Scarfe's Line Of Attack:

Long Drawn Out Trip Gerald Scarfe, 2019-09-26 In Long Drawn Out Trip My Life Gerald Scarfe tells his life story for the first time. With captivating often thrilling stories he takes us from his childhood and early days at Punch and Private Eye through his long and occasionally tumultuous career as the Sunday Times cartoonist to his film making at the BBC and much loved designs for Pink Floyd's The Wall and Disney's Hercules. Along the way he has drawn Churchill from life gone on tour with The Beatles and thoroughly upset Mrs Mary Whitehouse. It is a very personal wickedly funny and caustically insightful account of an artist's life at the forefront of contemporary culture and society. Monsters Gerald Scarfe, 2008-09-18

Gerald Scarfe Britain's most controversial satirical artist is famous for having worked with a broad and eclectic mix of British and American icons including Pink Floyd and Disney. But he is perhaps best known for his political cartoons which have appeared in numerous newspapers and magazines notably in the Sunday Times. Published to coincide with a major exhibition of the original artworks in the Houses of Parliament this new book brings together fifty years of Scarfe's political drawings in a brilliantly entertaining journey through the history of our nation's leaders from Churchill's last visit to the House of Commons in 1965 to the Thatcher years to Tony Blair's legacy and Gordon Brown's succession in 2007. With razor sharp wit and exuberant energy Scarfe's drawings lampoon our leaders' political ambitions, scandals and disasters in inimitable style.

Oxford Dictionary of National Biography 2005-2008 Lawrence Goldman, 2013-03-07 Who made modern Britain This book drawn from the award winning Oxford Dictionary of National Biography tells the story of our recent past through the lives of those who shaped national life. Following on from the Oxford DNB's first supplement volume noteworthy people who died between 2001 and 2004 this new volume offers biographies of more than 850 men and women who left their mark on twentieth and twenty first century Britain and who died in the years 2005 to 2008. Here are the people responsible for major developments in national life from politics the arts business technology and law to military service sport education science and medicine. Many are closely connected to specific periods in Britain's recent history. From the 1950s the young Harold Pinter or the Yorkshire cricketer Fred Trueman for example. From the Sixties the footballer George Best photographer Patrick Lichfield and the Pink Floyd musician Syd Barrett. It's hard to look back to the 1970s without thinking of Edward Heath and James Callaghan who led the country for seven years in that turbulent decade or similarly Freddie Laker pioneer of budget air travel and the comedians Ronnie Barker and Dave Allen who entertained with their sketch shows and sit coms. A decade later you probably browsed in Anita Roddick's Body Shop or danced to the music of Factory Records established by the Manchester entrepreneur Tony Wilson. In the 1990s you may have hoped that Things can only get better with a New Labour government which included Robin Cook and Mo Mowlam. Many in this volume are remembered for lives dedicated to a profession or cause. Bill Deedes or Conor Cruise O'Brien in journalism. Ned Sherrin in broadcasting or indeed Ted Heath whose political career spanned more than 50 years. Others were responsible for discoveries or innovations of lasting legacy.

and benefit among them the epidemiologist Richard Doll who made the link between smoking and lung cancer Cicely Saunders creator of the hospice movement and Chad Varah founder of the Samaritans With John Profumo who gave his name to a scandal policeman Malcolm Fewtrell who investigated the Great Train Robbery or the Russian dissident Aleksandr Litvinenko who was killed in London in 2006 we have individuals best known for specific moments in our recent past Others are synonymous with popular objects and experiences evocative of recent decades Mastermind with Magnus Magnusson the PG Tips chimpanzees trained by Molly Badham John DeLorean's gull wing car or the new British Library designed by Colin St John Wilson though as rounded and balanced accounts Oxford DNB biographies also set these events in the wider context of a person's life story Authoritative and accessible the biographies in this volume are written by specialist authors many of them leading figures in their field Here you will find Michael Billington on Harold Pinter Michael Crick on George Best Richard Davenport Hines on Anita Roddick Brenda Hale on Rose Heilbron Roy Hattersley on James Callaghan Simon Heffer on John Profumo Douglas Hurd on Edward Heath Alex Jennings on Paul Scofield Hermione Lee on Pat Kavanagh Geoffrey Wheatcroft on Conor Cruise O'Brien and Peregrine Worsthorne on Bill Deedes Many in this volume are naturally household names But a good number are also remembered for lives away from the headlines What in the 1980s became Thatcherism owed much to behind the scenes advice from Ralph Harris and Alfred Sherman children who learned to read with Ladybird Books must thank their creator Douglas Keen while without its first producer Verity Lambert there would have been no Doctor Who Others are ordinary people capable of remarkable acts Take for instance Arthur Bywater who over two days in 1944 cleared thousands of bombs from a Liverpool munitions factory following an explosion only to do the same months later in another factory Awarded the George Cross and the George Medal Bywater remains the only non-combatant to have received Britain's two highest awards for civilian bravery

Two Wings Douglas Kries, Brian Clayton, 2018-03-22 In this book two college professors explain how believing and reasoning are two human activities that may be integrated to form a complete view of human existence They take their title from the opening of John Paul II's encyclical Fides et Ratio which speaks of the human spirit rising on the two wings of faith and reason to stretch toward the truth that is available to all In the first part of the book the authors offer a basic yet engaging encounter with traditional arguments for and against God's existence They grapple with doubts arising from the question of evil and the discoveries of contemporary natural science The final chapters take up questions from ethics and politics that impact the way individuals and communities choose to structure their lives

This book is non dogmatic it seeks to probe the contours of the questions asked by inquiring minds The authors fairly address arguments supporting and opposing their own viewpoints while using simple analogies designed for non specialists Thus they provide the best available starting point for confidently entering into the greatest conversation of all time Fatima's Scarf
