Reference Guide To The Literature Of Trav Volume 1:

A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 2023-11-15 English Literature, Volume 1 Louis A. Landa, 2015-12-08 This is the first of two volumes which will make available in convenient form the annual bibliographies of 18th century scholarship published for the past 25 years in the Philological Quarterly Volume 1 includes the years 1926 1938 By means of lithography the original issues are exactly reproduced with retention of all critical annotations Originally published in 1950 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Literature of Travel and Exploration Jennifer Speake, 2014-05-12 Containing more than 600 entries this valuable resource presents all aspects of travel writing There are entries on places and routes Afghanistan Black Sea Egypt Gobi Desert Hawaii Himalayas Italy Northwest Passage Samarkand Silk Route Timbuktu writers Isabella Bird Ibn Battuta Bruce Chatwin Gustave Flaubert Mary Kingsley Walter Raleigh Wilfrid Thesiger methods of transport and types of journey balloon camel grand tour hunting and big game expeditions pilgrimage space travel and exploration genres buccaneer narratives guidebooks New World chronicles postcards companies and societies East India Company Royal Geographical Society Society of Dilettanti and issues and themes censorship exile orientalism and tourism For a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample entries and more visit the Literature of Travel and Exploration An Encyclopedia website The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature George Watson, Ian Roy Willison, 1974 Historical Dictionary of the Discovery and Exploration of the Pacific Islands Max Quanchi, John Robson, 2005-10-18 The South Seas as this region used to be called conjured up images of adventure belles and savages romance and fabulous fortunes but the long voyages of discovery and exploration of the vast Pacific Ocean were really an exercise in amazing logistics navigation hard grit shipwreck and pure luck The motivations were scientific and geographic but at the same time nationalistic and materialistic A series on global exploration and discovery would not be complete without this book by Quanchi and Robson It is ambitious and informative and includes the familiar names of Laperouse Bougainville Cook and Dampier as well as the intriguing stories of the Bounty Mutiny scurvy and the mysterious Northwest Passage Terra Australis Ignatia and Davis Land There are entries on first contacts ships navigational instruments mapping and botany The scene is carefully set in the introduction the chronology spans several centuries and the extensive bibliography offers a guide to further reading There are more than just dry facts in this book It has a whiff of salt air the clash of empires cross cultural beach encounters and personal adventure Re-Siting Queen's English, 2022-07-11 Enlightenment Orpheus Vanessa Agnew, 2008-05 The Enlightenment saw a critical engagement with the ancient idea that music carries certain powers it heals and pacifies civilizes and educates Yet this interest in musical utility seems to conflict with larger notions of aesthetic autonomy that emerged at the same time In Enlightenment Orpheus Vanessa Agnew examines this apparent conflict and provocatively questions the notion of an aesthetic philosophical break between the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Agnew persuasively connects the English traveler and music scholar Charles Burney with the ancient myth of Orpheus She uses Burney as a guide through wide ranging discussions of eighteenth century musical travel views on music s curative powers interest in non European music and concerns about cultural identity Arguing that what people said about music was central to some of the great Enlightenment debates surrounding such issues as human agency cultural difference and national identity Agnew adds a new dimension to postcolonial studies which has typically emphasized the literary and visual at the expense of the aural She also demonstrates that these discussions must be viewed in context at the era s broad and well entrenched transnational network and emphasizes the importance of travel literature in generating knowledge at the time A new and radically interdisciplinary approach to the question of the power of music its aesthetic and historical interpretations and political uses Enlightenment Orpheus will appeal to students and scholars in historical musicology ethnomusicology German studies eighteenth century history and comparative studies

The Cambridge History of Africa J. D. Fage, Roland Anthony Oliver, 1975-09-18 This volume looks at developments in Africa during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Sokomoko: Popular Culture in East Africa, 2023-12-21 Matatu is a journal on African literatures and societies dedicated to interdisciplinary dialogue between literary and cultural studies historiography the social sciences and cultural anthropology Matatu is animated by a lively interest in African culture and literature including the Afro Caribbean that moves beyond worn out clich s of cultural authenticity and national liberation towards critical exploration of African modernities The East African public transport vehicle from which Matatu takes its name is both a component and a symbol of these modernities based on Western these days usually Japanese technology it is a vigorously African institution it is usually regarded with some anxiety by those travelling in it but is often enough the only means of transport available it creates temporary communicative communities and provides a transient site for the exchange of news storytelling and political debate Matatu is firmly committed to supporting democratic change in Africa to providing a forum for interchanges between African and European critical debates to overcoming notions of absolute cultural ethnic or religious alterity and to promoting transnational discussion on the future of African societies in a wider world Matatu will be published as journal as of 2016 All back volumes are still available in print Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science Allen Kent, 1985-11-27 The Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science provides an outstanding resource in 33 published volumes with 2 helpful indexes This thorough reference set written by 1300 eminent international experts offers librarians information computer scientists bibliographers documentalists systems analysts and students convenient access to the techniques and tools of both library and information science Impeccably researched cross

Willison,1971-07-02 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 2 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries The Cambridge Companion to Travel Writing Peter Hulme,Tim Youngs,2002-11-21 The Cambridge Companion to Travel Writing brings together specialists from anthropology history literary and cultural studies to offer a broad and vibrant introduction to travel writing in English between 1500 and the present This comprehensive introduction to the subject features specially commissioned contributions including six essays surveying the period s travel writing a further six focusing on geographical areas of particular interest Arabia the Amazon Tahiti Ireland Calcutta the Congo and California and three final chapters analysing some of the theoretical and cultural dimensions to this enigmatic and influential genre of writing Several invaluable tools are also provided including an extensive list of further reading and a detailed five hundred year chronology listing important events and publications This volume will be of interest to teachers and students alike

Writing Travel in Central Asian History Nile Green,2014-01-02 For centuries travelers have made Central Asia known to the wider world through their writings In this volume scholars employ these little known texts in a wide range of Asian and European languages to trace how Central Asia was gradually absorbed into global affairs The representations of the region brought home to China and Japan India and Persia Russia and Great Britain provide valuable evidence that helps map earlier periods of globalization and cultural interaction      Defining New Idioms and Alternative Forms of Expression Eckhard Breiting, 1996 This first volume of ASNEL Papers gathers together a broad range of reflections on and presentations of the social and expressive underpinnings of post colonial literary cultures concentrating on aspects of orality social structure and hybridity the role of women in cultural production performative and media representations theatre film advertising and their institutional forms and the linguistic basis of literature including questions of multilingualism pidgins and creoles and translation Some of the present studies adopt a diachronic approach as in essays devoted to European colonial influences on African literatures the populist colonial roots of Australian drama and the intersection of exogenous and autochthonous languages in the cultural development and identity formation of Cameroon Tanzania and the Swahili speaking regions of Africa Broadly synchronic perspectives which nevertheless take cognizance of developmental determinants range over dominant genres poetry short fiction and the novel children s literature theatre film and cover indigene literatures Australian Aboriginal Maori First Nations and regional creativity in West East and South Africa the Caribbean India and the South East Asian diaspora and the settler colonies of Canada Australia and New Zealand Authors treated within broader frameworks include Chinua Achebe Biyi Bandele Thomas Bole Butake Shashi Deshpande Louis Esson Lorna Goodison Patricia Grace Bland Holt Keri Hulme Witi Ihimaera Kazuo Ishiguro Rita Kleinhardt Hanif Kureishi Werewere Liking Timothy Mo V S Naipaul Salman Rushdie and Ruby Slipperjack There are self testimonies from the writers Geoff Goodfellow Darrelyn Gunzburg and Don Mattera poems by David Dabydeen Geoff Goodfellow and Olive Senior Of particular value to this collection are the perspectives offered by African Caribbean and Eastern European contributors      A Reference Guide To The Literature Of Travel Vol I Edward Godfrey Cox, 2021-09-09 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public To ensure a quality reading experience this work has been proofread and republished using a format that seamlessly blends the original graphical elements with text in an easy to read typeface We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant      Jade Mountains and Cinnabar Pools James M. Hargett, 2018-12-18 First hand accounts of travel provide windows into places unknown to the reader or new ways of seeing familiar places In Jade Mountains and Cinnabar Pools the first book length treatment in English of Chinese travel literature youji James M Hargett identifies and examines core works in the genre from the Six Dynasties period 220 581 when its essential characteristics emerged to its florescence in the late Ming dynasty 1368 1644 He traces the dynamic process through which the genre most of which was written by scholars and officials developed and shows that key features include a journey toward an identifiable place essay or diary format description of places phenomena and conditions accompanied by authorial observations comments and even personal feelings inclusion of sensory details and narration of movement through space and time Travel literature s inclusion of a variety of writing styles and purposes has made it hard to delineate Hargett finds however that classic pieces of Chinese travel literature reveal much about the author his values and his view of the world which in turn tells us about the author s society making travel literature a rich source of historical information     Books in Print ,1994
