Violas,Guy B. Senese,1995 The Educated Person Donal G.

Mulcahy,2008 Liberal education has long been a fascination for scholars in a variety of disciplines and is closely associated with the idea of the educated person Seen at one time as a matter for colleges and universities over the years it has become central to the debate surrounding general education in high school and even the earlier grades Yet so many and varied are the uses of the term liberal education that the question arises of whether and how the idea is any longer a useful or helpful construct In what way might it speak helpfully to educational challenges we face today In what ways does it still speak helpfully to educational challenges we face today In what ways might it be a guide as we search for a better way forward These are the central questions that are addressed in this book In doing so the positions of three theorists John Henry Newman Mortimer J Adler and Jane Roland Martin who have written about liberal education in a compelling way and from different perspectives are selected for close analysis The analysis is built upon to fashion a new ideal of the educated person and a new theory of liberal education Autoethnography Sherick A. Hughes, Julie L. Pennington, 2016-10-21

Autoethnography Process Product and Possibility for Critical Social Research by Sherick A Hughes and Julie L Pennington provides a short introduction to the methodological tools and concepts of autoethnography combining theoretical approaches with practical how to information Written for social science students teachers teacher educators and educational researchers the text shows readers how autoethnographers collect analyze and report data With its grounding in critical social theory and inclusion of innovative methods this practical resource will move the field of autoethnography forward Metropedagogy ,2006-01-01 What might it mean to develop a rigorous just and practical urban education Such a question takes on new importance in the middle of the first decade of the twenty first century as urban educators find themselves besieged with test driven standardized curricula promoted in the name of fairness educational excellence and egalitarianism Those who promote these standardized curricula fail to account for the unique situations and needs of particular urban students When an urban curriculum is standardized the students suffering from the effects of poverty racial discrimination and other problems are less likely to receive the specific pedagogical help they need to overcome the effects of such impediments Such students have special needs Teachers need the curricular freedom the professional respect to address these special requirements Metropedagogy constructed as a critical pedagogy for urban education addresses these concerns This book will be very useful as a text in urban education at the graduate and the undergraduate level Inclusive Practices and Social Justice Leadership for Special Populations in Urban Settings M.C. Kate Esposito, Anthony H. Normore, 2015-04-01

Inclusive Practices and Social Justice Leadership for Special Populations in Urban Settings A Moral Imperative is comprised of a collection of chapters written by educators who refuse to let the voices of dissent remain marginalized in our discussion of education in the 21st century education Drawing from the authors extensive experience in educational research and practice coupled with their commitment to inclusion of special populations and social justice they urge readers to examine how educational policies are produced for the least advantaged in our schools Effective inclusionary practices most certainly benefit all students including English language learners those who face gender discrimination those who are in the foster care system and those who are Gay Lesbian Bisexual or Transgendered This collection presents a broader theoretical inclusive framework rooted in social justice which we assert offers the best practices for a greater number of students who are at risk of minimal academic success This broader conceptualization of inclusive schools adds to extant discourses about students with exceptional needs and provides effective strategies school leaders operating from a social justice framework can implement to create more inclusive school environments for all students especially those in urban centers It is hoped that lessons learned will improve the preparation and practice of school leaders thus improve educational outcomes for students from special populations Fifty Modern Thinkers on Education Joy Palmer, David Edward Cooper, Liora Bresler, 2001 Looks at fifty of the twentieth century s most significant contributors to the debate on education Each essay gives key biographical
