Description

An esteemed activist invites us to consider the complex idea of abolition as much more than a strategy or a set of tactics—at a deeper level, abolition is an entire political framework, culture, and orientation

Blending history and political theory and weaving in examples from literature, social movements, and his personal life, this book is a useful resource and primer for those interested in fighting for social justice. Guided

Reflections on Liberation Daryl Russell Grigsby,1985      Spirituality Kees Waaijman,2002 This textbook is a systematic guide to the extensive field of spirituality Kees Waaijman charts the multiform phenomenon of spirituality the spirituality of ordinary people the great spiritual traditions and the force of counter movements From the foundation of this survey he answers questions like What exactly is spirituality What forms can a scholarly approach take Finally the book provides methodic access to the study of spirituality focusing on the following questions Which are the different forms of spirituality and how can we describe them How can spiritual texts be given a reliable reading Which themes can be distinguished in the field of spirituality and what would be a meaningful way to address them What do we mean by spiritual guidance and what can we learn from it This textbook has no equal It is indispensable to scholars wishing to study the subject but also to others who want to learn about spirituality

The Interface of Science, Theology, and Religion Dennis Ngien,2019-03-07 In celebration of Alister E McGrath s sixty fifth birthday in 2018 this Festschrift aims to highlight him as a lauded scholar who exemplifies an interface of science theology and religion It comprises works by McGrath s theological allies and colleagues from diverse ecclesial homes including Graham Ward Oliver Crisp Tony Lane Sung Wook Chung Randall Zachman Veli Matti K rkk inen Jonathan Wilson Jeffrey P Greenman Robert Kolb Sister Benedicta Ward Michael Lloyd Bethany Sollereder and Patrick Franklin Critical but appreciative is the posture with which these contributors engage the wide range of McGrath s own scholarly pursuits and publications This volume edited by Dennis Ngien covers these themes that are central to the life and witness of the church atonement Christology Trinity eschatology mission Reformation science nature culture evangelism and theodicy there is much to ponder and reap here Readers will join with the contributors and pay tribute to McGrath who has risen to a life of significance as a scientist turned theologian professor author Christian apologist and churchman

The Making of American Liberal Theology Gary J. Dorrien,2006-01-01 In this first of three volumes Dorrien identifies the indigenous roots of American liberal theology and demonstrates a wider longer running tradition than has been thought The tradition took shape in the nineteenth century motivated by a desire to map a modernist third way between orthodoxy and rationalistic deism atheism It is defined by its openness to modern intellectual inquiry its commitment to the authority of individual reason and experience its conception of Christianity as an ethical way of life and its commitment to make Christianity credible and socially relevant to modern people Dorrien takes a narrative approach and provides a biographical reading of important religious thinkers of the time including William E Channing Ralph Waldo Emerson Horace Bushnell Henry Ward Beecher Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Charles Briggs Dorrien notes that although liberal theology moved into elite academic institutions its conceptual foundations were laid in the pulpit rather than the classroom

Melodies of a New Monasticism Craig Gardiner,2018-03-09 The New Monastic Movement is a vibrant source of renewal for the church s life and mission Many involved in this movement have quoted Dietrich Bonhoeffer

s conviction that the church must recover ancient spiritual disciplines if it is to effectively engage the powers that be

Melodies of a New Monasticism adopts a musical metaphor of polyphony the combination of two or more lines of music to articulate the way that these early Christian virtues can be woven together in community Creatively using this imagery this book draws on the theological vision of Bonhoeffer and the contemporary witness of George MacLeod and the Iona Community to explore the interplay between discipleship doctrine and ethics A recurring theme is the idea of Christ as the cantus firmus the fixed song around which people perform the diverse harmonies of God in church and world including worship ecumenism healing peace justice and ecology

Joseph Mazzini. A memoir by E.A.V. With two essays by Mazzini: Thoughts on democracy, and The duties of man Emilie Ashurst Venturi,1885

Summer Sermons, Winter Thoughts Peter C. Hodgson,2018-05-31 The summer sermons have been delivered in the Presbyterian Church of Eagles Mere Pennsylvania over a period of fifteen years When someone first arrives in Eagles Mere for the summer people ask how their winter has been winter meaning the whole time that has elapsed since the previous summer In the author s case winter means Nashville Tennessee where he has lived since 1965 when he joined the faculty of Vanderbilt Divinity School retiring after thirty eight years Winter Thoughts consists of autobiographical reflections on three topics lives theologies and politics The lives are those of Peter and Eva Hodgson The longest section Theologies describes the various influences and directions the author s work has taken in systematic and historical theology Politics reflects on the decline of the liberal democratic consensus The whole is loosely held together by an underlying question How is God efficaciously present in history without violating the fabric of history

Reflection Michael Zilbering,2011-03-14 The book Reflection contains a short memoir about the forceful containment of a young Jewish boy in Nazi concentration camps from during the Second World War He is one of millions who went through the burning hell of concentration camps where for the first time he really met up with human grief put down cruelty and fight for survival every day hour and minute of life The lesson of Holocaust about the nature of human evil the need for vigilance and the importance of individual responsibility are needed now more than ever We live in dangerous times when echoes of our past resonate everywhere We are again in the world of war in a world where madmen threaten America and Jews The latter part of the book is a collection of published articles of contemporary political economical and social outlook These writings are relevant in the present just like they were in the past

Changing Views of the Human Condition Paul W. Pruyser,1987

Emancipation Still Comin' Kortright Davis,2008-04-01 The Caribbean awash with sun and water is a meeting place of many races religions and cultures There North and South Latin and Anglo native Carib African black French and English white races and cultures meet In a religious melting pot Protestant and Catholic Christian Afro Caribbean Hindu and secularist faiths intertwine cross pollinate and go their ways separate yet together in the divine milieu Such a place has a rich and revealing story to tell of history nature and humanity of the understanding of freedom of the meaning and scope of theology itself The key in Caribbean society with its experiences of slavery colonialism neocolonialism and structural dependence is emancipation the pursuit proclamation and practice of human freedom Emancipation is the key to Caribbean theology as well This is the focal point of Kortright Davis s work He introduces the complex tapestry of this unique society its social and cultural pluralism its particular strengths and weaknesses poverty dependence alienation and divisiveness Davis explores many aspects of Caribbean religion and spirituality especially the complexities of carnival and its uniquely African soul He notes too a theological dependency and posits again a unique Caribbean emancipatory theology to establish a theological self reliance In emancipatory theology as in Latin American liberation theology the source for praxis and reflection is faith linked to historical experience And the Caribbean experience of continual struggle for identity distinguishes and yet unites Caribbean Christians with Christians everywhere

The Bhagavad-Gita Georg Feuerstein,2011 The Bhagavad Gita the Song of God is not only one of the most revered texts of Hinduism but of world literature and spirituality in general Its 700 verses make up a small part of the great Sanskrit epic Mahabharata of which it can be said to be the heart It consists of a dialogue between the warrior Arjuna and Krishna avatar incarnation of the god Vishnu about action and nonaction knowledge and love The Gita is revered as a concise expression of Hindu philosophy as a work of profound poetry and as a guide to enlightened living It is one of the most often translated of spiritual texts and as is the case with other texts of its stature new translations tend to enhance rather than exhaust our understanding of it revealing new facets of its wisdom with each iteration This fresh translation stands out from the many others first of all in its careful faithfulness to the original language but also for the extensive tools for understanding it provides It is accompanied by detailed explanatory notes as well as by the entire Sanskrit text on facing pages both in the original Devanagari alphabet and in a romanized version that allows the reader to approximate the sounds of this work that began with oral recitation a pronunciation guide is also provided Also included is a literal word for word translation for comparison extensive material on the background symbolism and influence of the Gita and an exhaustive glossary of terms It is like a course on the Bhagavad Gita in a book Three Keys to Spiritual Renewal Clark H. Pinnock,1998-03-03

Renewing Theology J. Matthew Ashley,2022-07-15 This comprehensive study investigates the role that Ignatian spirituality has played in the renewal of academic theology using three prominent Jesuits as case studies Over several centuries spirituality has come to define a field of concerns and themes increasingly treated separately from those of academic theology as if the latter had little relation to the former This raises the question for us today How is spirituality related to the practice of theology In Renewing Theology J Matthew Ashley provides an answer by turning to Ignatian spirituality and three prominent twentieth century theologians who embraced its spiritual resources Karl Rahner Ignacio Ellacur a and Jorge Mario Bergoglio that is Pope Francis Ashley begins his investigation by considering the historical origins of the widening separation between spirituality and academic theology in the Christian West He provides an initial overview of Ignatian spirituality focusing on the openness and multidimensionality of Ignatius of Loyola s Spiritual Exercises presented here as a text in which the conditions of modernity that defined its author s world are present at least incipiently Ashley then offers three case studies in order to show how each Jesuit Rahner Ellacur a and Pope Francis responded to the challenges of modernity in a way that is uniquely nourished and illuminated by themes constitutive of Ignatian spirituality Their theologies Ashley suggests evince a particular clarity and force when the Ignatian spirituality that animates them is foregrounded Providing new and productive avenues into understanding the theologies of these three individuals this sophisticated and enlightening book will interest scholars and students of systematic theology as well as readers who are interested in the future of theology and spirituality in a fragmented age Seeds of the Spirit Richard H. Bell,Barbara L. Battin,1995-01-01

This book brings together a selection of classic spiritual writings from the twentieth century s most inspirational authors Arranged thematically this book is ideal for use as a spiritual primer for laity and clergy alike and is also helpful for sermon preparation The topics include alienation and loneliness holiness and spirituality justice and kindness purity of heart humility and renunciation spiritual presence and incarnation and worship gratitude and joy Challenging and engaging these writings will invite us to explore and deepen our sense of the sacred in our everyday lives Selections are from the work of Karl Barth Daniel Berrigan Dietrich Bonhoeffer Martin Buber Dorothy Day Matthew Fox Gustavo Gutierrez Dag Hammarskjold Vaclav Havel Abraham Heschel Martin Luther King Jr Madeleine L Engle C S Lewis Thomas Merton Mother Teresa of Calcutta Henri Nouwen Brother Roger of Taize Dorothee Soelle Simone Weil and many others A short biography of each writer is included Ragbag Theologies Miranda N. Pillay,Sarojini Nadar,Clint Le Bruyns,2009-12-01 It is Denise Ackermann s work towards the humanity of all which prompted this particular collection of essays in her honour The idea of honouring Denise with a Festschrift for her 70th birthday was first discussed in 2005 among members of the Cape Town Chapter of the Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians who met at Denise s home at the time Editors Feminist Interpretations of Martin Heidegger Nancy J. Holland, Patricia Huntington, 2010-11-01 The 14 essays included in this collection illustrate the ways in which feminist readings can deepen understanding of Heidegger s philosophy They illuminate both the richness and the limitations of the resources Heidegger s work can provide for feminist thought Freedom's Distant Shores R. Drew Smith, 2006 This volume examines relations between U S Protestants and Africa since the end of colonial rule It draws attention to shifting ecclesiastical and socio political priorities especially the decreased momentum of social justice advocacy and the growing missionary influence of churches emphasizing spiritual revival and personal prosperity The book provides a thought provoking assessment of U S Protestant involvements with Africa and it proposes forms of engagement that build upon ecclesiastical dynamism within American and African contexts
