Suzuki, Yongjin Zhang, Joel Quirk, 2013-09-05 This book examines the historical interactions of the West and non Western world and investigates whether or not the exclusive adoption of Western oriented international norms is the prerequisite for the construction of international order This book sets out to challenge the Eurocentric foundations of modern International Relations scholarship by examining international relations in the early modern era when European primacy had yet to develop in many parts of the globe Through a series of regional case studies on East Asia the Middle East Africa and Latin America and Russia written by leading specialists of their field this book explores patterns of cross cultural exchange and civilizational encounters placing particular emphasis upon historical contexts The chapters of this book document and analyse a series of regional international orders that were primarily defined by local interests agendas and institutions with European interlopers often playing a secondary role These perspectives emphasize the central role of non European agency in shaping global history and stand in stark contrast to conventional narratives revolving around the Rise of the West which tend to be based upon a stylized contrast between a dynamic West and a passive and static East Focusing on a crucial period of global history that has been neglected in the field of International Relations International Orders in the Early Modern World will be interest to students and scholars of international relations international relations theory international history early modern history and sociology The Politics and Philosophy of Chinese Power R. important to Qing ethnographic writings such as the illustrated manuscripts known as Miao albums from which twenty color paintings are reproduced in this book These were intended to educate Qing officials about various non Han peoples so that they could govern these groups more effectively Hostetler s groundbreaking account will interest anyone studying the history of the early modern period and colonialism

In 1937 he was asked to supervise a young Chinese student named Lu Gwei Djen and in that moment began the two greatest love affairs of his life Miss Lu and China Miss Lu inspired Needham to travel to China where he initially spent three dangerous years as a wartime diplomat He established himself as the pre eminent China scholar of all time firm in his belief that China would one day achieve world prominence By the end of his life Needham had become a truly global figure travelling endlessly and honoured by all though banned from America because of his politics And in 1989 after a fifty two year affair he finally married the woman who had first inspired his passion The Magnificent Barbarian is Simon Winchester at his best at once a magnificent portrait of one man s remarkable life and a riveting exploration of the country that so engaged him
