School Community Relations under Reform:

School-community Relations, Under Reform Robert L. Crowson, 2003 Handbook of School-Family Partnerships Sandra L. Christenson, Amy L. Reschly, 2010-06-10 Family and community involvement are increasingly touted as a means of improving both student and school level achievement. This has led to an increase in policies, initiatives, and goals designed to address family involvement in schools. Once recognized and implemented, such family-school partnerships can lead to the following benefits: enhanced communication and coordination between parents and educators; continuity in developmental goals and approaches across family and school contexts; shared ownership and commitment to educational goals; increased understanding of the complexities of children's situations; and the pooling of family and school resources to find and implement quality solutions to shared goals. School-community Relations, Under Reform Robert L. Crowson, Mary Erina Driscoll, Julius Menacker, 1998-01-01 Resources in Education, 2000-10 The Contemporary Superintendent Lars G. Bjork, Theodore J. Kowalski, 2005-06-28 The role, practice, and preparation of today and tomorrow's superintendent: A strong superintendent is critical to the success of an entire school district. So why is it one of the most deregulated positions? Over the past several decades, many states have either rescinded licensing requirements for school district superintendents or abandoned regulations altogether. The Contemporary Superintendent offers a scholarly and objective analysis of the issues surrounding the state policies that appoint superintendents. Lars G. Bjork and Theodore Kowalski have developed a coherent guide to critical professional aspects such as superintendent licensure, professional preparation, and staff development. Featuring the research of educational leadership specialists, this resource is not to be missed. The Contemporary Superintendent includes quality strategies by the field's top scholars to implement decisive practices for superintendents. Detailed analysis of the concerns over superintendent qualifications and preparations. An examination of past, present, and future practices of superintendents. A distinct look at the evolution of the role of the superintendent. Developed over a three-year period, the authors have compiled a collection of useful hands-on strategies for aspiring and existing superintendents, as well as ideas for adoption in the educational administration, leadership, professional development, and educational policy areas. The Wiley Handbook of Family, School, and Community Relationships in Education Steven B. Sheldon, Tammy A. Turner-Vorbeck, 2018-12-14 A comprehensive collection of essays from leading experts on family and community engagement. The Wiley Handbook of Family, School, and Community Relationships in Education brings together in one comprehensive volume a collection of writings from leading scholars on family and community engagement to provide an authoritative overview of the field. The expert contributors identify the contemporary and future issues related to the intersection of students, families, schools, and their communities. The Handbook's chapters are organized to cover the topic from a wide range of perspectives and vantage points, including families, practitioners, policymakers, advocates, as well as researchers. In addition, the Handbook contains writings from several international

Quality and Qualities: Tensions in Education Reforms Clementina Acedo, Don Adams, Simona Popa, 2012-09-07 Quality and Qualities Tensions in Education Reforms is a provocative call for understanding and further exploring the elusive concept of quality in education Although education quality has acquired high priority in the past few decades the multiplicity of conceptualizations of quality also reflects the concerns and foci of multiple stakeholders Coming to an understanding of quality education involves careful analysis of the context from which any particular reform or program emerges and of the continuing struggle to define and achieve it Two main questions persist who benefits from particular policies focused on quality And what are the potential tradeoffs between a focus on quality equitable distribution of education and inclusion of various traditional expectations This book explores notions of quality as understood within various systems of national formal and nonformal education Also it considers the tensions that arise with the introduction of new standardized notions of quality in relation to international measures and educational reforms in developing countries In all cases specific national issues and concerns compete with global agendas Challenges to quality that are given particular attention in the book chapters include changing definitions of quality high expectations for education and issues with implementation and the introduction of English as a means to achieve quality in a globalizing world Special attention is also given to possible actions that support a more equitable education without ignoring the requisite of quality The final chapter suggests three models choices for seeking higher quality and guiding the educational future of nations

Parent-School Collaboration Mary E. Gardiner, 1996-02-01 Mary E Henry examines in close detail public schools relationships with parents and communities Using an anthropological approach and feminist theory she argues that for educators knowledge of family and social contexts and work with communities is essential Henry argues convincingly that the school structure has to change that more demands can't be made of parents while schools remain the same For school administrators teachers parents and those interested in public policy the book addresses vital questions about cultural and social understandings empowerment and the possibilities for collaboration This book is a source of new practices and ideas for organizational structures and the school leadership that will be needed for collaboration to really work

The Color of School Reform Jeffrey R. Henig, Richard C. Hula, Marion Orr, Desiree S. Pedescleaux, 2001-01-22 Why is it so difficult to design and implement fundamental educational reform in large city schools in spite of broad popular support for change How does the politics of race complicate the challenge of building and sustaining coalitions for improving urban schools These questions have provoked a great deal of theorizing but this is the first book to explore the issues on the basis of extensive solid evidence Here a group of political scientists examines education reform in Atlanta Baltimore Detroit and Washington D C where local governmental authority has passed from white to black leaders The authors show that black administrative control of big city school systems has not translated into broad improvements in the quality of public education within black led cities Race can be crucial however in fostering the broad civic involvement perhaps most needed for school reform In each city examined reform efforts often arise but collapse partly because leaders are unable to craft effective political coalitions that would commit community resources to a concrete policy agenda What undermines the leadership according to the authors is the complex role of race in each city First public authority does not guarantee access to private resources usually still controlled by white economic elites Second local authorities must interact with external actors at the state and national levels who remain predominantly white Finally issues of race divide the African American community itself and often place limits on what leaders can and cannot do Filled with insightful explanations together with recommendations for policy change this book is an important component of the debate now being waged among researchers education activists and the community as a whole

Beyond Technology's Promise Joseph B. Giacquinta, Jo Anne Bauer, Jane E. Levin, 1993 This book first published in 1994 examines how children use home computers and proposes steps to facilitate a better educational use of available technology

Karen DeMoss, Kenneth K. Wong, 2013-09-13 This yearbook offers research and insights to stimulate thought inform debates and explore future research directions Ensuring Safe School Environments Mary Susan Fishbaugh, Gwen Schroth, Terry R. Berkeley, 2003-01-30 Presents research finding and information about school violence in the U S with a focus on strategies for increasing school safety Teacher Reform in Indonesia Mae Chu Chang, Sheldon Shaeffer, Samer Al-Samarrai, Andrew B. Ragatz, Joppe de Ree, Ritchie Stevenson, 2013-12-18 The book features an analysis of teacher reform in Indonesia which entailed a doubling of teacher salaries upon certification It describes the political economy context in which the reform was developed and implemented and analyzes the impact of the reform on teacher knowledge skills and student outcomes Including Families and Communities in Urban Education Catherine Hands, Lea Hubbard, 2011-04-01 The work of school family and community partnerships is complex and messy and demands a thoughtful and deep investigation Currently parent and community involvement does not draw on school reform and educational change literature and conversely the school change literature often ignores the crucial role that communities play in educational reform This edited volume focuses on structural considerations regarding education and the school communities school level and family culture and the interrelationships between the agency and actions of school personnel family members community citizens and students This book extends the dialogue on school reform by looking at parent and community engagement initiatives as part of the school reform literature The contributors illustrate the negative impact on students and their education when assumptions made by school personnel regarding the organization of education the nature of families and the contributions they should make to their children s education are not challenged Research in Education ,1974 Cultural Competence in America's Schools Bruce Anthony Jones, Edwin J. Nichols, 2013-03-01 Cultural Competence in America s Schools Leadership Engagement and Understanding focuses on explicating the impact of culture and issues of race and ethnicity on student learning teacher and leadership efficacy and educational policy making in our nation s public school system The authors agree with Levin 2012 who pointed out that the challenge of dealing effectively with racial and ethnic diversity in education in traditionally homogeneous societies is a global problem One indicator of this point is revealed in a U S study that was commissioned by the National Comprehensive Center for Teacher Quality which reported on the serious consequences for student achievement and teacher effectiveness in the face of the gap between teacher training and the realities of the classroom when it comes to teaching diverse populations and students with special needs Public Agenda 2008 p 2 Sacred Dreams C.
