Stemming from an interdisciplinary conference sponsored by Culture Club The Cultural Studies Scholars Association that included scholars from various disciplines and from around the world this volume collects the work of graduate students and junior faculty which all examine the meaning of cultural scholarship in an ever changing and increasingly global milieu These voices which often become marginalized and go unheard represent what we see as the futures of interdisciplinary academic work in the humanities The conference and this book are opportunities for scholars of diverse backgrounds and disciplines to come together and engage in a real dialogue with one another Bringing disparate thoughts on politics film television history policy and literature together counters the pressures pushing individuals to take political religious scholarly and ideological sides Through the efforts represented here we gain a distanced yet engaged view on the many threads that bind us together and the forces that seek to separate us Looking at this volume the reader encounters many different approaches from critical analysis of individual texts to autoethnography The contributors and compilers of this book do not place these in separate sections or in any hierarchy but rather wish that all of these appear on an equally vital level that displays the ways in which each of the subjects and approaches might open up a piece of culture in a way that draws attention to the connections between them all

Women, Business and the Law World Bank, International Finance Corporation, 2013-01-01 Women perform 66% of the world's work produce 50% of the food but earn 10% of the income and own 1% of the property To shed light on why this grim statistic still holds true Women Business and the Law aims to examine legal differentiations on the basis of gender in 143 of the world's economies Women Business and the Law tracks governments' actions to expand economic opportunities for women across six key areas accessing institutions using property getting a job providing incentives to work building credit and going to court The report uncovers legal differentiations for women and married versus unmarried women such as being able to register a business open a bank account and work at night These issues are of fundamental importance When because of tradition social taboos or simple prejudice half of the world's population is prevented from making its contribution to the life of a nation the economy will suffer The empirical evidence does suggest that slowly but surely governments are making progress in expanding opportunities for women It is our hope that data presented in Women Business and the Law will both facilitate research on linkages between legal differentiation and outcomes for women and promote better informed policy choices on what governments can do to expand opportunities for women
