Morning and Evening Meditations from the Word of God Michael J. Akers, 2014-03-18 There are many devotional books available containing brief daily inspirations that benefit all who read them This book is different in two respects The first is obvious it contains two readings per day 732 in all The second more important difference is that the author wanted to do more than offer inspiration this would make this book no different than so many others The messages in the book are study sketches in that the content is not only inspirational but also educational challenging and encouraging Most of these writings were based on author Michael J Akers s teaching of adult Bible studies for more than thirty years and learning what really brought adults to want to deepen their knowledge and application of the Word of God

The Dandelion and The Orchid

Memories of my Sister

I remember my sister as a three year old and I was only six months old

I remember that my sister was very abused by my mother

I remember that my sister was put in a French Catholic boarding school

The next time I remember my sister I was 8 years old and she was eleven

My new stepfather Lee had brought her home from the boarding school to live with us

We were happy to be together again and we have many happy childhood memories but we also have difficult memories because my step dad was an alcoholic as was my own father

George and my mother s second husband Jake

My sister was diagnosed as retarded but basically she was only slow to learn

Lee was good to us and soon we had a little house

The only problem was the drinking the fighting and my mother s abusive ways

Valerie was always an orchid in my mind

She was delicate and easily crushed

I was a dandelion

Mow me down weed me out and I still popped up and thrived

Valerie was destroyed by our vicious family

Although she never graduated from High School

Valerie passed a General Education test and she left home at seventeen to join the army. The following year she was engaged but her future husband died before the wedding. Then she traveled to California where she met Howard. I remember when my sister was beaten and raped during the Watts Riot. She spent several months in the hospital. She moved to Seattle and struggled there to live but she loved Seattle. After all these years she is now sixty-eight. The Orchid Valerie is home with her sister the Dandelion and I am very relieved and happy. The dandelion will take care of the Orchid with the greatest of care and unconditional love. My favorite verses in this book are Empty House, Welcome to the Pit, and Old Photographs on Past Boulevard. By VeAnn Campbell Her Sister

The Choice Jan Hatanaka, 2011-06-07 Now available in paperback. Jan Hatanaka's powerful life-enhancing book on how six people encountering significant adversity made a conscious choice to work to build a life of meaning. Using six stories from her casebook as a therapist, Hatanaka explores and illustrates the complex relationships that exist between death and grief and the path that can lead to reconciling that grief. Included in her stories is her own heart-wrenching and dramatic experience following a major health crisis. Hatanaka draws on her personal clinical and academic experience as she takes the reader through the Grief Reconciliation Process, describing the actual steps taken by people who manage to build a life of meaning in the face of significant adversity. The Choice is brilliant in its simple, gentle, and profound exploration of the reality of suffering as part of the human experience. It exposes the hope that can be hidden in affliction. The Choice will be of great help to those currently in the grips of personal adversity, the loved ones of those who are suffering, and health care professionals including medical practitioners, counsellors, therapists, and spiritual advisors. Jan Hatanaka, the founder of Grief Reconciliation International Inc., holds positions at York University, Toronto, in the Department of Nursing, the Religious Studies program, and the York Institute for Health Research. She has a B.Sc. in Nursing from the University of Ottawa, a Master's degree in Education and Counselling Psychology from the University of Toronto, and a Ph.D. in Theology from the University of Wales. Dr. Hatanaka's approach to grief and reconciliation is informed by her personal experience, her extensive academic research on the universality of grief and loss, and her in-depth discussions with hundreds of individuals willing to recount their personal stories.
