Love Always John Charles Corrigan,2020-11-06 It started with a worrisome lump in Donna s neck It was May 2017 At the time John and Donna Corrigan were looking forward to the publication of John's debut non-fiction title about the Red Knight John had spent twenty-four years doing meticulous research on the Royal Canadian Air Force's legendary solo aerobatic jet performer But suddenly that lump plunged the couple into a race for a diagnosis and prayers for an effective treatment Love Always chronicles the many efforts and lessons learned on a journey that consumed the Corrigan's for eighteen months During that period Donna endured two rounds of chemotherapy a radical mastectomy and twenty-five radiation treatments followed by more radiation before she finally succumbed to Triple Negative Breast Cancer TNBC a rare and aggressive form of the disease Written with the hope of helping others on their breast cancer journey Love Always lays out the challenges and hopes for couples and families facing a potentially terminal breast cancer diagnosis It isn't pretty but it shows there is a community of loving support from family friends health care professionals and even strangers making it possible to move through the bleakest of times with love hope and the knowledge that we are never alone <http://www.facebook.com/booksbyjohncharlescorrigan>

Boarding School Syndrome Joy Schaverien, 2015-06-05 Boarding School Syndrome is an analysis of the trauma of the privileged child sent to boarding school at a young age Innovative and challenging Joy Schaverien offers a psychological analysis of the long established British and colonial preparatory and public boarding school tradition Richly illustrated with pictures and the narratives of adult ex-boarders in psychotherapy the book demonstrates how some forms of enduring distress in adult life may be traced back to the early losses of home and family Developed from clinical research and informed by attachment and child development theories Boarding School Syndrome is a new term that offers a theoretical framework on which the psychotherapeutic treatment of ex-boarders may build Divided into four parts History In the Name of Privilege Exile and Healing Broken Attachments A Hidden Trauma and The Boarding School Body the book includes vivid case studies of ex-boarders in psychotherapy Their accounts reveal details of the suffering endured loss bereavement and captivity are sometimes compounded by physical sexual and psychological abuse Here Joy Schaverien shows how many boarders adopt unconscious coping strategies including dissociative amnesia resulting in a psychological split between the home self and the boarding school self This pattern may continue into adult life causing difficulties in intimate relationships generalized depression and separation anxiety amongst other forms of psychological distress Boarding School Syndrome demonstrates how boarding school may damage those it is meant to be a reward and discusses the wider implications of this tradition It will be essential reading for psychoanalysts Jungian analysts psychotherapists art psychotherapists counsellors and others interested in the psychological cultural and international legacy of this tradition including ex-boarders and their partners

The White Fence Jacqueline White, 2013-05 Tracy couldn't have imagined a worse start to her freshman year The weekend before she's supposed to start school at the recently integrated Mason High in Bakersfield Alabama a fatal car accident threatens the fragile peace her town has experienced since it was forced to desegregate Maybe it's an omen but Tracy is determined not to let it slow her down With segregation slowly dying across the South she sees change happening and is determined to use it to her advantage Tracy dreams of making it to Harvard and she won't let anything stop her from becoming an Ivy League trained lawyer Aware of the amount of dedication and personal sacrifice it will take to achieve this goal she is willing to give up weekends out and is prepared for her teachers friends and even family to stand in her way What she hasn't counted on however is falling in love Derek doesn't know what he wants from the future Lacking ambition and happily settled in Bakersfield the only thing the two of them seem to have in common is their dislike for each other When a high school project forces them to work together Tracy finds herself falling for him But in her quest to achieve the impossible there's no room for deviation or compromise and there's certainly no room for love As Tracy struggles with her developing feelings she realizes that in life it's never as simple as black and white Junior Graphic Mavis Kitcher (Mrs), 2014-04-09
