Annual Report of the American Historical Association American Historical Association, 1923 Writings on American History, 1923 The Politics of Ethnicity in Pakistan Farhan Hanif Siddiqi, 2012-05-04 In order to understand the Pakistani state and government's treatment of non dominant ethnic groups after the failure of the military operation in East Pakistan and the independence of Bangladesh this book looks at the ethnic movements that were subject to a military operation after 1971 the Baloch in the 1970s the Sindhis in the 1980s and Mohajirs in the 1990s The book critically evaluates the literature on ethnicity and nationalism by taking nationalist ideology and the political divisions which it generates within ethnic groups as essential in estimating ethnic movements It goes on to challenge the modernist argument that nationalism is only relevant to modern industrialised socio economic settings The available evidence from Pakistan makes clear that ethnic movements emanate from three distinct socio economic realms tribal Baloch rural Sindh and urban Mohajir and the book looks at the implications that this has as well as how further arguments could be advanced about the relevance of ethnic movements and politics in the Third World It provides academics and researchers with background knowledge of how the Baloch Sindhi and Mohajir ethnic conflict in Pakistan took shape in a historical context as well as probable future scenarios of the relationship between the Pakistani state and government and ethnic groups and movements

United Empire, 1924 Post-Referendum Sudan National and Regional Questions Wassara, Samson Samuel, Al-Abdin, Al-Tayib Zain, 2015-03-02 The fate of Sudan by then the largest country in Africa was clearly decided when results of the referendum vote were announced in February 2011 Policy makers scholars and the international community began to grapple with critical issues that might arise after the independence of South Sudan and how different stakeholders were likely to react during the period of uncertainty Political developments in Sudan were long term outcomes of post cold war revolutions in the world system after the Soviet Union collapsed A domino effect of such events swept across Eastern Europe with some manifestations in the Horn of Africa The fall of Mengistu Haile Mariam marked the beginning of the redrawing of the map of Africa and posed a challenge to the long held principle of preservation of colonial borders that had been enshrined in the Charter of the Organisation of African Unity The precedent set by the independence of Eritrea seemed to encourage southern Sudan to press forward for independence through a two pronged approach of armed struggle and diplomacy led by the Sudan People's Liberation Army Movement This book attempts to understand national regional and continental dimensions of the unresolved issues that could result in the escalation of conflict in the Sudan It examines internal dynamics of the Sudan after secession of the south and how these dynamics might affect neighbouring countries in the geopolitical regions the Horn of Africa the Great Lakes Region and Central Africa A section of the book is dedicated to dynamics within South Sudan as a new state Post conflict South Sudan as country was marked by extreme poverty lack of infrastructure and prevalence of inter communal armed violence This book proposes possible policies to prevent the country from descending into a state of economic and social chaos The book provides the argument that equitable and rational transformative socio economic programmes and policies could greatly reduce potentials for conflict This book calls on policy makers to pursue policies that could lead to concrete projects planned to alleviate poverty and provision of basic social services such as education health and safe water The book comes to the conclusion that political stability will depend on collective actions of stakeholders to ensure that peace prevails both in the north and the south to guarantee human security in the region

The Pattern of Imperialism Tony Smith, 1981-10-30 The principal ambition of this book is to provide an avowedly eclectic although largely political explanation of American and British imperialism as comprehensive and ultimately as unified as that offered by Marxist interpretations Geopolitical considerations are assumed to be basic but not exclusive concerns of foreign policy elites in Britain and the United States and the ability of people in Latin America Africa and Asia to coordinate their activities that is to act politically is assumed to be the central but not sole feature determining the character of their response to Western imperialism The book provides profiles of various southern political regimes and categorises their different reactions to the impact of imperialism in the nineteenth century and to the impetus for decolonisation after 1945 The author concludes by considering the dilemma of American policy toward the Third World in the early 1980s when traditional modes of conduct can no longer prescribe a clear plan of action
