Photography Daniela Mrázková,1987 Photographs Alphonse Marie Mucha,1974 How Do We Look? Fatimah Tobing Rony,2021-10-18 In How Do We Look Fatimah Tobing Rony draws on transnational images of Indonesian women as a way to theorize what she calls visual biopolitics the ways visual representation determines which lives are made to matter more than others Rony outlines the mechanisms of visual biopolitics by examining Paul Gauguin s 1893 portrait of Annah la Javanaise a trafficked thirteen year old girl found wandering the streets of Paris as well as US ethnographic and documentary films In each instance the figure of the Indonesian woman is inextricably tied to discourses of primitivism savagery colonialism exoticism and genocide Rony also focuses on acts of resistance to visual biopolitics in film writing and photography These works such as Rachmi Diyah Larasati s The Dance that Makes You Vanish Vincent Monnikendam s Mother Dao 1995 and the collaborative films of Nia Dinata challenge the naturalized methods of seeing that justify exploitation dehumanization and early death of people of color By theorizing the mechanisms of visual biopolitics Rony elucidates both its violence and its vulnerability

Struk, 2020-09-03 Atrocities committed by the Nazis during the Holocaust were photographed more intensely than any before In the time since the images were taken they have been subjected to a perplexing variety of treatments variously ignored suppressed distorted and above all exploited for propaganda purposes With the use of many photographs including some never before seen this book traces the history of this process and asks whether the images can be true representations of the events they were depicting Yet their provenance Janina Struk argues has been less important than the uses to which a wide range of political interests has put them from the desperate attempts of the war time underground to provide hard evidence
