Shady Practices Agroforestry And Gender Politics In The Gambia:

Shady Practices Richard A. Schroeder, 1999 In this engaging and exceptionally well crafted case study Schroeder shows clearly how local dynamics intersect with wider processes Changes in cropping patterns land rights work routines and gender politics were shaped by multiple struggles and interactions among women and men landholders and land users farmers government officials and representatives of various international agencies Sara Berry author of No Condition Is Permanent Sex-disaggregated indicators for water assessment, monitoring and reporting Seager, Joni, 2015-11-09

The Oxford Handbook of Modern African History John Parker, Richard Reid, 2013-10-10 The Oxford Handbook of Modern African History represents an invaluable tool for historians and others in the field of African studies This collection of essays produced by some of the finest scholars currently working in the field provides the latest insights into and interpretations of the history of Africa a continent with a rich and complex past An understanding of this past is essential to gain perspective on Africa s current challenges and this accessible and comprehensive volume will allow readers to explore various aspects political economic social and cultural of the continent s history over the last two hundred years Since African history first emerged as a serious academic endeavour in the 1950s and 1960s it has undergone numerous shifts in terms of emphasis and approach changes brought about by political and economic exigencies and by ideological debates This multi faceted Handbook is essential reading for anyone with an interest in those debates and in Africa and its peoples While the focus is determinedly historical anthropology geography literary criticism political science and sociology are all employed in this ground breaking study of Africa s past Bitter Shade Michael R. Dove, 2021 A seminal anthropological work on the paradoxical relationship between human consciousness and the environment Innovative insightful incandescent Arun Agrawal author of Environmentality Technologies of Government and the Making of Subjects This book asks age old questions about the relationship between human consciousness and the environment How do we think about our own thoughts and actions How can we transcend the exigencies of daily life How can we achieve sufficient distance from our own everyday realities to think and act more sustainably To address these questions Michael R Dove draws on the results of decades of research in South and Southeast Asia on how local cultures have circumvented the curse of consciousness the paradox that we cannot completely comprehend the ecosystem of which we are part He distills from his ethnographic ecological and historical research three principles perspectivism seeing oneself from outside oneself metamorphosis becoming something that one is not and mimesis copying something that one is not which help a society to transcend the hubris and myopia of everyday existence and achieve greater insight into its ecosystem A Companion to Feminist

Geography Lise Nelson, Joni Seager, 2025-07-28 A Companion to Feminist Geography captures the breadth and diversity of this vibrant and substantive field Shows how feminist geography has changed the landscape of geographical inquiry and knowledge since the 1970s Explores the diverse literatures that comprise feminist geography today Showcases cutting edge research by feminist geographers Charts emerging areas of scholarship such as the body and the nation Contributions from 50 leading international scholars in the field Each chapter can be read for its own distinctive contribution Culture and Customs of Gambia Abdoulaye S. Saine Ph.D.,2012-04-13 Ideal for high school and undergraduate students this addition to the Culture and Customs of Africa series examines the contemporary cultures and traditions of modern Gambia from religious customs to literature to cuisine and much more This title in the Culture and Customs of Africa series examines the traditions and customs of contemporary Gambia a geographically tiny nation in the vast landscape of Africa that is home to a large number of various ethnic groups each with its own distinctive way of life It is a country that has been largely unknown in Western culture with the exception of Alex Haley s book Roots and subsequent TV series which highlights Gambia s historic significance in the slave trade This book illuminates Gambian religion and worldview literature and media arts and architecture housing gender roles marriage and family social customs traditional dress cuisine and lifestyle and music and dance The author has successfully encapsulated both long ago history and contemporary Gambia to provide students with a complete look at life in Gambia today Information on past traditions and historic events is discussed in the context of how they pertain to life today and their influence on the constant evolution of Gambian life and culture Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century Gary L. Gaile,Cort J. Willmott,2005 Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century surveys American geographers current research in their specialty areas and tracks trends and innovations in the many subfields of geography As such it is both a state of the discipline assessment and a topical reference It includes an introduction by the editors and 47 chapters each on a specific specialty The authors of each chapter were chosen by their specialty group of the American Association of Geographers AAG Based on a process of review and revision the chapters in this volume have become truly representative of the recent scholarship of American geographers While it focuses on work since 1990 it additionally includes related prior work and work by non American geographers The initial Geography in America was published in 1989 and has become a benchmark reference of American geographical research during the 1980s This latest volume is completely new and features a preface written by the eminent geographer Gilbert White Race, Nature, and the Politics of Difference Donald S. Moore,Jake Kosek,Anand Pandian,2003-05-20 A collection of essays that show the interdependence of concepts of race and nature Being Maasai, Becoming Indigenous Dorothy L. Hodgson,2011-04-21 What happens to marginalized groups from Africa when they ally with the indigenous peoples movement Who claims to be indigenous and why Dorothy L Hodgson explores how indigenous identity both in concept and in practice plays out in the context of economic liberalization transnational capitalism state restructuring and political democratization Hodgson brings her long experience with Maasai to her understanding of the shifting contours of their contemporary struggles for recognition representation rights and resources Being Maasai Becoming Indigenous is a deep and sensitive reflection on the possibilities and limits of transnational advocacy and the dilemmas of political action civil

with different geographies social customs religions and historical situations Africa is a predominantly agricultural continent and a major factor in African agriculture is the central role of women as farmers It is estimated that between 65 and 80 percent of African women are engaged in cultivating food for their families and in the past that percentage was likely even higher Thus one common thread across much of the continent is women's daily work in their family plot This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Women in Sub Saharan Africa contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on individual African women in history politics religion and the arts on important events organizations and publications and on topics important to women in general marriage fertility employment and to African women in particular market women child marriage queen mothers This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Women in Africa

Beyond Nature's Housekeepers Nancy C. Unger, 2012-10-05 This book highlights the unique and complex role women have played in the shaping of the American environment from pre Columbian Native Americans to present day environmental justice activists

Producing Nature and Poverty in Africa Vigdis Broch-Due, Richard A. Schroeder, 2000 Drawing on case studies from eight different countries the contributors to this provocative collection of essays demonstrate quite clearly that environmental programmes often have direct and far reaching consequences for the distribution of wealth and poverty and that they constitute one of the major forms of foreign and state intervention in contemporary African affairs

Cities, Nature and Development Sarah Dooling, Gregory Simon, 2016-05-23 Bringing together an interdisciplinary team of scholars this book illustrates how and why cities are comprised by a mosaic of vulnerable human and ecological communities Case studies ranging across various international settings reveal how urban vulnerabilities is an effective metaphor and analytic lens for advancing political ecological theories on the relationships between cities nature and development Contributions expand upon conceptions of vulnerability as a static condition and instead present vulnerability as a phenomenon that is produced through complex and contentious planning histories and which may in turn be politicized exploited and in some instances contested Expanding upon snapshot vulnerability assessments this volume articulates vulnerability as a process that is marked by the accumulation of risk over time and the transference of risk across space and populations Moving beyond notions of vulnerability as a singular case studies demonstrate that social and ecological vulnerabilities are deeply integrated and as such are irreducible to one or the other This volume also highlights how the production of vulnerabilities is frequently achieved through integrated and mutually reinforcing economic development and environmentally driven agendas This collection thus suggests that vulnerability and also forms of resilience are implicated in efforts to plan for and manage sustainable cities This book provides timely and provocative perspectives on a wide range of urban issues including park management gentrification suburban expansion sustainability planning local organic food systems hazards management climate change activism and north south flows of urban environmental externalities Collectively these works reveal the complexities of urban vulnerabilities related to scalar interactions accumulation and transfer of risk politicization and governance and capacity for resistance and in doing so provide readers with coherent robust and well theorized analysis of the politics and production of urban vulnerabilities

Village Work Alice Wiemers, 2021-05-28 A robust historical case study that demonstrates how village development became central to the rhetoric and practice of statecraft in rural Ghana Combining oral histories with decades of archival material Village Work formulates a sweeping history of twentieth century statecraft that centers on the daily work of rural people local officials and family networks rather than on the national governments and large scale plans that often dominate development stories Wiemers shows that developmentalism was not simply created by governments and imposed on the governed instead it was jointly constructed through interactions between them The book contributes to the historiographies of development and statecraft in Africa and the Global South by emphasizing the piecemeal contingent and largely improvised ways both development and the state are comprised and experienced providing new entry points into longstanding discussions about developmental power and discourse unsettling common ideas about how and by whom states are made exposing the importance of unpaid labor in mediating relationships between governments and the governed showing how state engagement could both exacerbate and disrupt inequities Despite massive changes in twentieth century political structures the imposition and destruction of colonial rule nationalist plans for pan African solidarity and modernization multiple military coups and the rise of neoliberal austerity policies unremunerated labor and demonstrations of local leadership have remained central tools by which rural Ghanaians have interacted with the state Grounding its analysis of statecraft in decades of daily negotiations over budgets and bureaucracy the book tells the stories of developers who decided how and where projects would be sited of constituents who performed labor and of a chief and his large cadre of educated children who met and shaped demands for local leaders For a variety of actors invoking the village became a convenient way to allocate or attract limited resources to highlight or downplay struggles over power and to forge national and international networks

Boundaries, Communities and State-Making in West Africa Paul Nugent, 2019-06-06 By examining three centuries of history this book shows how vital border regions have been in shaping states and social contracts
