winner's literary masterpiece A Penguin Classic Mysteries is the story of Johan Nilsen Nagel a mysterious stranger who suddenly turns up in a small Norwegian town one summer and just as suddenly disappears Nagel is a complete outsider a sort of modern Christ treated in a spirit of near parody He condemns the politics and thought of the age brings comfort to the insulted and injured and gains the love of two women suggestive of the biblical Mary and Martha But there is a sinister side of him in his vest he carries a vial of prussic acid The novel creates a powerful sense of Nagel's stream of thought as he increasingly withdraws into the torture chamber of his own subconscious psyche For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 800 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators Publishers Trade List Annual, 1992 ,1992 Creepy Archives Volume 3 Archie Goodwin,2023-10-17 Cast your bloodshot eyes and feed your fetid imagination on the deliciously deranged tales of terror unearthed from the spine chilling pages Creepy magazine Featuring virtuoso turns by comics legends Archie Goodwin Frank Frazetta Steve Ditko Neal Adams Gray Morrow and other masters of the macabre Creepy proves that fear can be fun Collects Creepy issues 11 15 in a value priced paperback edition and includes original letters pages text features and ads Rethinking the Education of Deaf Students Sue Livingston,1997 Here is a compelling and controversial text which asserts that Deaf students should be treated no differently than non Deaf students The author a veteran and practicing teacher rejects the predominant view of Deaf students as special learners in need of language remediation and repair Instead she maintains that for Deaf students as well as their hearing counterparts the primary educational goal is the making and sharing of understandings in various subjects Furthermore she views this as a process that occurs naturally concomitantly and reciprocally with the acquisition of language regardless of one's hearing ability Livingston's assertion clashes with conventional Deaf education which presumes that the wider learning begins after students master a sign system that codifies and reconstructs English With a cumbersome orderly piecemeal and unnatural approach this traditional view frequently forces teachers to water down curriculums in an attempt to make English more readily acquired As a result Deaf students are deprived of rich and challenging content Rethinking the Education of Deaf Students offers an alternative and demonstrates how American Sign Language ASL and English can coexist in the same classroom embedded in the content of what is being taught Through clear theoretical explanations field tested teaching strategies authentic examples of students work lesson plans and sections on assessment Livingston suggests ways to help students become educated language users Her ideas hold enormous implications for those who teach Deaf students develop school budgets design programs and train future teachers More important they may hold the key that unlocks the potential of Deaf students of all ages to become voracious readers and accomplished writers The Publishers' Trade List Annual
