Negotiating Europe's Immigration Frontiers Immigration And Asylum Law And Policy In Europe Volume 3:

Negotiating Europe's Immigration Frontiers Barbara Melis, 2021-10-25 Netherlands Yearbook of International Law - 2002 Niels M. Blokker, Nico J. Schrijver, L. A. M. N. Barnhoorn, Marcel M. T. A. Brus, Deidre M. Curtin, Ige F. Dekker, P. Andre Nollkaemper, 2011-01-07 This volume contains an extensive review of Dutch state practice from the parliamentary year 2000 2001 It includes an account of developments relating to treaties and other international agreements to which the Netherlands is a party summaries of Netherlands judicial decisions involving questions of public international law lists of Dutch publications in the field and extracts from relevant municipal legislation Although the NYIL has a distinctive national character it is published in English and the editors do not adhere to any geographical limitations when deciding upon the inclusion of articles Refugee Survey Quarterly , 2001 Developing European Internal Security Policy Christian Kaunert, Sarah Léonard, 2014-06-03 The European Union EU is making strong inroads into areas of security traditionally reserved to states especially into internal security or Justice and Home Affairs The Area of Freedom Security and Justice AFSJ as it has been renamed in the Amsterdam Treaty has seen significant policy developments since the late 1990s In fact there has been no other example of a policy making area making its way so quickly and comprehensively to the centre of the treaties and to the top of the EU's policy making agenda After major treaty revisions in Maastricht Amsterdam Nice and finally the Lisbon Treaty which entered into force on 1 December 2009 as well as an increased political impetus through the European Council Summits in Tampere 1999 the Hague 2004 and Stockholm 2009 the area appears as one of the most promising policy fields for integration in the EU in the foreseeable future This process has deepened even more significantly after the terrorist attacks on 11 September 2001 in the United States on 11 March 2004 in Madrid and on 7 July 2005 in London This book is the first to analyse these hugely topical developments in European internal security at both the treaty and policy levels as well as its implementation at the national level from various disciplinary perspectives political science law criminology etc This book was published as a special edition of European Security American Book Publishing Record , 2002 Routledge Handbook of Family Law and Policy John Eekelaar, Rob George, 2014-05-09 Changes in family structures demographics social attitudes and economic policies over the last sixty years have had a large impact on family lives and correspondingly on family law This book provides global perspectives on the policy challenges facing family law and policy round the world The chapters apply legal sociological demographic and social work research to explore the most significant issues that have been commanding the attention of family law policy makers in recent years Featuring contributions from a range of renowned global experts the book draws on multiple jurisdictions and offers comparative analysis across a range of countries The book addresses a range of issues including the role of the state in supporting families and protecting the vulnerable children's rights and parental authority sexual orientation and gender in family law the status of marriage and other forms of adult relationships divorce and separation and their consequences the relationship between civil law and the law of minority groups assisted conception movement of family members between jurisdictions This advanced level reference work will be essential reading for students researchers and scholars of family law and social policy as well as policy makers in the field EU Justice and Home Affairs Law Steve Peers,2024-01-18 An abstract is a short description of your longer piece of work and is used as a free layer of content discoverable online An abstract should not attempt to summarise the whole work as it is also there to show readers whether or not reading further is warranted It is used to allow people searching on the internet to see that they have encountered a worthwhile hit This will encourage them to read further by clicking through to the work in full Keywords are index terms that capture the essence of the topics covered in a piece of work and are essential to improving ranking in search results Abstracts and Keywords A K combined are used to aid discovery of your content and to generate links across relevant content A K not only aid in discovery of online content they also support the discovery of print and eBook content marketed through the online catalogue or in library catalogues Are You who You Say You Are? Juliet Lodge,2007 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2004 Mexico-US, Serbia-EU Border Lives and Works Marina Lazetic,Carrie Preston,Muhammad Zaman,2025-11-11 Mexico US Serbia EU Border Lives and Works pushes the boundaries of traditional border studies by incorporating perspectives beyond the humanities and social sciences engaging engineers public health scholars humanitarian practitioners human rights activists and artists Through accessible and interdisciplinary exploration the book examines the Mexico US and Serbia EU border regimes providing a nuanced understanding of these spaces as sources of inspiration sites of research and ethical dilemmas locations of service and for many contributors a place to call home Across four sections the edited volume fosters conversations that traverse disciplines while addressing conflicting perspectives on border making life at the border and migration across borders A central theme of the book emerges as writers engage with ethical concerns raised by conventional research methods such as interviews and surveys and the challenges posed by incorporating insights from diverse fields Contributors critically reflect on these dilemmas offering perspectives that traditional border studies often overlook The result is a multifaceted engagement with border regimes presented through qualitative research cultural and textual analysis art installations personal essays and interviews Mexico US Serbia EU Border Lives and Works aims to reframe existing conceptions of US and EU border regimes highlighting how governments NGOs media researchers and citizens respond to migration often in conflicting ways It situates Serbia and Mexico s border politics within the global context of migration management emphasizing that border regimes developed by the United States and the European Union affect more than just the movement of people They reshape the social cultural and political fabric of communities influencing protests hospitality and artistic expression By critiquing policies and practices that harm migrants asylum seekers and host communities this book seeks to inform activism and policymaking in the United States European Union Mexico and Serbia It advocates for intersectional and collaborative research that bridges disciplines and speaks effectively to policymakers activists and broader communities By addressing the complexities of migration and displacement alongside the systems that support people on the move Mexico US Serbia EU Border Lives and Works highlights the need for border research and policy informed by the lived experiences of displaced populations and their hosts as well as the work of humanitarian actors artists and activists The Oxford Handbook of International Refugee Law Cathryn Costello,Michelle Foster,Jane

McAdam,2021-06-02 The Oxford Handbook of International Refugee Law is a comprehensive critical work which analyses the state of research across the refugee law regime as a whole Drawing together leading and emerging scholars the Handbook provides both doctrinal and theoretical analyses of international refugee law and practice It critiques existing law from a variety of normative positions with several chapters identifying foundational flaws that open up space for radical rethinking Many authors work directly in the field and their contributions demonstrate how scholarship and practice can mutually inform each other Contributions assess a wide range of international legal instruments relevant to refugee protection including from international human rights law international humanitarian law international migration law the law of the sea and international and transnational criminal law Geographically contributors examine regional and domestic laws and practices from around the world with 10 chapters focused on specific regions This Handbook provides an account as well as a critique of the status quo and in so doing it sets the agenda for future academic research in international refugee law

Research Handbook on the Enforcement of EU Law Miroslava Scholten,2023-09-06 This comprehensive Research Handbook investigates the success of EU law enforcement processes Going beyond traditional analyses of administrations and courts in isolation it focuses on the increased cooperation seen between national and EU authorities and on the widening variety of means used to enhance compliance with EU norms Österreichischer Migrations- und Integrationsbericht

Heinz Fassmann,Irene Stacher,2003 Intellectual Property Thomas Cottier,Petros Constantinou Mavroidis,Marion Panizzon,2010-04-23 The incorporation of intellectual property protection into the WTO international trading system has been a milestone in international economic law and has added a new dimension to trade regulation new rights and obligations and new challenges alike The contributors leading scholars and practitioners in the field provide insights into the legal relationship of the TRIPs Agreement to the GATT 94 and the GATS The book widens the debate with a thorough discussion on pending and unresolved relations of TRIPs the WTO UPOV the Convention on Biodiversity and Farmers Rights contained in the FAO International Undertaking and efforts of the World Bank GCIAR system including IPGRI What will be the impact of TRIPs on ownership of plant genetic resources Largely a victory for OECD countries the present state of intellectual property rights has important implications for developing countries The incorporation of intellectual property rights into the WTO system will eventually change the relationship of trade competition and intellectual property It will equally have to assist in providing equitable sharing of benefits in the use of plant genetic resources All of these issues are essential for the revision of exclusions from patenting in TRIPs This volume offers insights into how this difficult task could and should be approached in a balanced manner and will be essential reading for economists and trade and intellectual property lawyers interested in the subject Moreover the volume will be relevant to agricultural economists as it addresses complex problems in the interstices of trade intellectual property plant genetic resources and sustainable development Thomas Cottier is Professor of European and International Economic Law University of Bern and Managing Director World Trade Institute University of Bern Petros C Mavroidis is Professor of Law University of Neuchâtel He formerly worked in the Legal Affairs Division of the World Trade Organization Marion Panizzon is Research Fellow University of Bern Simon Lacey is Research Fellow University of Bern
