Sayles Talk New Perspectives On Independent Filmmaker John Sayles:

Sayles Talk Diane Carson, Heidi Kenaga, 2006 The first collection of original essays on the work of writer director John Sayles this book addresses the full range of his films from a variety of critical viewpoints John Sayles David R. Shumway, 2012-03-15 John Sayles is the very paradigm of the contemporary independent filmmaker By raising much of the funding for his films himself Sayles functions more independently than most directors and he has used his freedom to write and produce films with a distinctive personal style and often clearly expressed political positions From The Return of the Secaucus Seven to Sunshine State his films have consistently expressed progressive political positions on issues including race gender sexuality class and disability In this study David R Shumway examines the defining characteristic of Sayles's cinema its realism Positioning the filmmaker as a critical realist Shumway explores Sayles's attention to narrative in critically acclaimed and popular films such as Matewan Eight Men Out Passion Fish and Lone Star The study also details the conditions under which Sayles's films have been produced distributed and exhibited affecting the way in which these films have been understood and appreciated In the process Shumway presents Sayles as a teacher who tells historically accurate stories that invite audiences to consider the human world they all inhabit The Psychology of Religion and Place Victor Counted, Fraser Watts, 2019-11-01 This book examines the role of religious and spiritual experiences in people's understanding of their environment The contributors consider how understandings and experiences of religious and place connections are motivated by the need to seek and maintain contact with perceptual objects so as to form meaningful relationship experiences The volume is one of the first scholarly attempts to discuss the psychological links between place and religious experiences The chapters within provide insights for understanding how people's experiences with geographical places and the sacred serve as agencies for meaning making pro social behaviour and psychological adjustment in everyday life Springsteen as Soundtrack Caroline Madden, 2020-01-31 A catalog nearly fifty years in the making Bruce Springsteen's music remains popular and a frequent subject of study yet little critical attention has been given to its inclusion in film and television This book examines a selection of films and TV shows from the 1980s to the present including Mask High Fidelity The Sopranos and The Wrestler that feature Springsteen's music on the soundtrack Relating his thematic preoccupations with religion the Vietnam War the promise of the open road economic disparity and blue collar malaise his songs color narrative and articulate the inner lives of characters This book explores the many on screen contexts of Springsteen's work from Greetings from Asbury Park N J to Springsteen on Broadway John Sayles, Filmmaker Jack Ryan, 2014-01-10 In 1980 art house audience word of mouth about an unusual new movie Return of the Secaucus Seven launched the career of director John Sayles and with him the era of the independent filmmaker Sayles has remained a maverick writing directing editing and even acting in his own films This fully updated revision of the author's 1998 first edition chronicles Sayles' entire career including the story of his inauspicious beginning as a second string actor and his work in fiction theatre music videos and television A chapter is devoted to each of Sayles feature films offering background material on production funding a plot sketch an analysis of important characters and a look at the language setting and politics Each chapter also traces Sayles technical development his camera work editing musical arrangement and mise en scene The book includes a complete filmography and a bibliography

Seoul Searching Frances Gateward,2012-02-01 Seoul Searching is a collection of fourteen provocative essays about contemporary South Korean cinema the most productive and dynamic cinema in Asia Examining the three dominant genres that have led Korean film to international acclaim melodramas big budget action blockbusters and youth films the contributors look at Korean cinema as industry art form and cultural product and engage cinema s role in the formation of Korean identities Committed to approaching Korean cinema within its cultural contexts the contributors analyze feature length films and documentaries as well as industry structures and governmental policies in relation to transnational reception marketing modes of production aesthetics and other forms of popular culture An interdisciplinary text Seoul Searching provides an original contribution to film studies and expands the developing area of Korean studies Appetites and Anxieties Cynthia Baron,Diane Carson,Mark Bernard,2012-11-01 Employs the foodways paradigm to analyze the ideological dimensions of food imagery and food behavior in fiction and documentary films Cinema is a mosaic of memorable food scenes Detectives drink alone Gangsters talk with their mouths full Families around the world argue at dinner Food documentaries challenge popular consumption centered visions In Appetites and Anxieties Food Film and the Politics of Representation authors Cynthia Baron Diane Carson and Mark Bernard use a foodways paradigm drawn from the fields of folklore and cultural anthropology to illuminate film s cultural and material politics In looking at how films do and do not represent food procurement preparation presentation consumption clean up and disposal the authors bring the pleasures dangers and implications of consumption to center stage In nine chapters Baron Carson and Bernard consider food in fiction films and documentaries from both American and international cinema The first chapter examines film practice from the foodways perspective supplying a foundation for the collection of case studies that follow Chapter 2 takes a political economy approach as it examines the food industry and the film industry s policies that determine representations of food in film In chapter 3 the authors explore food and food interactions as a means for creating community in Bagdad Caf while in chapter 4 they take a close look at 301 302 in which food is used to mount social critique Chapter 5 focuses on cannibal films showing how the foodways paradigm unlocks the implications of films that dramatize one of society s greatest food taboos In chapter 6 the authors demonstrate ways that insights generated by the foodways lens can enrich genre and auteur studies Chapter 7 considers documentaries about food and water resources while chapter 8 examines food documentaries that slip through the cracks of film censorship by going into exhibition without an MPAA rating Finally in chapter 9 the authors study films from several national cinemas to explore the intersection of food gender and ethnicity Four appendices provide insights from a food stylist a selected filmography of fiction films and a filmography of documentaries that feature foodways components and a list of selected works in food and cultural studies Scholars of film studies and food studies will enjoy the thought provoking analysis of Appetites and Anxieties

Late Westerns Lee Clark Mitchell, 2018-12-01 For more than a century the cinematic Western has been America's most familiar genre always teetering on the verge of exhaustion and yet regularly revived in new forms Why does this outmoded vehicle with the most narrowly based historical setting of any popular genre maintain its appeal In Late Westerns Lee Clark Mitchell takes a position against those critics looking to attach post to the all too familiar genre For though the frontier disappeared long ago though men on horseback have become commonplace and though films of all sorts have always necessarily defied generic patterns the Western continues to enthrall audiences It does so by engaging narrative expectations stamped on our collective consciousness so firmly as to integrate materials that might not seem obviously Western at all Through plot cues narrative reminders and even cinematic frameworks recent films shape interpretive understanding by triggering a long standing familiarity audiences have with the genre Mitchell's critical analysis reveals how these films engage a thematic and cinematic border crossing in which their formal innovations and odd plots succeed deconstructively encouraging by allusion implication and citation the evocation of generic meaning from ingredients that otherwise might be interpreted quite differently Applying genre theory with close cinematic readings Mitchell posits that the Western has essentially been post all along Ethics Goes to the Movies Christopher Falzon, 2018-12-07 Movies hold a mirror up to us portraying the complexities of human reality through their characters and stories And they vividly illustrate moral theories that address questions about how we are to live and what sort of people we ought to be In this book Christopher Falzon uses movies to provide a rich survey of moral positions as they have emerged through history These include the ethics of the ancient world medieval ethics Enlightenment and Kantian ethics existentialist ethics and the ethics of the other Each theory is explained in detail using a number of examples from the book's wide selection of movies The discussion draws on a range of recent and not so recent films from Hollywood blockbusters to art house cinema Key Features In addition to covering thinkers one would expect in an introduction to ethics e.g. Plato Aristotle Kant the book discusses less canonical figures in detail as well e.g. Marcuse Foucault Habermas Similarly the book examines both major ethical theories e.g. Kantianism utilitarianism virtue ethics and theories too often glossed over in introductory texts e.g. Stoicism Epicureanism Habermas's discourse ethics and Nietzschean ethics A wide range of movies are discussed from Hollywood blockbusters and classics like The Dark Knight Casablanca and Dirty Harry to lesser known films like Force Majeure and Under the Skin At the end of each chapter a focus on two feature films is included with a plot summary and interpretations of several key scenes with a time marker indicating when in the film the scenes occur A Filmography includes all movies discussed in the book and a Glossary covers key philosophical terms and figures both with corresponding page numbers Film, Art, New Media: Museum Without Walls? Angela Dalle Vacche, 2012-06-12 In the footsteps of Andre Bazin this anthology of 15 original essays argues that the photographic origin of twentieth century cinema is anti anthropocentric Well aware that the twentieth century stands out as the only period in history with its own photographic film record for posterity Angela Dalle Vacche has convened international scholars at The Sterling and Francine Clark Art Institute and asked them to rethink the history and theory of the cinema as a new model for the museum of the future By exploring the art historical tropes of face and landscape and key areas of film studies such as early cinema Soviet film theory documentary the avant garde and the newly born genre of the museum film this collection includes detailed discussions of installation art and close analyses of media relations which range from dance to painting to performance art Thanks to the title of Andre Malraux's famous project Film Art New Media Museum Without Walls invites readers to reflect on the museum of the future where twentieth century cinema will play a pivotal role by interrogating the relation between art and science technology and nature from the side of photography in dialogue with digitalization
