Borderlands Curanderos Jennifer Koshatka Seman, 2021-01-19 A refreshing new perspective reframes borderlands history by focusing not only on faith healers but squarely on the populations that they served Western Historical Quarterly 2022 Americo Paredes Award Center for Mexican American Studies at South Texas College Santa Teresa Urrea and Don Pedrito Jaramillo were curanderos faith healers who in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries worked outside the realm of professional medicine seemingly beyond the reach of the church state or certified health practitioners whose profession was still in its infancy Urrea healed Mexicans Indigenous people and Anglos in northwestern Mexico and cities throughout the US Southwest while Jaramillo conducted his healing practice in the South Texas Rio Grande Valley healing Tejanos Mexicans and Indigenous people there Jennifer Koshatka Seman takes us inside the intimate worlds of both living saints demonstrating how their effective healing curanderismo made them part of the larger turn of the century worlds they lived in as they attracted thousands of followers validated folk practices and contributed to a modernizing world along the US Mexico border While she healed Urrea spoke of a Mexico in which one did not have to obey unjust laws or confess one's sins to Catholic priests Jaramillo restored and fed drought stricken Tejanos when the state and modern medicine could not meet their needs Then in 1890 Urrea was expelled from Mexico Within a decade Jaramillo was investigated as a fraud by the American Medical Association and the US Post Office

Borderlands Curanderos argues that it is not only state and professional institutions that build and maintain communities nations and national identities but also those less obviously powerful
