Shadows Of Time:

Shadows of Being Jeffrey Andrew Barash, 2022 In a review of the work of Karl Jaspers composed several years before the publication of his book Being and Time Martin Heidegger suggested that the philosophical orientations of his period had made a wrong turn and skirted by the fundamental path of thought He suggested that instead of taking up a heritage of original questions his contemporaries had become preoccupied with secondary issues accepting as fundamental what was in fact only incidental In the years that followed Heidegger's promise to reorient philosophy in terms of the Seinsfrage the question of Being exercised a well known influence on successive generations of thinkers on a global scale The present book delves into the philosophical sources of this influence and raises the question whether Heidegger indeed made good on the promise to reveal for thought what is truly fundamental In proposing this investigation the author assumes that it is not sufficient to take Heidegger at his word but that it is necessary to scrutinize what is posited as fundamental in light of its broader implications above all for ethico political judgment and for historical reflection After addressing this question in the first part of the book the second part examines the significance of Heidegger's reorientation of philosophy through the prism of its critical reception in the thought of Hannah Arendt Emmanuel Levinas and Paul Ricoeur Lost In Dreams, Lost In Time, Lost In Love

Rachel Lawson, 2025-06-10 Across time and generations love endures In this moving collection of poetry and song Rachel Lawson pays tribute to the ancestors who shaped her life weaving words into melodies that bridge the past and present Each verse is a testament to the unbroken connection between those who came before and those who walk their path today a celebration of wisdom resilience and the quiet whispers of history that echo in every heart A tribute in verse Lost In Dreams Lost In Time Lost In Love Love Songs to the Ancestors is a lyrical embrace of heritage memory and devotion

Ships In The Sea Rachel Lawson, 2025-02-18 Sweet love songs by poet and author Rachel Lawson I saw her across the floor My eyes loved her from the moment I saw her But knew I had to leave her Contemporary Pakistani Fiction in English Cara N. Cilano, 2013-04-12 Looking at a wide selection of Pakistani novels in English this book explores how literary texts imaginatively probe the past convey the present and project a future in terms that facilitate a sense of collective belonging The novels discussed cover a range of historical movements and developments including pre 20th century Islamic history the 1947 partition the 1971 Pakistani war the Zia years and post 9 11 Pakistan as well as pervasive themes including ethnonationalist tensions the zamindari system and conspiracy thinking The book offers a range of representations of how and whether collective belonging takes shape and illustrates how the Pakistani novel in English often overshadowed by the proliferation of the Indian novel in English complements Pakistani multi lingual literary imaginaries by presenting alternatives to standard versions of history and by highlighting the issues English language literary production bring to the fore in a broader Pakistani context It goes on to look at the literary devices and themes used to portray idea nation and state as a foundation for collective belonging The book illustrates the distinct contributions the Pakistani novel in English makes to
