moseley,2017-12-27 Understanding World Regional Geography UWRG is a course designed to teach students to think and apply geographic concepts long after the course is over Author Erin Fouberg draws from her expertise in geography education and research in student learning to create a product that has a strong pedagogical framework designed to engage students and deepen their understanding of the world by having them DO Geography UWRG includes features that help students learn to read cultural and physical landscapes ask geographic questions apply geographic concepts and make connections It integrates 25 threshold concepts and teaches students how geographers apply these concepts and asks them to apply these concepts themselves This enables them to grasp the complexities of the world and provides them with the knowledge and thinking skills necessary to understanding it UWRG is the first introductory course to integrate ESRI ArcGIS Online thematic maps enabling students to engage with course materials see patterns and answer geographic questions Beyond Global Food Supply Chains Victoria Stead,Melinda Hinkson,2022-07-20 This open access book takes the upheaval of the global COVID 19 pandemic as a springboard from which to interrogate a larger set of structural environmental and political fault lines running through the global food system In a context in which disruptions to the production distribution and consumption of food are figured as exceptions to the smooth just in time efficiencies of global supply chains these essays reveal the global food system as one that is inherently disruptive of human lives and flourishing and of relationships between people places and environments The pandemic thus represents a particular acute moment of disruption offering a lens on a deeper longer set of systemic processes and shining new light on transformational possibilities Technology Rivalry Between the USA and China Peter C.Y. Chow,2025-02-19 This book addresses the geopolitics and geoeconomics of technological rivalry between the world s two great powers the USA and China It focuses on the semiconductor industry which owing to its dual use in civilian and defence sectors is critical to economic and national security interests A diverse set of contributions from renowned scholars span wide ranging topics to holistically analyze contemporary USA China national security through a technological lens the shifting trade and technology policy in the USA the Chip 4 alliance as an industrial cartel technology sanctions and the voice of high tech industry in the USA the race for digital sovereignty in the Gulf region and in Africa Japan s grand strategy vis vis semiconductors a critical assessment of China s achievement on its self sufficiency and effort in reducing its reliance on foreign supplies the significance and the strategy of Taiwan s semiconductor in the future as well as how Taiwan can advance its national security through its status as a powerhouse of semiconductors Korea s semiconductor policy in response to international technology rivalry India s pursuit of semiconductors and a close investigation of decoupling and hostility between the two great powers
