Supreme Court, 1923 Cases and Materials on the Rules of Evidence Olin Guy Wellborn, 2007 This highly efficient casebook offers materials that are thorough and yet brief enough that the subject can be covered in a three or four credit course Each chapter covers an article of the Federal Rules of Evidence Within the chapters and sections the materials follow the sequence of the Rules The Fourth Edition is an update of this popular concise casebook It includes the important 2006 decision of the Supreme Court in Davis v Washington plus all important recent decisions These materials are meant to be self sufficient when accompanied by a current copy of the Rules and where appropriate the rules of a state Employee Benefits Cases, 1991 American and English Annotated Cases, 1911 The American and English Annotated Cases, 1915 COOL MADNESS, The Trial of Dr. Mollie Fry and Dale Schafer Vanessa Nelson, 2009-03-31 COOL MADNESS The Trial of Dr Mollie Fry and Dale Schafer is the riveting true story of a medical marijuana doctor undergoing a federal trial for the first time in history The main character of Cool Madness is Dr Marion Mollie Fry a cancer survivor who learned about the benefits of medical marijuana while enduring chemotherapy and a double mastectomy After recovering Dr Fry set up a practice in the small northern California town of Cool and began recommending medical marijuana to her patients in accordance with state law However California's medical marijuana laws are not recognized by the federal government and this legal conflict put Dr Fry's activities under the scrutiny of authorities Law enforcement surveillance on her home led to a raid that netted a meager 34 plant garden in September 2001 Reports of Cases Argued and Determined in the Supreme Court of Judicature of the State of Indiana Indiana. Supreme Court, 1889 Between Rationality and Irrationality Mordechai Rotenberg, 2017-09-29 Jewish Scriptural interpretation entails a potential therapeutic bridge between the rational material and the irrational mystic in the world of psychotherapy PaRDeS as this system is known is derived from the following concepts P denotes peshat the plain interpretation of the text which translates into a rational interpretation of life R symbolizes remez hinting at a related religious concept which becomes a symbolic view of life D stands for derash the homiletic way of interpreting a text or a narrative reading of life And S represents sod or the mystery behind an idea which in psychological terms becomes a mystic understanding of life Mordechai Rotenberg believes that it is by engaging readings in a dialogue with each other as in the Jewish hermeneutic tradition the psychology underlying one's existence may be more readily understood While Rotenberg acknowledges that it is legitimate to focus on one cognitive rational or one narrative storytelling therapeutic method in the course of therapy he argues that a comprehensive theory of psychotherapy should include treatment possibilities for both rational and irrational manifestations of behavior thereby engulfing all aspects of human behavior For Rotenberg a person's life becomes the text subject to being read and interpreted If that person wishes to change his or her behavior via psychotherapy then a hermeneutic system must be employed to understand that person's life However many systems interpret a person's life according to the particular theory espoused by the therapist Rotenberg in contrast introduces a balanced theory bridging the rational and the irrational Between Rationality and Irrationality emphasizes that it is more important for a therapist to learn his client's own language than to impose his own doctrinaire interpretation This edition includes a new introduction by the author as well as an appendix explicating an original psychological interpretation of PaRDeS Reardon v.
