Agro-industrial Labour in Kenya Gerda Kuiper,2019-05-21 This ethnography analyses labour relations within the export oriented cut flower industry at Lake Naivasha in Kenya Though this agro industry has attracted critical attention from journalists and non governmental organizations this book is the first comprehensive social scientific analysis of the industry s labour arrangements and production processes Gerda Kuiper here interprets the work on the farms as agro industrial labour a labour system characterized by high levels of discipline and a strict rhythm of work due to the demands posed by a highly perishable agricultural product This framework enables the author to draw on insights from a wide range of anthropological and sociological studies on agro industrial wage labour around the globe This mixed methods approach deployed alongside rich ethnographic detail allows the author to center the flower farm workers in her analysis Kenya National Assembly and Earth Jennie E. Burnet,2023-01-15 In To Save Heaven and Earth Jennie E Burnet considers people who risked their lives in the 1994 Rwandan genocide of Tutsi to try and save those targeted for killing Many genocide perpetrators were not motivated by political ideology ethnic hatred or prejudice By shifting away from these classic typologies of genocide studies and focusing instead on hundreds of thousands of discrete acts that unfold over time Burnet highlights the ways that complex decisions and behaviors emerge in the social political and economic processes that constitute a genocide To Save Heaven and Earth explores external factors such as geography local power dynamics and genocide timelines as well as the internal states of mind and motivations of those who effected rescues Framed within the interdisciplinary scholarship of genocide studies and rooted in cultural anthropology methodologies this book presents stories of heroism and of the good done amid the evil of a genocide that nearly annihilated Rwandan Tutsi and decimated the Hutu and Twa who were opposed to the slaughter
