Scapegoat The Inside Story Of The Trial Of Derek Bentley:

Scapegoat John Parris,1991 The Politics of the Rope Neville Twitchell,2012 The campaign to abolish capital punishment 1955 1969 Rethinking Miscarriages of Justice M. Naughton,2007-09-05 Drawing on Foucauldian theory and social harm paradigms Naughton offers a radical redefinition of miscarriages of justice from a critical perspective This book uncovers the limits of the entire criminal justice process and challenges the dominant perception that miscarriages of justices are rare and exceptional cases of wrongful imprisonment God, Justice, and Society Jonathan Burnside,2011 What is the real meaning of an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth Where did the idea for the Jubilee 2000 and Drop the Debt campaigns come from Here Burnside looks at aspects of law and legality in the Bible from the patriarchal narratives in the Hebrew Bible through to the trials of Jesus in the New Testament Miscarriages of Justice Sam Poyser,Angus Nurse,Rebecca Milne,2018-05-16 Miscarriages of justice occur far more frequently than we realise and have the power to ruin people s lives It is crucial for criminal justice practitioners to understand them given significant developments in recent years in law and police codes of practice This text part of the Key themes in policing textbook series is written by three highly experienced authors with expertise in the fields of criminal investigation forensic psychology and law and provides an up to date and comprehensive analysis of miscarriages of justice They highlight difficulties in defining miscarriages of justice examine their dimensions forms scale and impact and explore key cases and their causes Discussing informal and formal remedies against miscarriages of justice such as campaigns and the role of the media and the Court of Appeal and the Criminal Cases Review Commission CCRC they highlight criticism of the activities and decision making of the latter and examine changes to police investigation in this area Designed to incorporate evidence based policing each chapter provides questions reflecting on the issues raised in the text and suggestions for further reading Capital Punishment Joseph A. Melusky,2024-10-17 This authoritative balanced and accessible reference resource provides readers with a wide ranging survey of capital punishment in America including its history its legal and cultural foundations and racial and economic factors in its application This carefully crafted primer on the history and present state of capital punishment in the United States examines cultural political and legal factors and developments as well as key figures groups and movements by consolidating a wide variety of material into a single convenient source Utilizing a rich and varied array of scholarship and primary sources this work examines historical political cultural and legal factors and developments that have shaped the contours of capital punishment throughout American history It examines key figures and organizations who have played pivotal roles in debates over the death penalty provides readers with illuminating coverage of laws cases and the people involved discusses the experiences of death row inmates and explores questions and controversies revolving around the socioeconomic factors that influence the use of capital punishment Police Problem Solving Models and Theories Steve Wadley,Laura Riley,Sharda Murria,2025-02-28 Addresses the policing models and concepts which underpin officers daily decision making It clearly relates theory to practice and promotes transferrable skills including critical thinking and case study analysis This book offers the reader a comprehensive understanding of problem solving models and policing theory The approach bridges the gap between academic understanding and practical considerations and situates police decision making within ethical frameworks adopted by police services in England and Wales It also draws attention to the legislation which underpins the context of problem solving and the policies which inform this Models are discussed in relation to theoretical underpinnings and implementation is examined through policy and legislation historical success and limitations Critical thinking is a must for all police officers present and future and as such readers are challenged to consider decision making and the impact of their choices for both themselves as police officers and the wider community that they will go on to serve Chapters cover neighbourhood hot spot and predictive policing rational choice theory situational crime prevention and partnership working Readers can benefit from reading the text cover to cover to gain a developing understanding of the topic or they can use it to reference key principles and ideas This text is part of the Professional Policing Curriculum in Practice series

Failed Justice M J Trow, 2025-03-30 Uncovers the wrongful conviction of Derek Bentley revealing new evidence that challenges his unjust execution in 1953 On 2 November 1952 two teenagers Derek Bentley and Christopher Craig tried to break into a warehouse in Croydon Surrey The police were called and in the minutes that followed Craig wounded one policeman and shot another dead At 16 Craig was too young to hang but Bentley at 19 was not Even though he had not fired a shot or carried a gun and was under arrest at the time PC Sidney Miles died Bentley was deemed to be guilty of murder The law of joint felonious enterprise was unjust and Bentley had an IQ of 66 the national average is 100 Even so he was hanged at Wandsworth in February 1953 Nearly forty years later PC Claude Pain who was there at the time of the shooting told a different story He was on the warehouse rooftop and saw the whole thing What really hanged Bentley were the words he allegedly used Let him have it Chris And Pain did not hear those words M J Trow s Let Him Have It Chris published in 1990 was based on Pain s new evidence Eight years later the conviction against Bentley was overturned not as a result of police corruption but because of the appallingly partial performance of the trial judge Lord Goddard At the time access to any material relating to the case was denied and only now with the Freedom of Information Act can Pain s testimony be refuted He was not on the roof His original deposition is still in The National Archive This book aims to put the record straight There was indeed a dreadful miscarriage of justice in 1952 one of many before and since and in a way Claude Pain was part of it

The Newcastle Law Review ,1995 Labour History Review ,1992 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1991 The Cumulative Book Index ,1992 A world list of books in the English language Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1991 A multidisciplinary index covering the journal literature of the arts and humanities It fully covers 1 144 of the world s leading arts and humanities journals and it indexes individually selected relevant items from over 6 800 major science and social science journals A Dictionary of True Crime Stephen Wade,2025-01-16 A Dictionary of True Crime is a guide to the most compelling cases of extreme and violent crime in the writing files from the 17th century to present day. Amongst notorious criminals like Jack the Ripper and the Moors Murderers, lesser known but provoking cases which have occupied the writer's mind for some time are also discussed with questions and theories posed such as those of Walter Rowland who was twice sentenced to die and Louie Calvert who Wade argues was innocent of the crime for which she was hanged. As well as murder, other crimes including baby farming, arson and treason are also discussed along with criminals such as gangsters, pirates and highwaymen and punishments including hanging, flogging and being burnt at the stake. Professions within crime, for example detectives, hangmen and the unexpected Kings Messengers who were given powers of arrest in their duties, feature along with cases that have formed points of law which impact the courts even today and oddities like the cutlery eater, a burglar with a strange calling card. Arranged in an A-Z format, this well researched dictionary from crime writer Stephen Wade is the perfect read for fans of true crime.

The New Law Journal, 1991 The New York Times Film Reviews, 1969 The Spectator, 1956-07 A weekly review of politics, literature, theology and art Punch Henry Mayhew, Mark Lemon, Tom Taylor, Shirley Brooks, Francis Cowley Burnand, Owen Seaman, 1964 New Statesman and Nation, 1949 The New Statesman and Nation, 1949
