Television Histories Gary R. Edgerton, Peter C. Rollins, 2021-09-15 From Ken Burns's documentaries to historical dramas such as Roots from A E s Biography series to CNN television has become the primary source for historical information for tens of millions of Americans today Why has television become such a respected authority What falsehoods enter our collective memory as truths How is one to know what is real and what is imagined or ignored by producers directors or writers Gary Edgerton and Peter Rollins have collected a group of essays that answer these and many other questions The contributors examine the full spectrum of historical genres but also institutions such as the History Channel and production histories of such series as The Jack Benny Show which ran for fifteen years The authors explore the tensions between popular history and professional history and the tendency of some academics to declare the past off limits to nonscholars Several of them point to the tendency for television histories to embed current concerns and priorities within the past as in such popular shows as Quantum Leap and Dr Quinn Medicine Woman The result is an insightful portrayal of the power television possesses to influence our culture The Concise Encyclopedia of American Radio Christopher H. Sterling, Cary O'Dell, 2010-04-12 The average American listens to the radio three hours a day In light of recent technological developments such as internet radio some argue that the medium is facing a crisis while others claim we are at the dawn of a new radio revolution The Concise Encyclopedia of American Radio is an essential single volume reference guide to this vital and evolving medium It brings together the best and most important entries from the three volume Museum of Broadcast Communications Encyclopedia of Radio edited by Christopher Sterling Comprised of more than 300 entries spanning the invention of radio to the Internet The Concise Encyclopedia of American Radio addresses personalities music genres regulations technology programming and stations the golden age of radio and other topics relating to radio broadcasting throughout its history The entries are updated throughout and the volume includes nine new entries on topics ranging from podcasting to the decline of radio The Concise Encyclopedia of American Radio include suggestions for further reading as complements to most of the articles biographical details for all person entries production credits for programs and a comprehensive index "Better Living" William L. Bird, 1999 Better Living Advertising Media and the New Vocabulary of Business Leadership 1935 1955 is a history of how big business learned to be both entertaining and persuasive when talking to the public Examining the years from the Depression to postwar prosperity Better Living follows the dissemination of a politically competitive claim of more new and better in industry and in life Beginning with the changes in business government relations during the New Deal this study looks at the ways in which politically active corporations and their leaders learned how to speak at a time when speaking was not enough Using archival sources such as the NBC Ford Motor Company DuPont and Franklin Delano Roosevelt collections William L Bird Jr establishes the importance of industrial films and their role in public relations and employee relations as well as the use of dramatic radio productions in corporate public relations The author examines the interplay between general mass radio and print advertising radio program sponsorship and scriptwriting sponsored motion pictures and television entertainment as well as exhibitions and industrial fairs and the role these media played in shaping ideas about American business and political and cultural institutions in this country for the decades to come Book Jacket Department of the Interior and Related Agencies Appropriations for 1996: Justification of the budget estimates: Indian Health United States.
