Refugees from an Imaginary Country Darrell Schweitzer, 1999 The Mammoth Book of Best New Horror 11
Stephen Jones, 2012-03-01 As usual acclaimed horror anthologist Stephen Jones has chosen the finest short stories and novellas of supernatural and psychological fiction With the most comprehensive review of the year useful contact lists and a fascinating necrology as a bonus this is one book that every horror fan must have The Mammoth Book of Best New Horror Stephen Jones, Ramsey Campbell, 2000 The Improbable Adventures of Sherlock Holmes John Joseph Adams, 2009-09-01 The game is afoot Night Shade Books is proud to present the fantastic adventures of the world's greatest detective mystery fantasy science fiction horror no genre can escape the esteemed detective's needle sharp intellect and intuition This reprint anthology showcases the best Holmes short fiction from the last 25 years featuring stories by such visionaries as Stephen King Neil Gaimen Laura King and many others Why the North Won the Vietnam War M. Gilbert, 2002-05-30 In this new collection of essays on the Vietnam War eminent scholars of the Second Indo china conflict consider several key factors that led to the defeat of the United States and its allies The book adopts a candid and critical look at the United States stance and policies in Vietnam and refuses to condemn excuse or apologize for America's actions in the conflict Rather the contributors think widely and creatively about the varied reasons that may have accounted for the United States failure to defeat the North Vietnamese Army such as the role played by economics in America's defeat Other fresh perspectives on the topic include American intelligence failure in Vietnam the international dimensions of America's defeat in Vietnam and the foreign policy of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam None of the essays have been previously published and all have been specifically commissioned for the book by its editor Marc Jason Gilbert Wherever I Go Mary Wagley Copp, 2020-04-21 A hopeful and timely picture book about a spirited little girl living in a refugee camp Of all her friends Abia has been at the Shimelba Refugee Camp the longest seven years four months and sixteen days Papa says that's too long and they need a forever home Until then though Abia has something important to do Be a queen Sometimes she's a noisy queen banging on her drum as she and Mama wait in the long line for rice to cook for dinner Sometimes she's a quiet queen cuddling her baby cousin to sleep while Auntie is away collecting firewood And sometimes when Papa talks hopefully of their future forever home Abia is a little nervous Forever homes are in strange and faraway places will she still be a queen Filled with hope love and respect Wherever I Go is a timely tribute to the strength and courage of refugees around the world

Weird Tales #327 Darrell Schweitzer, Thomas Ligotti, Stephen Gallagher, Tanith Lee, Ralph Gamelli, 2011-10-02 Weird Tales 325 Fall 2001 features From Out of the Crocodile's Mouth by Darrell Schweitzer The Gravedigger's Apprentice by Alvin Helms Our Temporary Supervisor by Thomas Ligotti Where All Things Perish by Tanith Lee The Wizard of Ashes and Rain by David Sandner and more Migrants shaping Europe, past and present Helen Solterer, Vincent Joos, 2022-11-08 This pioneering volume explores the contribution of migrants to European culture from the early modern era to today It takes culture as an aesthetic and social activity of making one practised by migrants on the move and also by those who represent their lives in an act of support Adopting a multilingual approach the book interprets the aesthetics and political practices developed by and with migrants in Spain Italy and France It juxtaposes early modern and modern work with contemporary reconceiving migrants as crucial agents of change Scholars and artists track people on the move within the continent and without drawing a significant map for the cultural history of migration around Europe Contemporary Italian Diversity in Critical and Fictional Narratives Ron Kubati, Marie Orton, Graziella Parati, 2021-10-26 Contemporary Italian Diversity in Critical and Fictional Narratives is about identity individual and national and belonging It is also an affirmation of diversity The editors of this volume have brought together articles that analyze the literature of migration as well as creative pieces by recognized authors who have a lived experience of migration English speakers will find their own societal struggles with diversity mirrored in Italy's colonial inheritance and its renewed nationalism populism xenophobia and shifting national identity The artists and scholars who have contributed to this book challenge national discourses dehumanizations and issues of race and gender But many also seek to move beyond the negative and critical to claim belonging especially national belonging in the name of diversity as part of human experience The chapters emphasize how individuals both reflect and enact societal change and they foreground the inescapable fact that human differences and migration drive and shape societal identity in our world Translating Crises Sharon O'Brien, Federico M. Federici, 2022-10-20 Translating and interpreting in crises is emotionally and cognitively demanding with crisis communication in intercultural and multilingual disaster settings relying on a multitude of cross cultural mediators and ever emerging new technologies This volume explores the challenges and demands involved in translating crises and the ways in which people technologies and organisations look for effective impactful solutions to the communicative problems Problematising the major issues but also providing solutions and recommendations chapters reflect on and evaluate the role of translation and interpreting in crisis settings Covering a diverse range of situations from across the globe such as health emergencies severe weather events earthquakes terrorist attacks conflicts and mass migration this volume analyses practices and investigates the effectiveness of current approaches and communication strategies The book considers perspectives from interpreting specialists educators emergency doctors healthcare professionals psychologists and members of key NGOs to reflect the complex and multifaceted nature of crisis communication Placing an emphasis on lessons learnt and innovative solutions Translating Crises points the way towards more effective multilingual emergency communication in future crises

No Country for Migrants? Critical Perspectives on Asylum, Immigration, and Integration in Germany Wilfried Zoungrana, 2019-10-14 No Country for Migrants Critical Perspectives on Asylum Immigration and Integration in Germany aims to critically contribute to ongoing debates about immigration integration and xenophobia in Germany Set against the backdrop of Germany's controversial political decision to open its borders to refugees in 2015 the book realigns this watershed with the broader historical narratives of migration to explain its exceptionality both as an event and transformative force on the migration integration discourse The book further uses critical theories to make sense of the shifting socio political coordinates of Germany It addresses the history of Germany s migration policies its soft and hard power in migration control language and societal integration immigration and the revival of right wing extremism as well as religion and immigration

Migration and Modernities DeLucia JoEllen DeLucia,2018-11-27 Recovers a comparative literary history of migrationThis collection initiates transnational transcultural and interdisciplinary conversations about migration in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Migrants are by definition liminal and many have existed historically in the murky spaces between nations regions or ethnicities These essays together traverse the globe revealing the experiences real or imagined of eighteenth and nineteenth century migrants from dispossessed Native Americans to soldiers in South America Turkish refugees to Scottish settlers They explore the aesthetic and rhetorical frameworks used to represent migrant experiences during a time when imperial expansion and technological developments made the fortunes of some migrants and made exiles out of others These frameworks continue to influence the narratives we tell ourselves about migration today and were crucial in producing a distinctively modern subjectivity in which mobility and rootlessness have become normative Key FeaturesOffers a comparative framework for understanding the modern history of migration and the aesthetics of mobilityForegrounds interdisciplinary debates about belonging rights and citizenshipDemonstrates how mobility unsettles the national cultural racialized and gendered frames we often use to organize literary and historical studyBrings together scholars from the US and Europe to explore the connections between migrant experiences and the emergence of modernityEmphasizes the globalism of the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries

The Living Dead John Joseph Adams,2008-09-01 When there s no more room in hell the dead will walk the earth From White Zombie to Dawn of the Dead Resident Evil to World War Z zombies have invaded popular culture becoming the monsters that best express the fears and anxieties of the modern west Gathering together the best zombie literature of the last three decades from many of today s most renowned authors of fantasy speculative fiction and horror including Stephen King Harlan Ellison Robert Silverberg George R R Martin Clive Barker Poppy Z Brite Neil Gaiman Joe Hill Laurell K Hamilton and Joe R Lansdale The Living Dead covers the broad spectrum of zombie fiction
