Transforming Borders Alejandra C. Elenes,2010-11-15 Transforming Borders Chicana o Popular Culture and Pedagogy contributes to transformative pedagogies scholarship by adding the voices of Chicana feminist pedagogies epistemologies and ontologies C Alejandra Elenes develops her conceptualizations of border transformative pedagogies by linking the relationship between cultural practices knowledge and teaching in everyday life She analyzes Chicana feminist cultural workers educational actors re imagining three Mexican figures La Llorona the weeping woman the Virgen of Guadalupe and Malintzin Malinche as epistemological and pedagogical meanings The three figures represent multiple meanings traditional views on femininity religion and nationalist views on women yet at the same time feminists have re imagined these three figures and developed counter narratives that can offer alternatives to the traditional meanings In developing border transformative pedagogies Elenes looks at the significance of historical events such as the creation of the Mexico U S border to understand the experiences of people of Mexican descent in the United States She also examines oral histories of the legend of La Llorona in the Southwest historical documents on the Spanish conquest of Mexico and Chicana artists such as Ester Hernandez Yolanda Lopez Consuelo Jimenez Underwood and Alma Lopez re imagining of the Virgen of Guadalupe The conflicts over the meanings of the three figures can help us understand how Chicanas have used their voices to counter economic and gender inequalities and how pedagogical practices show that cultural productions are sites where forms of domination can be contested and recreated in ways that allow for the creation of alternative identities and subjectivities

Andean Aesthetics and Anticolonial Resistance Omar Rivera, 2021-10-21

Informed by Gloria Anzaldúa's and José Carlos Mariátegui's work as well as by Andean cosmology, Omar Rivera turns to Inka stonework and architecture as an example of a Cosmological Aesthetics. He articulates ways of sensing, feeling, and remembering that are attuned to an aesthetic of water, earth, and light. On this basis, Rivera brings forth a corporeal orientation that can be inhabited by the oppressed one that withdraws from predominant modern Western conceptions of the human. By providing an aesthetic analysis of cosmological sensing, Rivera sets the stage for exploring physical dimensions of anti-colonial resistance and furthers the Latinx and Latin American tradition of anti-colonial and liberatory philosophy. Seeing aesthetic involvements with the cosmos as a source for embodied modes of resistance, Rivera turns to the work of María Lugones and Enrique Dussel in order to make explicit the aesthetic dimensions of their work. Andean Aesthetics and Anticolonial Resistance creates a new dialogue between art historians, artists, and philosophers working on Latin American thought, phenomenology, and hermeneutics. It weaves together a Latin American philosophy that connects pre-Columbian cosmologies with contemporary thinkers. Rivera's original approach introduces us to the living, evolving, and aesthetic alternatives to coloniality of power and of knowledge, overhauling current understandings of decolonial theory and opening the tradition in transformative ways.
