Scattered Pearls:

May Her Likes Be Multiplied Marilyn Booth, 2001-07-30 Marilyn Booth's elegantly conceived study reveals the Arabic tradition of life writing in an entirely new light. Though biography had long been male authored in the late nineteenth century, short sketches by and about women began to appear in biographical dictionaries and women's journals. By 1940 hundreds of such biographies had been published featuring Arabs, Turks, Indians, Europeans, North Americans, and ancient Greeks and Persians. Booth uses over five hundred famous women biographies which include subjects as diverse as Joan of Arc, Jane Austen, Aisha bt Abi Bakr, Sarojini Naidu, and Lucy Stone to demonstrate how these narratives prescribed complex role models for middle class girls in a context where nationalist programs and emerging feminisms made defining the ideal female citizen an urgent matter. Booth begins by asking how cultural traditions shaped women's biography and to whom the Egyptian biographies were directed. The biographies were published at a time of great cultural awakening in Egypt when social and political institutions were in upheaval. The stories suggested that Islam could be flexible on social practice and gender, holding out the possibility for women to make their own lives. Yet ultimately they indicate that women would find it extremely difficult to escape the nationalist ideal: the nuclear family with woman at its center. This conflict remains central to Egyptian politics today and in her final chapter Booth examines Islamic biographies of women's lives that have been published in more recent years. *Scattered Pearls strung together. Commentary to Jock's Life of Mo CF Hibbot, 2016-03-26 Life of Mo is a musical satire based on the life of the Prophet Mohammed. These explanatory notes which include the full text of Life of Mo attempt to determine the sources of the play's material and offer further explanatory notes regarding the themes and ideas raised in the play. Superficially Life of Mo is a musical fantasy romp combining stories with re-writes of songs by popular artists like Dolly Parton, Freddy Mercury, Mick Jagger, Billy Joel, Led Zeppelin, Meat Loaf, and Jim Steinman and others. But Life of Mo has a deeper grounding and its sources include original texts: the Qur'an, ahadith, and Bible, and commentaries by writers like William Muir, Robert Spencer, Ali Dashti, and Ali Sina. In addition, the writer has also used Internet sources like Wikipedia, YouTube, and Reddit. CF Hibbot's Notes and Commentary to Jock's Life of Mo traces through the humour and the tragedy to render a deeper appreciation and understanding of the play and the subject matter covered. إسماعيل بن عمر بن Ismā'īl ibn 'Umar Ibn Kathīr, 2003
