Reed Of God:

The Reed of God Caryll Houselander, 2023-12-26 The Reed of God is an inspirational classic written by a British Roman Catholic ecclesiastical artist Caryll Houselander This book contains a beautiful meditation on Mary Mother of God and so much more Reading this book will bring you closer to Our Blessed Mother and hence to Christ Himself Filled with lyrical prose and touching analogies the author shows how Mary was the Reed of God and that we are all vessels waiting to do God's work and carrying Christ within us

The Reed of God Frances Caryll Houselander, 1951 This book Our Lady appeared two years after Caryll Houselander's first book had established her place in the front rank of modern spiritual writers This first book This war is the passion has since been revised and reissued under the peacetime title The comforting of Christ She writes of Our Lady not first and foremost as the Mother of God but as one human being who led the Christ life perfectly All that we know of Our Lady re-examined to find what can be learned from her by ordinary people for the living of their ordinary lives in the world Anyone who has read the first book will be prepared for the freshness and realism with which she treats each incident in Our Lady's life will be prepared also for her profound insight into the splendors and miseries of the life of everyday but will hardly be prepared for the sheer beauty of much of the writing and thinking here

The Keys of Power Nathan Crick, 2017-08-31 Examines Transcendentalism as a distinct rhetorical genre concerned primarily and self-consciously with questions of power Nathan Crick has crafted a new critical rhetorical history of American Transcendentalists that interprets a selection of their major works between the years 1821 and 1852 as political and ethical responses to the growing crises of their times In The Keys of Power Crick argues that one of the most enduring legacies of the Transcendentalist movement is the multifaceted understanding of transcendental eloquence as a distinct rhetorical genre concerned primarily and self-consciously with questions of power Crick examines the Transcendentalist understanding of how power is constituted in both the self and in society conceptualizing the relationships among technology nature language and identity critiquing the ethical responsibilities to oneself the other and the state and defining and ultimately praising the unique role that art action persuasion and ideas have in the transformation of the structure of political culture over historical time What is offered here is not a comprehensive genealogy of ideas a series of individual biographies or an effort at conceptual generalization but instead an exercise in narrative rhetorical theory and criticism that interprets some of the major specific writings and speeches by men and women associated with the Transcendentalist movement Sampson Reed Amos Bronson Alcott Orestes Brownson Ralph Waldo Emerson Margaret Fuller Henry David Thoreau and Frederick Douglass by placing them within a specific political and social history Rather than attempting to provide comprehensive overviews of the life and work of each of these individuals this volume presents close readings of individual texts that bring to life their rhetorical character in reaction to particular exigencies while addressing audiences of a unique moment This rhetoric of Transcendentalism provides insights into the keys of power that is the means of persuasion for our modern era that remain vital tools for individuals seeking to reconcile power and virtue in their struggle to make manifest a higher ideal in the world
