Photography after Photography
 Abigail Solomon-Godeau, 2017-03-23 Presenting two decades of work by Abigail Solomon Godeau Photography after Photography is an inquiry into the circuits of power that shape photographic practice criticism and historiography As the boundaries that separate photography from other forms of artistic production are increasingly fluid Solomon Godeau a pioneering feminist and politically engaged critic argues that the relationships between photography culture gender and power demand renewed attention In her analyses of the photographic production of Cindy Sherman Robert Mapplethorpe Susan Meiselas Francesca Woodman and others Solomon Godeau refigures the disciplinary object of photography by considering these practices through an examination of the determinations of genre and gender as these shape the relations between photographers their images and their viewers Among her subjects are the 2006 Abu Ghraib prison photographs and the Cold War era exhibition The Family of Man insofar as these illustrate photography's embeddedness in social relations viewing relations and ideological formations

Total Modernity and the Avant-Garde in Twentieth-Century Chinese Art
 Minglu Gao, 2011-04-29 A groundbreaking book that describes a distinctively Chinese avant gardism and a modernity that unifies art politics and social life To the extent that Chinese contemporary art has become a global phenomenon it is largely through the groundbreaking exhibitions curated by Gao Minglu China Avant Garde Beijing 1989 Inside Out New Chinese Art Asia Society New York 1998 and The Wall Reshaping Contemporary Chinese Art Albright Knox Art Gallery 2005 among them As the first Chinese writer to articulate a distinctively Chinese avant gardism and modernity one not defined by Western chronology or formalism Gao Minglu is largely responsible for the visibility of Chinese art in the global art scene today Contemporary Chinese artists tend to navigate between extremes either embracing or rejecting a rich classical tradition Indeed for Chinese artists the term modernity refers not to a new epoch or aesthetic but to a new nation modernity inextricably connects politics to art It is this notion of total modernity that forms the foundation of the Chinese avant garde aesthetic and of this book Gao examines the many ways Chinese artists engaged with this intrinsic total modernity including the 85 Movement political pop cynical realism apartment art maximalism and the museum age encompassing the emergence of local art museums and organizations as well as such major events as the Shanghai Biennial He describes the inner logic of the Chinese context while locating the art within the framework of a worldwide avant garde He vividly describes the Chinese avant garde's embrace of a modernity that unifies politics aesthetics and social life blurring the boundaries between abstraction conception and representation Lavishly illustrated with color images throughout this book will be a touchstone for all considerations of Chinese contemporary art
