Shadows On The Grass New Stories About Africa:

Grandma's Letters from Africa K. Thomas Linda K. Thomas, Linda K. Thomas, 2010-02 This is Linda's story of her first four years working in Africa as a missionary In this narrative uniquely told through letters to her granddaughters Linda shares how she stumbles into adventures most grandmas could not imagine Back cover Tragic Vision and Divine Compassion

Wendy Farley, 1990-01-01 Offering an alternative to classic Christian theodicies justification of God's goodness and omnipotence in view of the existence of evil Wendy Farley interprets the problem of evil and suffering within a tragic context advocating compassion to describe the power of God in the struggle against evil A Southern Story Sterling

Vinson, 2022-04-29 This book is an examination of a southern white family's relations with people of color in the United States from about 1650 to the present Part autobiography part social history we were slaveowners Confederate soldiers Klansmen and responsible for at least one lynching During the last two generations we befriended Nisei during World War II and since then have been increasingly active in Civil Rights in the South and Southwest e.g. the Sanctuary Movement and Humane Borders The book can therefore be viewed as an account of sin and redemption especially since the author has moved from a history of alcoholism and violence to membership in the Presbyterian Church US Flying Against the Wind Andy Russell

Bowen, 2011-08-01 Born in England and raised in the bush of East Africa Beryl Markham was an extraordinary child and lived an extraordinary life She learned how to train racehorses from her father and became the first woman to succeed in Kenya's competitive racing circuit When an airplane came to Africa Beryl learned to fly After a few years of carrying mail and passengers she decided to take on the Atlantic Ocean As the first person to fly non stop from England to North America Beryl Markham proved that no matter what the challenge she was not afraid to fly against the wind South Sudan Skills Story

Lawrence M. Tombe, 2017-09-28 The South Sudan Skills Story is an account about manpower and education development in South Sudan a narrative that includes efforts exerted in attainment of the much needed workforce for fuelling the country's economy now fatally impacted by the ongoing internal strife Prior to escalation of the armed conflict that broke out in December 2013 hardly four years after the country gained its sovereignty on July 9 2011 the new nation was on course in setting up its new education system and basis of sustainable human development now shattered by the vicious war The conflict has eroded the country's human potential through loss of life skills wastage and extreme brutalities perpetrated against citizens by the war drivers The education quandary is compounded by displacement of over 3 million people from their homes and localities a dire situation that has caused severe food insecurity affecting over 7.5 million people With over 2 million children forced out of school particularly in the most conflict affected regions of South Sudan including over 1.4 million forced out of the country as refugees to neighbouring countries it means that one in every three children in the country is out of school The scale and magnitude of the unending human dispersal has severely curtailed South Sudan's ability to provide education to all its citizens The once adopted slogan of bringing education to all in the country is now a far cry as the new nation heads to total collapse if the conflict is not halted The South Sudan Skills Story urges the leaders of South Sudan who are proponents of the conflict to rise above self serving political cleavages to stop the war for peace so that all the citizens are availed the opportunity to realize their fullest potential for development of the country The narrative concludes that the people of this young nation will remain one of the most undereducated populations in the world as long as the legacy of war violence and impunity prevails in the country

Reciprocities in the Nonfiction Novel John Russell,2000

Nonfiction novels have usually been associated with the new journalism writers of the 1960s such as Tom Wolfe Norman Mailer and Truman Capote Yet this form has long commanded a key position in the literary canon as John Russell now reveals Russell identifies eleven major works not usually thought of as nonfiction novels such as Isak Dinesen's Out of Africa and E E Cummings's The Enormous Room to create a new definition of the genre He shows that journalistic writing is characterized by a reporter's proprietary stance which undermines reciprocity with subjects while true nonfiction novels feature greater reciprocity and also employ such techniques as circular narrative and bricolage Reciprocities in the Nonfiction Novel contributes to ongoing explorations of literary forms and offers wise commentary on how writing about real life can become art

Isak Dinesen's Africa Isak Dinesen, 1985 Donated Isak Dinesen Judith Thurman, 2022-12-06 Judith Thurman's brilliant National Book Award winning biography of Isak Dinesen now with a new foreword by the author A brilliant literary portrait Isak Dinesen remains the only comprehensive biography of one of the greatest storytellers of our time Dinesen's magnificent memoir Out of Africa established her as a major twentieth century author who was twice nominated for the Nobel Prize With exceptional grace Judith Thurman's classic work explores Dinesen's life Until the appearance of this book the life and art of Isak Dinesen have been as Dinesen herself wrote of two lovers in a tale a pair of locked caskets each containing the key to the other Judith Thurman has provided the master key to them both Researching World War I Robin Higham, Dennis E. Showalter, 2003-12-30 World War I was the greatest cataclysm Europe had ever known directly involving 61 million troops from 16 nations Yet the history of the war and the reasons it started and spread so rapidly were vastly more complex than the players realized Written by highly respected authorities this book discusses the literature on all aspects of the war making it an excellent starting point for anyone seeking guidance to the immense and often daunting body of World War I literature The struggle mobilized manpower from home troops from the colonies abroad and in most countries women as well as men Governments increasingly intervened in everyday life New weapons and organizational structures were developed Yet the history of the war and the reasons it started and spread so rapidly were vastly more complex than the players realized Written by highly respected authorities this book discusses the literature on all aspects of the war Dennis Showalter's opening chapter covers the controversial issue of the war's origins a complex subject that has been much debated by historians Ensuing chapters consider the literature on each of the participating countries The broader subjects of the war at sea and the war in the air are also covered Daniel Beaver's final chapter discusses the mobilization of industry and the new military technology This book is an excellent starting point for anyone seeking guidance to the immense and often daunting body of World War I literature Shadow and Act Ralph Ellison, 2011-06-01 With the same intellectual incisiveness and supple stylish prose he brought to his classic novel Invisible Man Ralph Ellison examines his antecedents and in so doing illuminates the literature music and culture of both black and white America His range is virtuosic encompassing Mark Twain and Richard Wright Mahalia Jackson and Charlie Parker The Birth of a Nation and the Dante-esque landscape of Harlem the scene and symbol of the Negro's perpetual alienation in the land of his birth Throughout he gives us what amounts to an episodic autobiography that traces his formation as a writer as well as the genesis of Invisible Man On every page Ellison reveals his idiosyncratic and often contrarian brilliance his insistence on refuting both black and white stereotypes of what an African American writer should say or be The result is a book that continues to instruct delight and occasionally outrage readers thirty years after it was first published The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean Since

1950 Simon Gikandi, 2016 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 examines the institutional and social peculiarities that make fiction produced in Africa and the Atlantic World since 1950 important to the history of the novel in English

Black/White Writing Pauline Fletcher, 1993 The volume closes with an essay by Gerald Monsman that takes the reader back to an earlier South Africa examining Olive Schreiner's writing in the broader context of other stories from an imperialist past Two poems by Dennis Brutus open the volume They speak eloquently of human suffering and the desire for peace

Food and Foodways in African Narratives Jonathan Highfield, 2017-04-07 Food is a defining feature in every culture Despite its very basic purpose of sustaining life it directly impacts the community culture and heritage in every region around the globe in countless seen and unseen ways including the literature and narratives of each region Across the African continent food and foodways which refer to the ways that humans consume produce and experience food were influenced by slavery and forced labor colonization foreign aid and the anxieties prompted by these encounters all of which can be traced through the ways food is seen in narratives by African and colonial storytellers The African continent is home to thousands of cultures but nearly every one has experienced alteration of its foodways because of slavery transcontinental trade and colonization Food and Foodways in African Narratives Community Culture and Heritage takes a careful look at these alterations as seen through African narratives throughout various cultures and spanning centuries

A History of the Church in Africa Bengt Sundkler, Christopher Stead, 2000-05-04 Bengt Sundkler's long awaited book on African Christian churches will become the standard reference for the subject

The Columbia Guide to East African Literature in English Since 1945 Simon Gikandi, Evan Mwangi, 2007 The Columbia Guide to East African Literature in English Since 1945 challenges the conventional belief that the English language literary traditions of East Africa are restricted to the former British colonies of Kenya Uganda and Tanzania Instead these traditions stretch far into such neighboring countries as Somalia and Ethiopia Simon Gikandi and Evan Mwangi assemble a truly inclusive list of major writers and trends They begin with a chronology of key historical events and an overview of the emergence and transformation of literary culture in the region Then they provide an alphabetical list of major writers and brief descriptions of their concerns and achievements Some of the writers discussed include the Kenyan novelists Grace Ogot and Ngugi wa Thiong'o Ugandan poet and essayist Taban Lo Liyong Ethiopian playwright and poet Tsegaye Gabre Medhin Tanzanian novelist and diplomat Peter Palangyo Ethiopian novelist Berhane Mariam Sahle Sellassie and the novelist M G Vassanji who portrays the Indian diaspora in Africa Europe and North America Separate entries within this list describe thematic concerns such as colonialism decolonization the black aesthetic and the language question the growth of genres like autobiography and popular literature important movements like cultural nationalism and feminism and the impact of major forces such as AIDS HIV Christian missions and urbanization Comprehensive and richly detailed this guide offers a fresh perspective on the role of East Africa in the development of African and world literature in English and a new understanding of the historical cultural and geopolitical boundaries of the region Islands of White Dane Keith Kennedy,1987 The Horn of Africa Paul B. Henze,2016-07-27

There are many books on individual countries of the Horn but this one is unique in treating the region as a whole stressing interactions among as well as within Sudan Ethiopia and Somalia and in turn their relations with neighbouring regions of Africa and the Middle East The author summarizes the history of the region from earliest times to the 19th century and then concentrates on Russian and American involvements
