Reflective Practice In Action 80 Reflection Breaks For Busy:

Reflective Practice in Action Thomas S. C. Farrell, 2003-11-20 Use 80 reflection breaks as individual discussion starters or as part of a comprehensive professional growth plan that is perfect for teachers at all levels Teacher Reflection Zia Tajeddin, Atsuko Watanabe, 2022-09-15 This edited book has been compiled in honor of Thomas S C Farrell one of the most distinguished scholars in theorizing and researching language teacher reflection It examines teacher reflection in three main areas policies practices and the impact of teacher reflection on teachers practices and professional development The data driven chapters shed light on concerns and challenges experienced by teachers in diverse international contexts and institutions and discuss the practical implications of their findings across a variety of policy settings The book addresses aspects of reflective practice including macro and micro policies and constraints as well as opportunities in the engagement of reflective practice In addition it explores teachers identity cognition emotion and motivation areas which are relevant but often not discussed in the literature on reflective practice Developing Reflective TESOL Practitioners Through Teacher Education Andrzej Cirocki, Mark Wyatt, Xuesong (Andy) Gao, 2024-06-26 This textbook provides insights from Asian contexts into how reflective practice is nurtured on Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages TESOL and English Language Teaching ELT teacher education programmes There is increasing recognition worldwide that given the centrality of reflective practice to teachers ongoing professional development supporting teachers to become reflective practitioners should be integral to teacher education programmes Consequently tertiary level courses in areas such as TESOL and ELT tend to promote reflective practice supported by theoretical input from the burgeoning literature on reflection much of which is produced in the West Relatively under represented in the literature are global perspectives on reflective practice there are consequently relatively few accounts as to how reflective practice is embedded in teacher education programmes in different parts of the world including Asia Hence this book addresses a gap Contributing authors from fourteen countries provide insights into the ways in which teachers are helped to grow as reflective practitioners on their teacher education programmes in their unique contexts This textbook showcases how reflective teaching practices are developed supported by frameworks for critical reflection and in interaction with local educational policies These distinctive accounts aid readers in reflecting on the ways in which reflective practice is supported in their own teacher education contexts and in considering ways of enhancing the reflective dimension of their programmes This textbook showcases innovative reflective activities and can be used as a principal text or as supplemental reading on a range of TESOL and ELT teacher education courses The Sports Coach as Educator Robyn L. Jones, 2006-08-21 Teaching athletes to improve their performance is the essence of sports coaching In response to new government led initiatives to invest in and develop coaching this book is the first introduction to pedagogical theory for coaching Bringing helpful insights from educational theory to bear on coaching practice The Sports Coach as Educator expands and enriches the role of the coach and allows professionals to approach their work in new and inventive ways Exploring the nature of coaching this text covers educational concepts in coaching coaching teaching and leadership athletes learning coaching communities and the social process reflective practice mentoring developing expert coaches

Improving Learner Reflection for TESOL Li-Shih Huang, 2021-06-03 Presenting comprehensive research conducted with learners and educators in a range of settings this volume showcases self reflection as a powerful tool to enhance student learning The text builds on empirical insights to illustrate how language professionals can foster critical self reflection amongst learners of English as an additional language This text uses ecologically sensitive practitioner research that addresses issues of both practical and pedagogical significance in the fields of TESOL language teaching and learning and teacher education By synthesizing interdisciplinary research and theory chapters show how various types of self reflection including guided and non guided group and individual forms and written oral and technology mediated reflection can promote autonomous self regulated learning amongst students at various levels Whilst offering readers a strong grounding in the theoretical and empirical knowledge that supports self reflection the volume gives constant attention is given to praxis with a focus on effective pedagogical strategies and tools needed to implement encourage and evaluate critical learner reflection in readers own teaching or research This volume will be a critical resource for language teaching professionals interested in critical learner reflection including in service pre service and teacher educators in the field of TESOL Scholars and researchers in the fields of applied linguistics and language education more broadly will find this volume valuable

The Guide to Reflective Practice in Conflict Resolution Michael Lang, 2024-08-22 This book is a commonsense guide to becoming a reflective practitioner written by a practitioner for practitioners This second edition is fully revised and updated incorporating extensive new material emphasizing hands on tools worksheets and guides along with practical advice for those interested in adopting reflective practice individually or in a group setting It also provides useful resources step by step instructions and more case studies and commentaries from practitioners Every person in a conflict resolution process sees the world differently and acts in a distinctive manner Yet by following well developed practice routines practitioners often fail to consider the unpredictability of human interactions and overlook behaviors that are inconsistent with their expectations To respond effectively to surprising and unpredictable events this book encourages practitioners to adapt their thinking so they can use their knowledge and skills when situations do not match their assumptions or are inconsistent with their practice routines This book also includes guest essays by Ava Abramowitz Jodie Grant Tzofnat Peleg Baker and Susanne Terry

Fostering Reflective Teaching Practice in Pre-Service Education Djoub, Zineb, 2017-08-11 As with any industry the education sector often goes through frequent changes It is every educator s duty to keep up with these shifting requirements and alter their teaching style accordingly Fostering Reflective Teaching Practice in Pre Service Education is an essential reference source that provides a detailed analysis of the most efficient and effective ways for teachers to adapt to changes in their industry Featuring relevant topics such as reflective teaching methodology
