Launching the War on Poverty Michael L. Gillette,2010-07-09 Head Start Job Corps Foster Grandparents College Work Study VISTA Community Action and the Legal Services Corporation are familiar programs but their tumultuous beginning has been largely forgotten Conceived amid the daring idealism of the 1960s these programs originated as weapons in Lyndon Johnson s War on Poverty an offensive spearheaded by a controversial new government agency Within months the Office of Economic Opportunity created an array of unconventional initiatives that empowered the poor challenged the established order and ultimately transformed the nation s attitudes toward poverty In Launching the War on Poverty historian Michael L Gillette weaves together oral history interviews with the architects of the Great Society s boldest experiment Forty nine former poverty warriors including Sargent Shriver Adam Yarmolinsky and Lawrence F O'Brien recount this inside story of unprecedented governmental innovation The interviews capture the excitement and heady optimism of Americans in the 1960s along with their conflicts and disillusionment This new edition of Launching the War on Poverty adds the voice of Lyndon Johnson to the story with excerpts from his recently released White House telephone conversations In these colorful and brutally candid conversations LBJ exercises his full arsenal of presidential powers political leverage and legendary persuasiveness to win one of his most difficult legislative battles The second edition also documents how the OEO s offspring survived their volatile origins to become broadly supported features of domestic policy

Freedom and Indigenous Constitutionalism John Borrows,2016-01-01 John Borrows uses Ojibwe law stories and principles to suggest alternative ways in which Indigenous peoples can work to enhance freedom Settlement Houses Under Siege Michael Fabricant,Robert Fisher,2002 This book focuses on the externally driven difficulties of service workers and agencies in shaping services such as the consequences of recent conservative social policies on agency life and the way in which the present political environment influences services through privatization Global Migration, Social Change, and Cultural Transformation E. Elliott,J. Payne,P. Ploesch,2007-11-26 The essays in this collection work toward a larger goal of separating globalization from strictly economic considerations The authors instead look at globalization as a force that produces profound social and cultural consequences including migration struggles for social change and the transformations of aesthetic practices Learning Civil Societies Penelope Cheryl Gurstein,2007-01-01 This collection explores the theoretical underpinnings of democratic planning and governance in relation to civil society formation and social learning
