Marthe's Search for Love Among Couples of Pine Trees Hugo Van Bever, 2015-10-23 Mainly out of loneliness a messed up writer falls in love with Marthe his female main character and decides not to let her die as initially planned but to invite her into his life to help him write his next novel He also welcomes popular characters from other successful novels all experts in love In addition he summons Vivian a prostitute like Vivian from the movie Pretty Woman who is an expert in love for sale to spice up the story The characters and their writer embark on an erotic journey of sensuality sex and murder as the writer takes copious notes that turn into an unusual meta novel offering different vistas on life death murder and love The story ends in Vietnam at the lake of Dalat where according to an old legend pine trees formed intimate couples holding each other entwining their roots after a young couple committed suicide The legend renews itself at midnight the day the writer's group arrives Will they find love or will they seek death

Looking for Love in the Legal Discourse of Marriage Renata Grossi, 2014-09-01 This book examines the invisibility of romantic love in the legal discourse surrounding modern Australian marriage It looks at how romantic love has become a core part of modernity and a dominant part of the Western marriage discourse and considers how the ideologies of romantic love are or are not replicated in the legal meaning of marriage This examination raises two key issues If love has become central to people's understanding of marriage then it is important for the legitimacy of law that love is reflected in both the content and application of the law More fundamentally it requires us to reconsider how we understand law and to ask whether it is engaged with emotions or separate from them Along the way this book also considers the meaning of love itself in contemporary society and asks whether love is a radical force capable of breaking down conservative meanings embedded in institutions like marriage or whether it simply mirrors them This book will be of interest to everyone working on love marriage and sexuality in the disciplines of law sociology and philosophy

Looking for Love in Strange Places: A Memoir for My Stepdaughters Diana Page, 2016-02-18 Back in 1968 Diana Page was going to graduate from the University of Michigan without much hope for marriage or a career She didn't have a boyfriend so a prospective husband was unlikely to materialize before the semester ended and a bachelor's in political science wasn't going to make her easily employable The solution Join the Peace Corps where she could help change the world and possibly meet a guy who shared her values Thus began Diana's adventures Her travels as a journalist and diplomat took her down the dangerous roads of Latin American history from the 1960s into the twenty-first century With excerpts from diaries letters and news articles she weaves together a narrative of war and peace presidents and peasants but mostly of ordinary people who teach her about life She also runs into a few extraordinary people along the way Fidel Castro Isabel Peron Pelé Jorge Luis Borges and Hillary Clinton among others Looking for Love in Strange Places: A Memoir for My Stepdaughters is a hopeful humorous account of what happens when you seize the day without too many expectations for the future

The Look of Love Sarah Jio, 2014-11-25 Inspired by the classic song this magical story from the New York Times bestselling author of Always and Blackberry Winter tells the tale of a woman with the unusual gift to see true love but will she be able to find it for herself before it's too late Born during a Christmas blizzard Jane Williams receives a rare gift the ability to see true love In spite of her unique talent Jane has emerged from an ailing childhood a lonely hopeless romantic without love on her life On her twenty-ninth birthday a mysterious greeting card arrives The card specifies that Jane must identify the six types of love before the full moon following her thirtieth birthday or face grave consequences But when Jane at last falls for a science writer who doesn't believe in love she fears that she may never accomplish her task and that her loveless fate may be sealed Jio has become one of the most read women in America

Baldwin: A Love Story Nicholas Boggs, 2025-08-19 Drawing on new archival material original research and interviews this spellbinding book is the first major biography of James Baldwin in three decades revealing how profoundly his personal relationships shaped his life and work Baldwin: A Love Story the first major biography of James Baldwin in three decades reveals how profoundly the writer's personal relationships shaped his life and work Drawing on newly uncovered archival material and original research and interviews this spellbinding book tells the overlapping stories of Baldwin's most sustaining intimate and artistic relationships with his mentor the Black American painter Beauford Delaney with his lover and muse the Swiss painter Lucien Happersberger and with his collaborators the famed Turkish actor Engin Cezzar and the iconoclastic French artist Yoran Cazac whose long overlooked significance as Baldwin's last great love is explored in these pages for the first time Nicholas Boggs shows how Baldwin drew on all the complex forces within these relationships geographical cultural political artistic and erotic and alchemized them into novels essays and plays that speak truth to power and had an indelible impact on the civil rights movement and on Black and queer literary history Richly immersive Baldwin A Love Story follows the writer's creative journey between Harlem Paris Switzerland the southern United States Istanbul Africa the South of France and beyond In so doing it magnifies our understanding of the public and private lives of one of the major literary figures of the twentieth century whose contributions only continue to grow in influence Looking for Other Worlds Jean-Charles Régine Michelle, 2022-11-10 What would it mean to reorient the study of Haitian literature toward ethics rather than the themes of politics engagement disaster or catastrophe Looking for Other Worlds engages with this question from a distinct feminist perspective and in the process discovers a revelatory lens through which we can productively read the work of contemporary Haitian writers Régine Michelle Jean Charles explores the ethical imagination of three contemporary Haitian authors Yanick Lahens Kettly Mars and Evelyne Trouillot contending that ethics and aesthetics operate in relation to each other through the writers' respective novels and that the turn to ethics has proven essential in the twenty-first century Jean Charles presents a useful framework for analyzing contemporary literature that brings together Black feminism literary ethics and Haitian studies in a groundbreaking way Living Up the Road from Laura Ingalls Dan L. White, 2015-01-07 Laura Ingalls and Almanzo Wilder lived in the Missouri Ozarks for over a half century They loved the scenery the mild climate their little Rocky Ridge Farm the people They loved their life in the Ozarks So what's it like to live a life like that just up the road from Laura's place Dan L. White and family have done that for over a quarter century During that time they wrote a number of books about Laura and her books and her life Living Up the Road from Laura Ingalls With Excerpts from Seven Books about Her is a sampler of some of those books along with the story of their personal life in the Ozarks They found out that living up the way from Laura's place led to much the same way of life As she so well stated I believe we would be happier to have a personal revolution in our individual lives and go back to simpler living and more direct thinking It is the simple things of life that make living worthwhile the sweet fundamental things such as love and duty work and rest and living close to nature

Censoring an Iranian Love Story Shahriar Mandanipour, 2009-05-05 A NEW YORKER BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR One of Iran's most important living fiction writers The Guardian shows what it's like to live and love there today A haunting portrait of life in the Islamic Republic of Iran The New York Times In a country where mere proximity between a man and a woman may be the prologue to deadly sin where illicit passion is punished by imprisonment or even death telling that most redemptive of human narratives becomes the greatest literary challenge If conducting a love affair in modern Iran is not a simple undertaking then telling the story of that love may be even more difficult Shahriar Mandanipour author of Moon Brow evokes a pair of young lovers who find each other despite surreal persecution and repressive parents through coded messages and internet chat rooms and triumphantly their story entwines with an account of their creator's struggle Inventive darkly comic and profoundly touching Censoring an Iranian Love Story celebrates both the unquenchable power of the written word and a love that is doomed glorious and utterly real Lessons in Love Emily Franklin, 2008 During fall term of her senior year at Hadley Hall Love Bukowski faces myriad challenges including boyfriend issues choices about college her long lost mother and sister's return and the loss of her private journals An Irish Country Love Story Patrick fascinating love intrigues and perplexes us and drives much of what we do in life As wary as we may be of its illusions and disappointments many of us fall blindly into its traps and become ensnared time and again Deliriously mad excitement turns to disenchantment if not deadening repetition and we wonder how we shall ever break out of this vicious cycle Can psychoanalysis with ample assistance from philosophers poets novelists and songwriters give us a new perspective on the wellsprings and course of love Can it help us fathom how and why we are often looking for love in all the wrong places and are fundamentally confused about what love really is In this lively and wide ranging exploration of love throughout the ages Fink argues that it can Taking within his compass a vast array of traditions from Antiquity to the courtly love poets Christian love and Romanticism and providing an in depth examination of Freud and Lacan on love and libido Fink unpacks Lacan's paradoxical claim that love is giving what you don't have He shows how the emptiness or lack we feel within ourselves gets covered over or entwined in love and how it is possible and indeed vital to give something to another that we feel we ourselves don't have This first ever commentary on Lacan's Seminar VIII Transference provides readers with a clear and systematic introduction to Lacan's views on love It will be of great value to students and scholars of psychology and of the humanities generally and to analysts of all persuasions Waimpayar Love Story (for your's love) Masani

Akhtar,2023-01-16 Seeking Love in Modern Britain Zoe Strimpel,2020-03-05 Seeking Love in Modern Britain charts the emergence of the modern British single through an account of the dating industry that sprang up to serve men and women It shows how amid a period of unprecedented sexual and social change the single became a key unisex identity and lifestyle From around 1970 a growing cottage style matchmaking industry in Britain was offering the romantically solo a choice between computer dating firms such as Dateline or Computate introduction agencies and the lonely hearts pages of Private Eye Time Out and others Zoe Strimpel reveals how this rapidly expanding landscape of services was catering to a new breed of single people and how by the late 1990s singleness had become the culturally mainstream wholly expected part of the romantic life cycle that it is today Refuting the widespread idea that the Internet invented modern dating this book uses an eclectic and engaging range of first person accounts and snapshots from the time to show that the story of contemporary romance mediated courtship and singleness began in a time long before Tinder A/AS Level English Literature A for AQA Student Book Russell Carey,Anne Fairhall,Tom Rank,2015-11-12 Created specifically for the AQA A AS level English literature A specification for first teaching from 2015 this print student book is suitable for all abilities providing stretch opportunities for the more able and additional scaffolding for those who need it Helping bridge the gap between GCSE and A level the unique three part structure focuses on texts within a particular time period and supports students in interpreting texts and reflecting on how writers make meaning
