challenged the very nature of art and strove to redefine it as conceptual rather than as product by questioning why the medium was mostly a retinal experience Always the provocateur Duchamp never ceased to be engaged openly or secretly in activities and works that transformed traditional artmaking Through his works like Fountain Bicycle Wheel L H O O Q and Nude Descending a Staircase No 2 Duchamp played with the idea of what art can be opening new possibilities for future generations This revised entry in the World of Art series written by three leading experts on twentieth century art and published with support of Duchamp s widow is one of the most original books written on this enigmatic artist Featuring a new chapter and preface as well as updates throughout from specialist scholars who are active in their fields this is the definitive introduction to Duchamp Thoroughly illustrated this volume combines thirty years of research by the authors and challenges history s presumptions misunderstandings and pieces of misinformation about Marcel Duchamp and his legacy

Marcel Duchamp and Max Ernst David Hopkins,1998 David Hopkins analyses the extensive network of shared concerns and images in the work of Marcel Duchamp and Max Ernst the greatest names associated with Dada and Surrealist art This book covers a broad period from c 1912 to the mid 1940s during which the emergence of Dada and Surrealism in Europe and the United States challenged earlier movements such as Cubism and Expressionism creating scope for the expression of the unconscious fears and desires of artists acutely sensitive to the troubled nature of their times Examining Duchamp s and Ernst s subversion and manipulation of religious and hermetic beliefs such as Catholicism Rosicrucianism and Masonry David Hopkins demonstrates the ways in which these esoteric concerns intersect with themes of peculiarly contemporary relevance including the social construction of gender and notions of ordering and taxonomy This detailed comparison of components of Duchamp s and Ernst s work reveals fascinating structural patterns enabling the reader to discover an entirely new way of understanding the mechanisms underlying Dada and Surrealist iconography Marcel Duchamp Rudolf E. Kuenzli,Francis M. Naumann,1991 Artist of the Century These eleven illustrated essays explore the structure and meaning of Duchamp s work as part of an ongoing critical enterprise that has just begun Dialogues With Marcel Duchamp Pierre Cabanne,2025-05-01 With an introduction by Robert Motherwell and an appreciation by Jasper Johns Marcel Duchamp one of this century s pioneer artists moved his work through the retinal boundaries which had been established with Impressionism into a field where language thought and vision act upon one another There it changed form through a complex interplay of new mental and physical materials heralding many of the technical mental and visual details to be found in more recent art In the 1920s Duchamp gave up quit painting He allowed perhaps encouraged the attendant mythology One thought of his decision his willing this stopping Yet on one occasion he said it was not like that He spoke of breaking a leg You don t mean to do it he said The Large Glass A greenhouse for his intuition Erotic machinery the Bride held in a see through cage a Hilarious Picture Its cross references of sight and thought the changing focus of the eyes and mind give fresh sense to the time and space we occupy negate any concern with art as transportation No end is in view in this fragment of a new perspective In the end you lose interest so I didn't feel the necessity to finish it He declared that he wanted to kill art for myself but his persistent attempts to destroy frames of reference altered our thinking established new units of thought a new thought for that object The art community feels Duchamp's presence and his absence He has changed the condition of being here Jasper Johns from Marcel Duchamp An Appreciation The Duchamp Dictionary Thomas Girst, 2014-05-20 Girst elegantly unravels the skeins of Duchamp's thinking An essential compendium for puzzling out an essential artist Richard Armstrong Director of the Solomon R Guggenheim Museum and Foundation Among the most influential artists of the last hundred years Marcel Duchamp holds great allure for many contemporary artists worldwide and is largely considered to be one of the founding fathers of modern art Despite this popularity books on Duchamp are often hyper theoretical rarely presenting the artist in an accessible way This new book explores the artist's life and work through short alphabetical dictionary entries that introduce his legacy in a clear and engaging way From alchemy and anatomy to Warhol and windows The Duchamp Dictionary offers a pithy and readable text that draws on in depth scholarship and the very latest research Thomas Girst includes close to 200 entries on the most interesting and important artworks relationships people and ideas in Duchamp's life from The Bicycle Wheel and Fountain to Walter and Louise Arensberg Peggy Guggenheim Katherine Dreier and Arturo Schwarz Delightful newly commissioned illustrations introduce each letter of the alphabet and accompany select entries capturing the irreverent spirit of the artist himself Divine Madness Lars Elleström, 2002 This book provides a theory that enables the concept of irony to be transferred from the literary to the visual and aural domains Topics include the historical roots of the concept of irony as modes of oral and literary expression and how irony relates to spatiality Jewish Identities Klara Moricz, 2008-02-05 Jewish Identities mounts a formidable challenge to prevailing essentialist assumptions about Jewish music which maintain that ethnic groups nations or religious communities possess an essence that must manifest itself in art created by members of that group Klara Moricz scrutinizes concepts of Jewish identity and reorders ideas about twentieth century Jewish music in three case studies first Russian Jewish composers of the first two decades of the twentieth century second the Swiss American Ernest Bloch and third Arnold Schoenberg Examining these composers in the context of emerging Jewish nationalism widespread racial theories and utopian tendencies in modernist art and twentieth century politics Moricz describes a trajectory from paradigmatic nationalist techniques through assumptions about the unintended presence of racial essences to an abstract notion of Judaism Visions of the Modern John Golding, 1994-01-01 John Golding brings to his writing the sure eye and profound sensitivity of a practicing artist Perhaps best known for his seminal history of Cubism Golding has long been regarded as one of the most outstanding art historians and critics of our time This volume brings together many of his most important essays and its publication will be celebrated not only by his admirers but by lovers of art and language everywhere Visions of The Modern covers a vast range of twentieth century art from Matisse and Cubism Dada and Surrealism to aspects of postwar American art Some essays have been out of print while others have appeared in periodicals not easily accessible to the average reader Taken together they establish a sustained deeply informed account of many of the grandest moments in the art of this century A much admired painter Golding s unique balance of eye and mind infuses his exceedingly literate criticism Combining a meticulousness in matters of fact with a capacity to write in a lucid jargon free manner he addresses equally the sophisticated art historian the cultural historian and the general reader An appendix to the volume is in the form of a dialogue between Golding and the philosopher Richard Wollheim It provides additional insights into the origins and aims of abstract art as well as revealing the mind of an invigorating artist at work
