Almost Love Almost Lost Siddhant Bhargava,2025-11-09 In a world where friendships shift like seasons and silence speaks louder than words Sam finds himself caught between emotional restraint and the quiet pull of connection As Parul begins to drift closer and Anjali draws her lines Sam must navigate the fragile balance of loyalty loneliness and unspoken truths Set against the backdrop of group trips late night messages and moments that almost mean something this coming of age story explores what happens when affection is misunderstood and when principles stand taller than desire Some bonds are never named Some distances are chosen And some promises made in silence echo louder than love

The One Question - What Would Love Do Caroline hts Satnam,2010-10-11 Are you or your loved ones experiencing chaos in your life at work and in matters of the heart or your health Are you spending a lot of time and money getting help the traditional way only to find out you still don't have peace and joy or know your life's purpose or your soul mate Have you tried alternative solutions handson healing counseling workshops crystals psychics religion spirituality and everything else out there Or are you one of the lucky ones who seems to have the perfect life yet still feel like somethings missing The author of this amazing and revealing book went through all of that and more Caroline was born with the question Why in her mouth and drove all her teachers crazy trying to find the answers Unable to get satisfaction and to escape what seemed like mental torture Caroline became totally physical by joining the Canadian military in 1967 as a Physical Education and Recreation Instructor Pushing herself physically suppressed her mental body for a short period of time Although excelling in all that she did the pull of the Why did not die it just became stronger Sixteen years later Caroline left her physical military life and completely immersed herself in an invisible metaphysical world seeking the key that would unlock the door to all the answers

Potts,2016-09-13 She crept back down the stairs and turned to her left and saw a stone path which she began to follow that led to the back of the house There she saw a large enclosed back porch that had many tall windows and a door She thought to herself that Mama would love to sit out there in the afternoons and Rick could even sleep in his playpen in the enclosed area and how she would just love to play in this big backyard She turned her eyes to the wide long lawn that comprised the back of the property and she spied two very large maple trees in the very back of the yard the leaves of which were just beginning to turn red and mused that her father could put swings up on each of the trees Just as she was delighting herself with all the wonderful possibilities of living there she heard mans voice behind her softly ask Are you looking for someone little girl She whirled around suddenly afraid of both being on someones property without her mothers permission and meeting up with a stranger She began to stammer a reply but couldnt form her words very well I I I was I mean I was just looking The Letters: Portrait of an Artist, Jim Houser Connie Houser,2007-10-05 The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser is a book about Connie and Jim Houser's passion for art and each other as well as for living and family. It is a dialogue about their adventures in pursuing those loves and achieving recognition for their accomplishments. In 2008 the book garnered FIRST PLACE in the DIY California Book Fest and HONORABLE MENTIONS in A DOZEN BOOK FESTS including the New England Book Fest and the LONDON ENGLAND book fest. It is a readable visual delight. There is a profound degree of suchness or Zen quality in Jim Houser's paintings as well as a lyricism not unlike the clear concise resonance of Robert Frost's shorter verse. Those essentials are shown in the almost forty paintings photographed for The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser. The imagined and inventive device and use of letters or messages in The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser swiftly conveys the actual events in Jim and Connie Houser's lives. The creative partners are portrayed in a rapidly moving dialogue that involves the reader in artist's competitions, art gallery shows, foreign and domestic travel, family life, and an understanding of the profession of producing a fine work of art in modern times. The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser explains that a fine work of art is very different from the remainder of artistic endeavor. Fine art engages the viewer in a visual dialogue that distinguishes it and bonds the viewer in love or hate but never mediocrity. Not a run-of-the-mill coffee table book, The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser is a charming and accurate account of the modern-day artist's life while creating works of art and bringing them to the public's attention. The story encompasses the tragedies and the successes in the Houser's lives and their interaction with others. Written by the artist's wife, Connie Houser herself, an awarded artist and writer, it spans the artists' relationship thus far and offers insights into their creative work. The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser follows the artists' creative work accomplished during their hectic everyday existence. The same full lives of having a family, a home, and a job to pay bills necessary today to most people. Although the letters themselves are an imaginative artistic device to enliven the book, the events are true. Not satisfied to just get by, they made career choices that would eventually make them both candidates for inclusion in the prestigious Marquis Who's Who editions of art literature America and the World. Jim has been represented in those volumes for fifteen years, and Connie joined the ranks in 2004. Photographs of his paintings will also appear in the 2008/2009 Who's Who in American Art. Artist's gallery. Their ability to continue to work under conditions that might discourage others is made clear in The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser. Jim's profession is painting, and Connie's is writing and painting. The rest of their work, although they contributed much, enjoyed it, and performed with excellence, was done to pay the bills. Jim was a 30-year college professor and full-time family man. Connie organized family matters, taught part-time while writing for various publications and magazines, plus painting. The carousing hours were the working hours for their creative efforts because silence reigned. Their many travel adventures in the states and abroad guaranteed they played hard with the same energy and enthusiasms. When Jim began winning countless awards for his painting, he was invited to show at numerous exhibitions and in New York City galleries. They added these events plus art show openings to their already hectic schedule. Through it all, they managed a
