Jewish Literature Nicholas Peter Legh Allen,Pierre J. Jordaan,József Zsengellér,2020-04-08 This volume examines Jewish literature produced from c 700 B C E to c 200 C E from a socio theological perspective In this context it offers a scholarly attempt to understand how the ancient Jewish psyche dealt with times of extreme turmoil and how Jewish theology altered to meet the challenges experienced The volume explores various early Jewish literature including both the canonical and apocryphal scripture Here reference is often made to a divine epiphany a moment of unexpected and prodigious revelation or insight as a response to abuse suffering and passion Many of the chapters deal with these issues in relation to the Antiochan crisis of 169 to 164 B C E in Judea one of the more notable periods of oppression This watershed event appears to have served as a catalyst for the new apocalyptic texts which were produced up until c 200 C E and which reflect a new theological dynamic in Judaism one that informed subsequent Christianity and Rabbinic Judaism Passion Persecution and Epiphany in Early Jewish Literature will be of interest to anyone working on the Bible both Masoretic and LXX and early Jewish literature as well as students of Jewish history and the Levant in the classical period Perceptions of the Holocaust in Europe and Muslim Communities Günther Jikeli,Joëlle Allouche-Benayoun,2012-11-08 The way people think about the Holocaust is changing The particular nature of the transformation depends on people s historical perspectives and how they position themselves and their nation or community vis vis the tragedy Understandably European Muslims perceive the Holocaust as less central to their history than do other Europeans Yet while the acknowledgement and commemoration of the horrors of the Holocaust are increasingly important in Europe Holocaust denial and biased views on the Holocaust are widespread in European Muslims countries of origin In this book a number of distinguished scholars and educators of various backgrounds discuss views of the Holocaust Problematic views are often influenced by a persistent attitude of Holocaust denial which is derived in part from discourses in the Muslim communities in their countries of origin The essays collected here explore the backgrounds of these perceptions and highlight positive approaches and developments Many of the contributions were written by people working in the field and reflecting on their experiences This collection also reveals that problematic views of the Holocaust are not limited to Muslim communities From Prejudice to Persecution Bruce F. Pauley, 2000-11-09 According to Simon Wiesenthal nearly half of the crimes associated with the Holocaust were committed by Austrians who comprised just 8.5 percent of the population of Hitler's Greater German Reich Bruce Pauley's book explains this phenomenon by providing a history of Austrian anti-Semitism and Jewish responses to it from the Middle Ages to the present with a particular focus on the period from 1914 to 1938 In contrast to works that view anti-Semitism as an inherent national characteristic his account identifies many sources and varieties of the anti-Semitic sentiment that pervaded Austrian society on the eve of the Holocaust Proceedings Jewish Chautauqua Society, 1903 The Menorah, 1903 Judaism Sue Penney, 1995 Worship Festivals History Judaism today Handbook of the Economics of Conflict, 2024-12-06 Handbook of the Economics of Conflict highlights new advances in the field with this new volume presenting interesting chapters written by an international board of authors Chapters in this release include Conflict Initiation and the Coase Theorem Misperceptions and the dynamics of conflict Power Mismatch Shocks and Conflict On the Salience of Ethnic Conflict Polarization and Conflict Trade Policy in the Shadow of War A Quantitative Toolkit for Geoeconomics Conflict in History Strategic militarization Propaganda and Conflict Climate and Conflict and The Psychology of Conflict Provides the latest information on economics of conflict Offers outstanding and original reviews on a range of economics research topics Serves as an indispensable reference for researchers and students alike Milk and Honey Tamar Novick, 2023-07-11 An innovative historical analysis of the intersection of religion and technology in making the modern state focusing on bodily production and reproduction across the human-animal divide In Milk and Honey Tamar Novick writes a revolutionary environmental history of the state that centers on the intersection of technology and religion in modern Israel/Palestine Focusing on animals and the management of their production and reproduction across three political regimes: the late Ottoman rule, British rule, and the early Israeli state Novick draws attention to the ways in which settlers and state experts used agricultural technology to recreate a biblical idea of past plenitude: literally, a land flowing with milk and honey through the bodies of animals and people Novick presents a series of case studies involving the management of water, buffalo, bees, goats, sheep, cows, and people in Palestine/Israel She traces the intimate forms of knowledge and bodily labor, production and reproduction in which this process took place and the intertwining of bodily, political, and environmental realms in the transformation of Palestine/Israel Her wide-ranging approach shows technology never replaced religion as a colonial device Rather, it merged with settler colonial aspirations to salvage the land, bolstering the effort to seize control over territory and people Fusing technology, religious fervor, bodily labor, and political ecology Milk and Honey provides a novel account of the practices that defined and continue to shape settler colonialism in the Palestine/Israel, revealing the ongoing entanglement of technoscience and religion in our time Persecution & Toleration Noel D. Johnson, Mark Koyama, 2019-02-14 In this book Noel D. Johnson and Mark Koyama tackle the question: how does religious liberty develop?
