Reflections From Canoe Country:

Reflections from Canoe Country Christopher Angus,1999      On Foot in Canoe Country Nicholas J. Faber,1998      Canoe Country Reflections Larry Rice,1993      Canoe Country Roy MacGregor,2016-05-10 One of our favourite chroniclers of all things Canadian presents a rollicking personal photo filled history of the relationship between a country and its canoes From the earliest explorers on the Columbia River in BC or the Mattawa in Ontario to a doomed expedition of voyageurs up the Nile to rescue Khartoum from the author s family roots deep in the Algonquin wilderness to modern families who have canoed across the country kids and dogs included Canoe Country is Roy MacGregor s celebration of the essential and enduring love affair Canadians have with our first and still favourite means of getting around Famous paddlers have been so enchanted with the canoe that one swore God made Canada as the perfect country in which to paddle it Drawing on MacGregor s own decades spent whenever possible with a paddle in his hand this is a story of high adventure on white water and the sweetest peace in nature s quietest corners from the author best able and most eager to tell it      Rooted in Rock Jim Gould,2001-06-01 In the past twenty years the Adirondacks have inspired a resident population of writers who have gained regional and national prominence using the Adirondack region as their primary setting and subject matter or at least as a significant point of departure Rooted in Rock is the first collection of its kind in more than twenty years since Paul Jamieson s Adirondack Reader What makes the volume unique though is the number of contributors who not only make the Adirondacks their subject but who make their homes in these mountains The works in this volume include contemporary essays literary nonfiction poetry short fiction and excerpted fiction and are a mix of new and previously published writings by forty three authors established as well as emerging including Bill McKibben Sue Halpern Russell Banks Alex Schoumatoff Chase Twichell Curt Stager Amy Godine and Jim Gould to name a few      Canoe Country Florence P. Jaques,1979-01-01      Canoe Country Wildlife Mark Stensaas,      Flypaper Chris Angus,2014-09-02 Ebola Coronavirus and SARS have frightened the world How would we fight a deadly disease that comes from beyond planet Earth When a 2 000 year old mummy is unearthed in central China investigators from all over the world fly in to Washington DC for a top secret meeting hoping to find an answer to its mysterious genetic anomalies But the scientists may have mistakenly released a new deadly disease of extraterrestrial origins in the process of examining the genetic markers of the ancient mummy The devastating human error causes a worldwide plague one that penetrates the barriers of the human immune system Sino expert Eric Logan and archaeologist Dr Marcia Kessler lead an expedition back to the icy glaciers of China to extract a much older 20 000 year old mummy which could help them formulate a cure Even as they embark on their mission the strange illness afflicts the people around them turning men into mindless monsters The team retreats to a remote Buddhist monastery and must hold off a vicious army of victims As they wrestle with the possibility that they may be the last living humans on earth someone finds an ancient burial object that may hold the key to ending the apocalyptic epidemic Skyhorse Publishing under our Night Shade

Canoe Country Camping Michael Furtman, 1992

St. Lawrence County Christopher Angus, Susan H. Wood, 2001

Since the days of the pioneers St Lawrence County's diverse waterways fertile soils and dense forests have drawn a rich cultural mix of peoples These early settlers built the colorful barns mills and lighthouses of a working community Over time the area was transformed by one of the world's busiest shipping lanes the St Lawrence Seaway by the great educational institutions of the valley and by modern industries like Corning the high tech creator of windows for the space shuttle St Lawrence County is bracketed by two great vacation meccas the Thousand Islands and the Adirondack Park Artist Frederick Remington's island retreat at Inglebrook and Henry Rushton's Canton boat works are no longer with us but the port of Ogdensburg still boasts elegant nineteenth century homes Rushton's crafts can still be found at exhibitions at Paul Smith's College or gracing Lake Flower in the village of Saranac Lake Daily life in hamlets such as Star Lake North Creek and Blue Mountain Lake can still evoke a simpler time

Finding True North Fran Yardley, 2018-05-23

An evocative and personal history of a unique historic place in the Adirondacks In 1968 Fran and Jay Yardley a young couple with pioneering spirit moved to a remote corner of the Adirondacks to revive the long abandoned but historic Bartlett Carry Club with its one thousand acres and thirty seven buildings The Saranac Lake area property had been in Jay's family for generations and his dream was to restore this summer resort to support himself and eventually a growing family Fran chronicles their journey and along the way unearths the history of those who came before from the 1800s to the present Offering an evocative glimpse into the past Finding True North traces the challenges and transformations of one of the world's most beautiful least celebrated places and the people who were tirelessly devoted to it Fran Yardley is a superb storyteller and this is a superb story of a camp and of a marriage illuminating a key corner of the slightly out of time paradise that is the Adirondacks Bill McKibben author of Radio Free Vermont A Fable of Resistance Fran Yardley has given us an emotionally moving book combining memoir and Adirondack history With a singular and powerful voice in a tightly organized narrative she deftly weaves together two distinct strands her own remarkable story and the history of Bartlett's Carry Philip Terrie author of Seeing the Forest Reviews Musings and Opinions from an Adirondack Historian Fran Yardley storyteller actress writer and stalwart Adirondacker takes us behind the balsam curtain to a truly magical place on the Saranac Lakes Finding True North is the tale of families forests tragedy and triumph told from the heart with deep insight It's a terrific immersive read Elizabeth Folwell editor at large Adirondack Life Gifted storyteller Fran Yardley has harnessed her many voices to the printed page in this remarkable memoir Yardley interweaves her firsthand experience hinged to historic documentation with her imagination as she reveals the lives and ways of those who went before and coexisted with her and Jay Yardley at Bartlett Carry Finding True North is a must read love story about Adirondack place and people Caroline M Welsh Director Emerita Adirondack Museum In Finding True North Fran Yardley has produced an immediate and necessary addition to the body of Adirondack literature and history Long in the making it is beautifully written authoritative and moving Christopher Shaw author of Sacred Monkey River A Canoe Trip with the Gods and former editor of Adirondack Life Author and master storyteller Fran Yardley tells of the early history of the aquatic Adirondack crossroads known as Bartlett Carry the later history of the place as a club for families eager to swap conventional orbits outside the mountains for the natural world within and the reinvention of the place by the author and her visionary late husband Jay The stories that flow together here touch the heart and bring the reader to tears and laughter For lovers of the Adirondacks and particularly for those keen on understanding how the past shapes the present and the future this is a must read Ed Kanze author of Adirondack Life and Wildlife in the Wild Wild East     The Extraordinary Adirondack Journey of Clarence Petty Christopher Angus,2015-02-25 Author and naturalist Christopher Angus profiles for the first time the adventurous life of Clarence Petty one of the great pioneer conservationists of the Adirondack Mountain region of New York State Raised in the heart of the Adirondack wilderness between Tupper and Saranac Lakes Petty overcame his humble beginnings and pursued a variety of careers as wilderness guide forester Civilian Conservation Corps camp director World War II pilot district ranger and aerial forest fire fighter ultimately leaving his indelible mark as a lifelong advocate for the protection of the wilderness The story of Petty s life reads like a Horatio Alger novel His father moved to the mountains in the 1880s to work as a guide His mother was a cook for one of the popular sportsmen s hotels in the area Young Clarence and his brothers enjoyed the kind of childhood freedom and independence that today s youngsters can only dream about Their father s sense of self reliance and their mother s drive to educate her sons led all three to attend college Clarence followed a path of service to the American landscape His influence on state policy regarding the Adirondack Park and especially its millions of acres of wilderness has been profound His life story provides a window into the politics of conservation in the Adirondack region from the early days of the twentieth century to the present     Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998     The Publishers Weekly ,1997     The Writers Directory ,2013     Book Review Index ,2003 Vols 8 10 of the 1965 1984 master cumulation constitute a title index     National Dreams Daniel Francis,2002-07-01 As Canadians we remember the stories told to us in high school history class as condensed images of the past the glorious Mountie the fearsome Native the Last Spike National Dreams is an incisive study of the most persistent icons and stories in Canadian history and how they inform our sense of national identity the fundamental beliefs that we Canadians hold about ourselves National Dreams is the story of our stories the myths and truths of our collective past that we first learned in school and which we carry throughout our adult lives as tangible evidence of what separates us from other nationalities Francis examines various aspects of this national mythology in which history is as much storytelling as fact Textbooks were an important resource for Francis For me these books are interesting not because they explain what actually happened to us but because they explain what we think happened to us For example Francis documents how the legend of the CPR as a country sustaining national affirming monolith was created by the company itself a group of capitalists celebrating the privately owned railway albeit one which was generously supported with public land and cash and reiterated by most historians ever since Similarly we learn how the Mounties were transformed from historical police force to mythic heroes by a vast army of autobiographers historians novelists and Hollywood filmmakers with little attention paid to the true role of the force in such incidents as the Bolshevik rebellion in which a secret conspiracy by the Government against its people was conducted through the RNWMP Also revealed in National Dreams are the stories surrounding the formation and celebration of Canadian heroes such as Louis Riel and Billy Bishop

The North Country Harry Anton Auer, 1906 Keywords include Ojibways Pigeon Falls Lake Superior Crees Biddequaw Peterborough North Woods Forest trading room North Country Trail Wawa Moose Factory Library Journal, 1997

Nature's Crossroads George Vrtis, Christopher W. Wells, 2023-01-10 Minnesota's Twin Cities have long been powerful engines of change From their origins in the early nineteenth century the Twin Cities helped drive the dispossession of the region's Native American peoples turned their riverfronts into bustling industrial and commercial centers spread streets and homes outward to the horizon and reached well beyond their urban confines setting in motion the environmental transformation of distant hinterlands As these processes unfolded residents inscribed their culture into the landscape complete with all its tensions disagreements contradictions prejudices and social inequalities These stories lie at the heart of Nature's Crossroads The book features an interdisciplinary team of distinguished scholars who aim to open new conversations about the environmental history of the Twin Cities and Greater Minnesota
