The Official Price Guide to Old Books Marie Tedford,Pat Goudey,1999 Like fine wine books become better with age This title is an incredible source to the current values of thousands of titles from the old and rare to the more modern Photos throughout Poop Culture Dave Praeger,2007 This book is not a history of poop but a study of today Its goal is to understand how poop affects us how we view it and why to appreciate its impact from the moment it slides out of our anal sphincters to the moment it enters the sewage treatment plant to explore how we ve arrived at this strange discomfort and confusion about a natural product of our bodies to see how this contradiction the natural as unnatural shapes our minds relationships environment culture economics media and art Prosthetic Gods Hal Foster,2004 How to imagine not only a new art or architecture but a new self or subject equal to them In Prosthetic Gods Hal Foster explores this question through the works and writings of such key modernists as Gauguin and Picasso F T Marinetti and Wyndham Lewis Adolf Loos and Max Ernst These diverse figures were all fascinated by fictions of origin either primordial and tribal or futuristic and technological In this way Foster argues two forms came to dominate modernist art above all others the primitive and the machine Foster begins with the primitivist fantasies of Gauguin and Picasso which he examines through the Freudian lens of the primal scene He then turns to the purist obsessions of the Viennese architect Loos who abhorred all things primitive Next Foster considers the technophilic subjects propounded by the futurist Marinetti and the vorticist Lewis These new egos are further contrasted with the bachelor machines proposed by the dadaist Ernst Foster also explores extrapolations from the art of the mentally ill in the aesthetic models of Ernst Paul Klee and Jean Dubuffet as well as manipulations of the female body in the surrealist photography of Brassai Man Ray and Hans Bellmer Finally he examines the impulse to dissolve the conventions of art altogether in the drip paintings of Jackson Pollock the scatter pieces of Robert Morris and the earthworks of Robert Smithson and traces the evocation of lost objects of desire in sculptural work from Marcel Duchamp and Alberto Giacometti to Robert Gober Although its title is drawn from Freud Prosthetic Gods does not impose psychoanalytic theory on modernist art rather it sets the two into critical relation and scans the greater historical field that they share Want List ,1941

Irregular Connections Andrew P. Lyons, Harriet Lyons, 2004-12-01 Irregular Connections traces the anthropological study of sex from the eighteenth century to the present focusing primarily on social and cultural anthropology and the work done by researchers in North America and Great Britain Andrew P and Harriet D Lyons argue that the sexuality of those whom anthropologists studied has been conscripted into Western discourses about sex including debates about prostitution homosexuality divorce premarital relations and hierarchies of gender class and race Because sex is the most private of activities and often carries a high emotional charge it is peculiarly difficult to investigate At times such as the late 1920s and the last decade of the twentieth century sexuality has been a central concern of anthropologists and focal in their theoretical formulations At other times the study of sexuality has been marginalized The anthropology of sex has sometimes been one of the main faces that anthropology presented to the public often causing resentment within the discipline Andrew P Lyons is an associate professor of anthropology at Wilfrid Laurier University Harriet D Lyons is an associate professor of anthropology at the University of Waterloo
