Reenvisioning Theological Education Exploring A Missional Alternative To Current Models:

Reenvisioning Theological Education Robert Banks, 1999 A top leadership theorist offers a compelling proposal for renovating the way religious education is practiced today Christian colleges and seminaries have not been immune from the cultural influences shaping contemporary education Challenging the conventional wisdom advanced by the educational debate during the last fifteen years Robert Banks builds an innovative new model of theological education based on how ministry formation took place in biblical times Banks takes full account of key issues raised by our current educational context and shows how a missional model of education is more holistic inclusive and practical than recent versions

Theological Education Andrew M. Bain, Ian Hussey, 2018-01-08 This volume draws upon historical and theological sources and empirical research to provide a unique and diverse perspective on theological education in the twenty first century The volume develops and promulgates the best thinking about theological education by drawing upon the breadth of expertise represented by the faculty of colleges within the Australian College of Theology This volume not only produces crucial insights for the future of theological education around the world but gives the Australian theological sector a voice to make its own unique contribution to the global dialogue about theological education

Reimagining Christian Education Johannes M. Luetz, Tony Dowden, Beverley Norsworthy, 2018-07-04 This book is an arresting interdisciplinary publication on Christian education comprising works by leading scholars professionals and practitioners from around the globe It focuses on the integrated approaches to Christian education that are both theoretically sound and practically beneficial and identifies innovative pedagogical methods and tools that have been field tested and practice approved It discusses topics such as exploring programmes and courses through different lenses learning challenges and opportunities within organisational management theology of business Christian models of teaching in different contexts job preparedness developing different interpretive or meaning making frameworks for working with social justice people with disability non profit community organisations and in developing country contexts It offers graduate students teachers school administrators organisational leaders theologians researchers and education practitioners a fresh and inspiring reimagining of Christian education perspectives and practices and the ramifications of their application to life long learning

Canonical Theism William Abraham, Jason E. Vickers, Natalie B. Van Kirk, 2008-02-18 The bold thesis of Canonical Theism is that the good and life giving Holy Spirit has equipped the church not only with a canon of scripture but also with an abundant canonical heritage of materials persons and practices However much of the latter has been ignored or cast aside The authors call for the retrieval and redeployment of the full range of this rich legacy Voices from across the spectrum here chart that mine of opportunity and invite the entire church to explore the benefits of their discoveries Ambitious in its scope and agenda Canonical Theism offers insights that will enable the readers to discover anew the faith that has nourished converts created saints and upheld martyrs across the years Contributors William J Abraham Frederick D Aquino Paul L Gavrilyuk Charles Gutenson Douglas M

Diversified Theological Education Ross Kinsler, 2008      Old Testament in Theology and Teaching Teresa

Chai, 2018-03-22 This book is a series of essays in Old Testament theology and pedagogy Each article is written by scholars with academic competence and long experience in their respective disciplines Written with a high view of the inerrancy of Scripture in mind each author seeks to bring biblical truth to light In most cases the authors write from within the Pentecostal Charismatic tradition and seek to bless the wider Body of Christ      Always Being Reformed David Hadley

Jensen, 2016-03-31 One of the most persistent slogans of Reformed theology is that it is reformed and always being reformed But what does this slogan mean This volume gathers thirteen essays written by a younger generation of Reformed theologians who teach and write on five different continents who together offer this work in Christian systematic theology Unlike many other works of Reformed theology however this book is framed by pressing contextual issues and questions instead of traditional loci Each chapter engages classical doctrine but does so through the lens of contemporary lived experience in particular contexts The result is not a theology where doctrines are applied to contexts but an approach where doctrine and context mutually shape one another The contributors take seriously the notion that theology is always being reformed and is always partial ever on the way hence it requires conversation partners beyond the Reformed family of faith The result is a study in Reformed theology that is thoroughly ecumenical      Leadership in Theological Education,

Volume 1 Fritz Deininger, Orbelina Eguizabal, 2017-04-14 The ICETE Programme for Academic Leadership IPAL was officially established in 2010 and arose out of the need to provide training to theological institutions in different regions of the world IPAL provides a three year cycle of four day seminars for the professional development of evangelical academic leaders to help institutions in their pursuit of quality and excellence This publication is the first of three volumes intended to accompany and support the IPAL seminars as well as independently providing wider access to the principles required by academic leaders for institutional development Each chapter shares and illustrates the contributors expertise in and understanding of education leadership and administration in the field of evangelical academic institutions With an intentional awareness of a wide range of non Western contexts this volume is a much needed guide for senior administrators around the world      Preparing for Ministry George M. Hillman, Most seminaries now require their students to get real world training by way of supervised theological field education This volume presents the wide array of issues that must be understood in order to integrate theological education and practical ministry including the importance of theological field education its purpose and challenges the need for flexibility in meeting different students needs and the resources available to create a meaningful and educational experience      Theology and the Mirror of Scripture Kevin J. Vanhoozer, Daniel J.

Treier, 2015-12-09 In this inaugural volume in the Studies in Christian Doctrine and Scripture Daniel J Treier and Kevin J Vanhoozer set forth a programmatic proposal for evangelical theology rooted in the claim that the church s vocation is to mirror the witness of Scripture in its doctrine and discipleship      Transforming Pastoral Leadership Quentin P. Kinnison, 2016-05-20 For many congregations change creates discomfort Pastoral leaders are often expected to be experts who manage and control realities beyond their expertise experience and ability That expectation a product of modern approaches to leadership views the pastor as responsible for maintaining the status quo Transforming Pastoral Leadership responds to this context by challenging readers to rediscover key biblical themes around the shepherding metaphor as well as key theological themes steeped in our historical faith narratives Readers are challenged to consider the origins of our dominant leadership practices and to reconsider how Christ's preeminence as the leader of his church requires us to reconstruct leadership practices that are faithful to his preeminence To assist congregations Transforming Pastoral Leadership suggests two processes that might help congregations discern God's missional promptings as they move forward into God's future and experience conflict as opportunities for transformation      The Bible and the Business of Life Simon Carey Holt, Gordon R. Preece, 2004 The Bible and the Business of Life is an anthology of essays by a variety of authors celebrating the 65th birthday of Robert Banks Robert Banks was an Baptist who worked and taught in the USA in Pasadena and in Melbourne      Mission to the World Tormod Engelsen, Ernst Harbakk, Rolv Olsen, Thor Strandenaes, 2009-11-01

Walking with the Mud Flower Collective Stina Busman Jost, 2014 Arguing for a retrieval of the landmark work God's Fierce Whimsy the author establishes the critical importance of this volume for the construction of a dialogic theological method Finally the author constructively engages various developments in feminist theologies and postcolonial theories

Towards a Malawian Theology of Laity Volker Glissmann, 2021-01-29 A key theological emphasis of the church is the priesthood of all believers This emphasis implies that lay empowerment and lay participation are central to what the church does Yet lay participation is a bit of an unfulfilled promise in many cases This book brings together church leaders theological educators as well as practitioners who are actively involved in lay ministry here in Malawi so that a stronger theology of laity for the Malawian church can emerge      Reading the Bible Missionally Michael Goheen, 2016-11-27 Academy of Parish Clergy's Top Ten Books for Parish Ministry Insights from a noteworthy convergence of top scholars in biblical studies and missiology Over the past half century it has become clear that mission is a central theme in the Bible's narrative and moreover is central to the very identity of the church This book significantly widens and deepens the emerging conversation on missional hermeneutics Essays from top biblical and missiological scholars discuss reading the Scriptures missionally using mission as a key interpretive lens Five introductory chapters probe various elements of a missional hermeneutic followed by sections on the Old and New Testaments that include chapters on two books from each to illustrate what a missional reading of them looks like Essays in two concluding sections draw out the implications of a missional reading of Scripture for preaching and for theological education CONTRIBUTORS Craig G Bartholomew Richard Bauckham Carl J Bosma Tim J Davy Dean Flemming John R Franke Mark Glanville Michael W Goheen Joel B Green Darrell L Guder

George R Hunsberger Timothy M Sheridan Christopher J H Wright N T Wright Mission in the Way of Paul Christopher R. Little, 2005 What relevance does the Apostle Paul have for the mission of the church in the twenty first century By investigating his socioeconomic background examining his doxological orientation in mission delineating how and why he shared resources in the first century and then relating all this to what has been called the contemporary International Partnership Movement this book demonstrates that when the church engages in cross cultural mission and ignores Pauline orthopraxy it places unnecessary obstacles in the path of the missio Dei Therefore Mission in the Way of Paul Biblical Mission for the Church in the Twenty First Century is pertinent for any course devoted to learning from and implementing biblical models of mission today New and Old Horizons in the Orality Movement Tom Steffen, Cameron D. Armstrong, 2022-02-18 Orality formed us Orality forms us Orality will forever form us Orality is a central theme of our lives In this fast paced world few Christian workers take the time to look back to learn and build on the lessons of the past Wise Christian workers however do not forge ahead into new horizons without first investigating past horizons They understand in this complex world there are too many strong shoulders of the past to be overlooked The dozen practiced researchers contributing to New and Old Horizons in the Orality Movement offer such inquirers wisdom from the past that can boldly and boundlessly improve the future of the modern day orality movement Teaching Theology in a Technological Age Doru Costache, James R. Harrison, 2015-11-25 The iGeneration has learned to adapt rapidly to technological change Tech savvy students multi task with consummate ease accessing email on smart phones researching assignments on tablets reading a book on Kindle while drinking a flat white and listening to iTunes in the background How does the tertiary educational curriculum meet the learning needs of students whose attention transitions rapidly between mediums and messages The complexity and pace of modern technological change has left the theological educational sector gasping as it struggles to devise pedagogically engaging online distance learning materials in traditional disciplines and teach units with significant relational and pastoral components The technological benefits are vast the instant availability of information unprecedented and the opportunities to provide theological education to groups marginalised by the tyranny of distance and time enormous How should the theological sector address these challenges and opportunities Although the benefits are massive the media is replete with stories of the casualties of technological change including cyber bullying internet predators the psychic damage from trolls addiction to gaming and issues of body image among others How should the theological sector drawing upon its scriptural and teaching heritage come to grips with the deficits spawned by the technological revolution What is the theological pastoral social and pedagogic responsibility of theology teachers in nurturing this new generation Teaching Theology in a Technological Age draws together in an inspiring volume a series of cutting edge essays from Australian New Zealand and South African scholars on the learning and teaching of theology in a digital age Theology, Church, and Ministry David S. Dockery, 2017-10-01 Theology Church and Ministry A Handbook for Theological Education helps readers understand the critical role theological education plays in equipping God called ministers for service in the church
