The Shadow-Line Joseph Conrad, 2017-11-24 Excerpt from The Shadow Line A Confession Whatever my native modesty may be it will never condescend so low as to seek help for my imagination within those vain imaginings common to all ages and that in themselves are enough to fill all lovers of mankind with unutterable sadness As to the effect of a mental or moral shock on a common mind it is quite a legitimate subject for study and description Mr Burns's moral being receives a severe shock in his relations with his late captain and this in his diseased state turns into a mere superstitious fancy compounded of fear and animosity This fact is one of the elements of the story but there is nothing supernatural in it nothing so to speak from beyond the confines of this world which in all conscience holds enough mystery and terror in itself About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
