The Stepmother Tongue John Skinner,1998-09-18 There are numerous twentieth century writers in English who are not technically native speakers of the language and whose relation to it is ambivalent problematic or even hostile by a simple kinship analogy one may often speak of the stepmother tongue Whilst fully aware of the current debates in postcolonial theory John Skinner is also conscious of its sometimes unhelpful complexities and contradictions The focus of this study is thus firmly on the fictional practice of the writers discussed He offers the reader an insight into the diversity and rewards of contemporary anglophone fiction whilst analysing some eighty individual texts A uniquely comprehensive guide the book will be welcomed by students and teachers of postcolonial literature A Hot Country Shiva Naipaul,1995 Cuyama a small country in South America its spirit robbed by centuries of conquerors and colonizers is poised on the brink of crisis Shiva Naipaul's passionate and evocative novel focuses on two casualties of Cuyama's post Independence malaise Aubrey St Pierre dedicated to redeeming the sins of his slave owning ancestors and his wife Dina While Aubrey sits in his highbrow bookshop composing protest letters to The Times in London and New York Dina stands aloof and passive in the face of an impending tragedy that seems to her more personal than political The fate of their marriage comes obliquely to reflect the fate of a nation portrayed by Naipaul with intense sympathy vision and eloquence BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

The British and Irish Novel Since 1960 James Acheson, 1991-09-03 The essays in this collection survey the work of some of the most important British and Irish novelists of today They not only consider afresh the work of novelists who established their reputations before 1960 such as Doris Lessing and William Golding they also discuss the work of more recent novelists among them Kazuo Ishiguro Angela Carter and Graham Swift The contributors are drawn from various parts of the English speaking world and provide a variety of original perspectives on the novelists concerned

Commonwealth Novel in English, 2001

Extravagant Strangers Caryl Phillips, 2010-05-05 Shakespeare called Othello an extravagant and wheeling strangers Of here and every where In this exciting anthology Caryl Phillips has collected writings by thirty nine extravagant strangers British writers who were born outside of Britain and see it with clear and critical eyes These eloquent and incisive voices prove that English literature far from being pure or homogenous has in fact been shaped and influenced by outsiders for over two hundred years Here are slave writers such as Ignatius Sancho an eighteenth century African who became a friend to Samuel Jonson and Laurence Sterne writers born in the colonies such as Thackeray Kipling and Orwell subject writers such as C L R James and V S Naipaul foreign migr s such as Joseph Conrad and Kazuo Ishiguro and postcolonial observers of the British scene such as Salman Rushdie Ben Okri and Anita Desai With this eloquent and often inspiring collection Phillips proves if proof be needed that the greatest literature is often born out of irreconcilable tensions between a writer and his or her society

Finding a Place Kris Rampersad,2002 Kris Rampersad s book takes an intimate look at the blossoming of Trinidad s literary consciousness Through the eyes and the words of the writers she maps their contribution to Indo Trinidadian literature from those evolutionary years in 1850 to it flowering in the 1950s It also represents a close look at the exciting oral culture of these people as depicted by their music dance and storytelling and examines the biographies of the main figures who contributed to social cultural economic and political development throughout this period While the main focus of the work is on language and literary development other aspects of Trinidad s development are also explored cross culturation politics race relations social mobility and women s issues in relation to their influence and impact on the writings Further the raw material of Finding A Place 12 little known and rare publications between 1850 and 1950 introduces a new set of data through which the evolution of Trinidad and Tobago can be examined by others

A Hot Country Shiva Naipaul,1983 Een contactarme vrouw en haar idealistische man leven los van elkaar en van de maatschappij hun doelloos bestaan in een pas onafhankelijk Caraïbisch land

Embodiment and the New Shape of Black Theological Thought Anthony B. Pinn,2010-06-01 Black theology tends to be a theology about no body Though one might assume that black and womanist theology have already given significant attention to the nature and meaning of black bodies as a theological issue this inquiry has primarily taken the form of a focus on issues relating to liberation treating the body in abstract terms rather than focusing on the experiencing of a material fleshy reality By focusing on the body as a physical entity and not just a metaphorical one Pinn offers a new approach to theological thinking about race gender and sexuality According to Pinn the body is of profound theological importance In this first text on black theology to take embodiment as its starting point and its goal Pinn interrogates the traditional source materials for black theology such as spirituals and slave narratives seeking to link them to materials such as photography that highlight the theological importance of the body Employing a multidisciplinary approach spanning from the sociology of the body and philosophy to anthropology and art history Embodiment and the New Shape of Black Theological Thought pushes black theology to the next level

Love and Death in the Great War Andrew J. Huebner,2018-02-01 Americans today harbor no strong or consistent collective memory of the First World War Ask why the country fought or what they accomplished and democracy is the most likely if vague response The circulation of confusing or lofty rationales for intervention began as soon as President Woodrow Wilson secured a war declaration in April 1917 Yet amid those shifting justifications Love and Death in the Great War argues was a more durable and resonant one Americans would fight for home and family Officials in the military and government grasping this crucial reality invested the war with personal meaning as did popular culture Make your mother proud of you And the Old Red White and Blue went George Cohan s famous tune Over There Federal officials and their allies in public culture in short told the war story as a love story Intervention came at a moment when arbiters of traditional home and family were regarded as under pressure from all sides industrial work women s employment immigration urban vice woman suffrage and the imagined threat of black sexual aggression Alleged German crimes in France and Belgium seemed to further imperil women and children War promised to restore convention stabilize gender roles and sharpen male character Love and Death in the Great War tracks such ideas of redemptive war across public and private spaces policy and implementation home and front popular culture and personal correspondence In beautifully rendered prose Andrew J Huebner merges untold stories of ordinary men and women with a history of wartime culture Studying the radiating impact of war alongside the management of public opinion he recovers the conflict s emotional dimensions its everyday rhythms heartbreaking losses soaring possibilities and broken promises

Hot Chocolate in June: A True Story of Loss, Love and Restoration Holly Mthethwa, 2014-03-31 Under qualified and overly ambitious Holly left her family and friends behind in Nebraska to search for that radical life that all for Jesus or nothing at all life. Escaping the depression that chased her following her father's untimely and agonizing death this young accountant turned adventurer trekked to remote mountain villages and through city streets smelling of human excrement all in search of a Father's love. Thousands of miles from the only home she'd ever known Holly discovered a deeper passion for her God while sharing the gospel in India and soothing abandoned babies in South Africa. God made sure that Holly also encountered Oscar. This handsome South African rugby player seemed to have everything Holly had been praying for in a husband except for the small detail that he didn't look like any of the other guys she'd dated before Oscar as the son of parents who had lived through racial segregation and apartheid was not supposed to bring home a woman whose skin matched the color of the people his parents had served. And this small town Midwestern girl wasn't supposed to fall in love with a black man either. Hot Chocolate in June is the true story of God's undeniable ability to mend emotional wounds overcome racial and cultural differences and write amazing adventure stories. Join Holly as she navigates her way through deep grief and loss only to discover the sweetness of love and restoration.
