Complicated Shadows: The Life And Music Of Elvis Costello Graeme Thomson, 2013-03-07 Complicated Shadows paints a detailed and accurate portrait of an intensely private and complex individual. It draws on nearly 50 exclusive interviews with schoolmates, pre-fame friends, early band members, journalists as well as members of The Attractions, producers, collaborators, and musicians from all stages of his life and career. Thomson also unearths many previously unknown details about Costello's early years and his personal life as well as examining his entire musical output using the recollections of those who were there at the time, the majority of whom have never talked on the subject before.

The Song of Songs and Its Tradition in Renaissance Love Lyric Camilla Caporicci, 2025-01-29 Traditionally attributed to King Solomon and called by Rabbi Akiva the Holy of Holies among sacred Scriptures, Mishnah Yadayim 3:5, the Song of Songs is one of the most fascinating and controversial biblical books and played an essential role in the shaping of European spirituality and culture. Combining in a unique way a sensual and deeply lyrical celebration of love with a well-established tradition of Christian allegorical interpretation, this text crucial to both the Middle Ages and the early modern period held a particular appeal for poets devoted not only to religious verse but also to love poetry. The Song of Songs and Its Tradition in Renaissance Love Lyric is the first systematic and wide-ranging investigation of the multifaceted use of the Song of Songs in Renaissance love lyric poetry with specific attention to Italian, French, and especially English poetic production. At the same time, this investigation is embedded into a narrative that comprises two initial chapters devoted to medieval poetry and to Francesco Petrarca, representing an unprecedented attempt to trace the role of the Song of Songs in the rise and development of the European love lyric following its path or rather one of its paths from the medieval origins of this tradition to the end of the sixteenth century. The picture of the general impact of the Song of Songs in the development of the European love lyric is combined with in-depth analysis of key works by specific authors including Dante Alighieri, Francesco Petrarca, Torquato Tasso, Marguerite de Navarre, Anne de Marquets, Clément Marot, Richard Barnfield, Edmund Spenser, William Shakespeare, John Donne, Elizabeth Melville, and Aemilia Lanyer, promoting a contextualization of their significance within a new interpretative framework. While the comparative standpoint characterizing this study fosters a deeper comprehension of the evolution of the European love lyric, its multidisciplinary approach, which considers the Song of Songs as the centre of a web of dynamics pertaining to the fields of literature, philosophy, theology, and religious and cultural history, contributes to the understanding of the thought and spirit of ages crucial to the shaping of European culture.
