From beat scene poet to psychedelic multimedia artist in San Francisco and beyond, 1948-1978 G. Stern, The Everyday Lives of Gay Men in Hainan James Cummings, 2022-03-15. This book explores the everyday lives of gay men in Hainan, an island province of the People's Republic of China. Taking an ethnographic and phenomenological approach, it asks how these men construct and experience ways of sexual being as gay homosexual tongzhi and/or in the scene and what these mean for the ways of living they see as possible within a socio-cultural, political, and material context characterised by pervasive heteronormativity. It explores what it means for gay men in Hainan to come into the scene, how internet and mobile technologies figure in their everyday processes of sexual categorisation, and how these men negotiate orientations and disorientations towards the future in relation to dominant heterosexual life scripts of marriage and reproduction. This book offers vital insights into the production and restriction of non-heterosexual lives in diverse settings while addressing universal questions of how certain ways of living are enabled and curtailed in living together with others through powerful conditions of uncertainty and precarity. This book will be of interest to scholars in LGBTQ studies, particularly those with a focus on same-sex intimacies and identities in China. Twists and Turns in the Heart's Antarctic Hélène Cixous, 2014. Twists and Turns in the Heart's Antarctic is a compelling new volume in Hélène Cixous's search for lost time. Readers of earlier volumes Hemlock and Hyperdream among others will reconnect with familiar characters: Eve, the elderly mother now in her hundredth year; Hélène, the daughter who never expected to become a mother at 70; and the brother, childhood companion and rival. She has almost no time to write. Twists and Turns, like all Cixous's books, is a many-faceted text whose narrative spins its webs in corners familiar to Cixous readers: corners with books and writers, Montaigne, Proust, Kafka, Derrida, a theater, and plays, friendship and love. It is a tale on the scale of Greek myth about the inescapable entanglements of family relationships that can lead one in hyperbolic mode to envision murder and suicide. This is a tale with profoundly touching reversals. Front book cover flap. Literary Theory Michael Ryan, 2017-03-06. Literary Theory: A Practical Introduction, Third Edition, presents a comprehensive introduction to the full range of contemporary approaches to the study of literature and culture, from formalism, structuralism, and historicism to ethnic, gender, and science studies. Introduces students to a variety of contemporary approaches to the study of literature and culture. Demonstrates how the varying perspectives on texts can lead to different interpretations of the same work. Features numerous updates that include new literary texts, new and expanded sections. Represents the ideal accompaniment to the upcoming Third Edition of Literary Theory: An Anthology. No Accident Steven F. Havill, 2022-03-01. Good cops have no use for coincidence. When a driver slams his pickup truck twice into a tandem bike being ridden by Carlos Guzman and his fiancée Tasha in Briones, California, it's more than a simple hit-and-run: the driver clearly intended to harm them. Undersheriff Estelle Reyes Guzman gets the call with the news of her son's accident.

and wastes no time racing to his side She is greeted by Police Captain Eddie Mitchell formerly of Posadas County who allows Estelle to consult on the investigation but only to a point While Carlos struggles with critical injuries an employee at the bike shop where Carlos bought the tandem is found shot dead in a dumpster the same man who had borrowed the truck that mowed down Carlos and Tasha The local cops aren't convinced there's any connection between the two crimes Not a believer in coincidence Estelle pursues every possible angle with a cop's determination to solve the case and a mother's resolve to keep her son safe at any cost
