

The Shadow

Soft as the bed in the earth
Where a stone has lain—
So soft, so smooth and so cool,
Spring closes me in
With her arms and her hands.

Rich as the smell
Of new earth on a stone,
That has lain, breathing
The damp through its pores—
Spring closes me in
With her blossomy hair;
Brings dark to my eyes.

Shadow Poems:

Shadow, Shadow Roger Weingarten, 1986 Roger Weingarten writes with a dark and wry humor and his voice fine and masterful inspires as it surprises and startles Shadow Shadow shows life lived at the edge of meaning drawing transcendence from the darkness the shade of the extraordinary at the edge of the ordinary Secure the Shadow Claudia Emerson, 2012-02-15 Daringly realistic and artfully mediated by past and present Claudia Emerson's Secure the Shadow contains historical pieces as well as poems centering on the deaths of the poet's brother and father Emerson covers all aspects of the tragedies that as Keats believed contribute to our human collective of Soul making in which each death accrues into an immortal web of ongoing love and meaning for the living Emerson's unwavering gaze shows that loss cannot be eluded but can be embraced in elegies as devastating as they are beautiful The macabre title poem refers to the old custom of making daguerreotypes primitive photographs of deceased loved ones Other striking poems describe animal deaths mysterious calf killings a hog slaughter the burial of a dead jay identifiable but light dry its eyes vacant orbits Death as the speaker's heart and mind instruct her exists in a shadow world When the body disappears the shadow also flees By securing the shadow the poet finds a representation of the dead's soul a soul always linked to the body Hence Emerson's attention to the minute details of the body's repose reflected in the long related sequence of refrained poems never allows its memory to fade A Short History of the Shadow Charles Wright, 2002-04-07 Luminous new poems from the author of The Appalachian Book of the Dead Landscape as Wang Wei says softens the sharp edges of isolation Don't just do something sit there And so I have so I have the seasons curling around me like smoke Gone to the end of the earth and back without a sound Body and Soul II This is Charles Wright's first collection of verse since the completion of his Appalachian Book of the Dead the trilogy of trilogies hailed as one among the great long poems of the century James Longenbach Boston Review Wright speaks in these poems with characteristic charm restlessness and wit writing again and again I sit where I always sit only to reveal himself in a new setting every time In A Short History of the Shadow Wright's return to the landscapes of his early work finds his art resilient in a world haunted by death and the dead Double Shadow Carl Phillips, 2011-03-15 Comparing Any Human Life to a restless choir of impulses variously in conflict and at peace with one another Carl Phillips in his eleventh collection of poems examines the double shadow that a life casts forth now risk and now faintheartedness In poems that both embody and inhabit this double shadow risk and faintheartedness prove to have the power equally to rescue us from ourselves and to destroy us Spare haunted and haunting yet not without hope Double Shadow argues for life as a wilderness through which there's only the questing forward with no regrets and no looking back Book Jacket Shadow Poems Thomas Krampf, 1997 These small poems are a meditation and in some cases a search for a different dimension in space and time They are also a continuing dialogue with my alter ego sic And as each day morning noon and night through the seasons I am often accompanied by my shadow perhaps it is a living entity Introduction by Thomas Krampf p 1

Shadow Train John Ashbery, 1981 A collection of fifty sixteen line poems wherein the poet employs unrhymed quatrains to juxtapose old myths and fairy tales cliches and movie references and creates poetic story telling Includes such poems as Corky s Car Keys and Penny Perkin s Mistake which are based purely on myth about patterns of distress In Pursuit of Poem Shadows Kay Pritchett, 2011-04-07 Born in the small Extremaduran town of Moraleja in 1946 Spanish poet Pureza Canelo at the age of twenty five published her first collections of poetry Celda verde and Lugar com n winner of the 1970 Adonais Prize By 1979 she had settled upon an understanding of her own aesthetic evolution which she elaborated in Habitable Primera po tica Then in 1986 after a period of disenchantment with the written word during which she published only two chapbooks Espacio de emoci n 1981 and Vega de la paloma 1984 she redefined her position in Tendido verso Segunda po tica Designed to complement Nature s Colloquy with the Word Pureza Canelo s First Poetics Bucknell 2004 the current text deciphers the intricate poetic language of the poet s mature works which at the time of writing included the two above mentioned chapbooks as well as Tendido verso Pasi n in dita 1990 and No escribir 1999 The author traces recurrent aesthetic and philosophical positions that serve to differentiate the poet s first and second poetics Tendido verso is the volume in which temporality supersedes essence and in so doing breaks with insights expressed by Juan Ram n Jim nez during his Modernist phase In Pasi n in dita the intimate pronominal discourse between poet and creative other allows them to coalesce into an indeterminate being At this point the desired goal of the creative process is achieved the holy wedding hieros gamos of poet and creative other occurs No escribir abandons the struggle of Canelo s previous books and carries out the method prescribed by her second poetics She recognizes that only the creative process can satisfy her desire and that love the dominant symbol for creation indeed allows the pain of poetic failure to cease Passion nonetheless must stop short of fulfillment since the written poem laden with the poet s gaze and subjectivity cannot exist apart from its shadow Shadow Box Fred Chappell, 2009-07-15 In this sharply innovative collection renowned poet Fred Chappell layers words and images to create a new and dramatic poetic form the poem within a poem Like the shadow box in the volume s title each piece consists of an inner world contained framed supported by an outer the two interdependent sometimes supplementary often contrary For example the grim but gorgeous The Caretakers is a landscape that reveals another image inside it Chappell also introduces sonnets in which the sestet nests within the octet Play serves as an important component but the poems do not depend upon gamesmanship or verbal strategems Instead they delicately or wittily trace human feelings respond somberly to the news of the world and rejoice in humankind s plentiful variety of attitudes and beliefs Just as an x ray can show the inner structure of a physical object so the techniques in Shadow Box display the internal energies of the separate works With this new form the enclosed or embedded or inlaid poem Chappell broadens the expressive possibilities of formal poetry intrigues the imagination in an entirely new way and offers surprise and revelation in sudden flashes At once revolutionary and traditional Shadow Box contains an Aladdin s trove of surprises Kissing My Shadow Merrill Farnsworth, 2015-05-02
