Defining Travel Susan L. Roberson, 2007-06 With essays by Gloria Anzaldúa Jean Baudrillard William Bevis Homi Bhabha Michel Butor Hélène Cixous Erik Cohen Michel de Certeau Wayne Franklin Paul Fussell Farah Jasmine Griffin Caren Kaplan Eric Leed Dean MacCannell Doreen Massey Carl Pedersen Gustavo Pérez Firmat Mary Louise Pratt R. Radhakrishnan Edward W. Said and Thayer Scudder Travel movement mobility these are some of the essential activities in human life Whether we travel to foreign lands or just across the city we all journey and from our journeying we shape ourselves our history and the stories we tell In essays written by some of the most respected contemporary scholars this anthology brings together some of the best informed convictions about travel Travel so essential to human life is a complex matter that encompasses a variety of travel experiences family vacation political exile exploration of distant lands immigration mundane shopping trips Likewise as the essays in the collection demonstrate discussion of travel crosses a range of personal and theoretical perspectives from the postmodern sensibility of Jean Baudrillard to R. Radhakrishnan's explanation to his son of what it means for Indians to live in the United States As the field of travel itself travels across academic and theoretical boundaries it brings together sociology anthropology geography history psychology and literary criticism Recognizing that multidimensional quality of travel this book gathers essays that represent various travel experiences and approaches to discussing them Mapping out definitions of travel the collection includes essays on tourism and travel writing on modern globalization and the diaspora on immigration migration and forced relocation Defining Travel also highlights American experiences of mobility by including essays on Native Americans and early contact with the New World as well as the massive migration of African Americans to northern cities Running throughout the essays are sometimes conflicting discussions about what constitutes travel and the home site the role of travel knowledge and power especially when travel is accompanied by imperialistic motives Here readers truly will discover that the essence of human life is wayfaring Susan L. Roberson an assistant professor of English at Alabama State University in Montgomery is the editor of Women America and Movement Narratives of Relocation and author of Emerson in His Sermons A Man Made Self

Cosmopolitics Pheng Cheah, Bruce Robbins, Social Text Collective, 1998 Eminent contributors look at the present and future of cosmopolitanism and its relationship to nationalism Nationalism and the nation state have recently come under siege their political dominance gradually eroding under the strain of such forces as ethnic strife religious fundamentalism homogenizing global capitalism and the unprecedented movements of people and populations across cultures countries even cyberspace A resurgent cosmopolitanism has emerged as a viable and alternative political project In Cosmopolitics a renowned group of scholars and political theorists offers the first sustained examination of that project its inclusive and often universalist claims and its tangled and sometimes volatile relationship to nationalism Understood generally as a fundamental commitment to the interests of humanity traditional cosmopolitanism has been criticized as a privileged position an aloof detachment from the obligations and affiliations that constrain nation bound lives and move people to political action Yet as these essays make clear contemporary cosmopolitanism arises not from a disengagement but rather from well defined cultural historical and political contexts The contributors explore a feasible cosmopolitanism now beginning to emerge and consider the question of whether it can or will displace nationalism which needs to be rethought rather than dismissed as obsolete Intellectually provocative and erudite this interdisciplinary volume presents a diverse array of critical perspectives assessing both the ideal enterprise and the current realities of the rapidly developing cosmopolitical movement

Dislocating Cultures Uma Narayan, 2013-04-15 Dislocating Cultures takes aim at the related notions of nation identity and tradition to show how Western and Third World scholars have misrepresented Third World cultures and feminist agendas Drawing attention to the political forces that have spawned shaped and perpetuated these misrepresentations since colonial times Uma Narayan inspects the underlying problems which culture poses for the respect of difference and cross cultural understanding Questioning the problematic roles assigned to Third World subjects within multiculturalism Narayan examines ways in which the flow of information across national contexts affects our understanding of issues Dislocating Cultures contributes a philosophical perspective on areas of ongoing interest such as nationalism post colonial studies and the cultural politics of debates over tradition and westernization in Third World contexts Intersectional Pedagogy Kim A.

Case, 2016-07-07 Intersectional Pedagogy explores best practices for effective teaching and learning about intersections of identity as informed by intersectional theory Formatted in three easy to follow sections this collection explores the pedagogy of intersectionality to address lived experiences that result from privileged and oppressed identities After an initial overview of intersectional foundations and theory the collection offers classroom strategies and approaches for teaching and learning about intersectionality and social justice With contributions from scholars in education psychology sociology and women s studies Intersectional Pedagogy include a range of disciplinary perspectives and evidence based pedagogy Gender, Globalization, and Violence Sandra Ponzanesi, 2014-07-11 This wide ranging collection of essays elaborates on some of the most pressing issues in contemporary postcolonial society in their transition from conflict and contestation to dialogue and resolution It explores from new angles questions of violent conflict forced migration trafficking and deportation human rights citizenship transitional justice and cosmopolitanism The volume focuses more specifically on the gendering of violence from a postcolonial perspective as it analyses unique cases that disrupt traditional visions of violence by including the history of empire and colony and its legacies that continue to influence present day configurations of gender race nationality class and sexuality Part One maps out the gendered and racialized contours of conflict zones from war zones prisons and refugee camps to peacekeeping missions and humanitarian aid reframing the field and establishing connections between colonial legacies and postcolonial dynamics Part Two explores how these conflict zones are played out not just outside but also within Europe demonstrating that multicultural Europe is fraught with different legacies of violence and postcolonial melancholia Part Three gives an idea of the kind of future that can be offered to post conflict societies defined as contact zones by exploring opportunities for dialogue restoration and reconciliation that can be envisaged from a gendered and postcolonial perspective through alternative feminist practices and the work of art and their redemptive power in mobilizing social change or increasing national healing processes Though strongly anchored in postcolonial critique the chapters draw from a range of traditions and expertise including conflict studies gender theory visual studies new media theory sociology race theory international security studies and religion studies

Handbook of Feminist Research Sharlene Nagy Hesse-Biber, 2012 The second edition of the Handbook of Feminist Research Theory and Praxis presents both a theoretical and practical approach to conducting social science research on for and about women The Handbook enables readers to develop an understanding of feminist research by introducing a range of feminist epistemologies methodologies and methods that have had a significant impact on feminist research practice and women's studies scholarship The Handbook continues to provide a set of clearly defined research concepts that are devoid of as much technical language as possible It continues to engage readers with cutting edge debates in the field as well as the practical applications and issues for those whose research affects social policy and social change It also expands on the wealth of interdisciplinary understanding of feminist research praxis that is grounded in a tight link between epistemology methodology and method The second edition of this Handbook will provide researchers with the tools for excavating subjugated knowledge on women's lives and the lives of other marginalized groups with the goals of empowerment and social change

Colonization and Domestic Service Victoria K. Haskins, Claire Lowrie, 2014-12-05 This book brings together two key themes that have not been addressed together previously in any sustained way domestic service and colonization Existing studies of domestic service rarely make mention of colonization but colonization offers a rich and exciting new paradigm for analysing the phenomenon of domestic labour by non family workers paid and otherwise Scholars in diverse fields and disciplines here share new and stimulating insights on the various connections between domestic employment and the processes of colonization both past and present in a range of original essays

Cartographies of Violence Mona Oikawa, 2012-09-10 In 1942 the federal government expelled more than 22 000 Japanese Canadians from their homes in British Columbia From 1942 to 1949 they were dispossessed sent to incarceration sites and dispersed across Canada Over 4 000 were deported to Japan Cartographies of Violence analyses the effects of these processes for some Japanese Canadian women Using critical race feminist anti colonial and cultural geographic theory Mona Oikawa deconstructs prevalent images stereotypes and language used to describe the Internment in ways that masks its inherent violence Through interviews with women survivors and their daughters Oikawa analyses recurring themes of racism and resistance as well as the struggle to communicate what happened Disturbing and provocative Cartographies of Violence explores women's memories in order to map the effects of forced displacements incarcerations and the separations of family friends and communities

Identity Politics in the Women's Movement Barbara Ryan, 2001-08 An essential collection that constructs the arguments of similarity and difference dividing and uniting women In recent years identity has come to be seen as a process rather than a fact or deterministic force Yet recognizable identity traits continue to draw people together and provide them with a sense of empowering commonality Although the plasticity afforded identity has freed up rigid definitions and guidelines for affiliation some believe that nebulous demarcations of identity may deprive women of a solid position from which to effectively contest centers of power Bringing together articles by well known authors and theorists such as Audre Lorde June Jordan Daphne Patai Barbara Smith Marilyn Frye Shane Phelan Leila J Rupp Hazel Carby and Adrienne Rich with lesser known writers and scholars this broad based anthology ranges widely from personal narratives to empirical research The book unpacks issues of race class gender ethnicity sexuality disability and age contributing a m lange of sharp lively perspectives to current debate In a postmodern era of feminism how do women come to identify organize and mobilize themselves within a complex global network of relationships Identity Politics in the Women's Movement offers critical examination of the inescapable role of identity in academic and activist feminism and the opportunities challenges and conflicts identity politics pose
