Palestine In The Late Ottoman Period Political Social And Economic Transformation:

Palestine in the Late Ottoman Period David Kushner,1986 Palestine in the Late Ottoman Period David Kushner,Kushner,1986 Haifa in the Late Ottoman Period, 1864-1914 Mahmoud Yazbak,2023-12-28 This volume offers a history of Haifa during that crucial part of the nineteenth century when Europe s penetration of Palestine combined with Istanbul s centralization efforts to alter irrevocably the social fabric of the country and change its political destiny After tracing the town s beginnings in the early eighteenth century the author painstakingly reconstructs from the few sijill volumes that have survived vital aspects of Ottoman Haifa s society and administration A fresh look at the town s demography is followed by an in depth discussion of the way inter communal relations developed after the 1864 Vil yets Law had brought a restructuring of the sources of elite power The author s findings on the social status of Haifa s Muslim women significantly add to the vibrant picture of economic activities we now know urban Muslim women in the Ottoman Empire were involved in The Palestinian Peasant Economy Under the Mandate Amos Nadan,2006 Challenging the claim that Palestine s peasant economy progressed during the 1920s and 1930s Amos Nadan skillfully integrates a wide variety of sources to demonstrate that the period was actually one of deterioration on both the macro per capita and micro levels The economy would have most likely continued its downward spiral during the 1940s had it not been for the temporary prosperity that resulted from World War II Nadan argues that this deterioration continued despite the British authorities channeling of funds from the Jewish sector and the wealthier Arab sectors into projects for the Arab rural economy The British were hoping that Palestine s peasants would not rebel if their economic conditions improved These programs were on the whole defective because the British chose programs based on an assumption that the peasants were too ignorant to manage their farms wisely instead of working with the peasants and their own institutions Jews and Palestinians in the Late Ottoman Era, 1908-1914 Fishman Louis Fishman,2019-11-27 Uncovering a history buried by different nationalist narratives Jewish Israeli Arab and Palestinian this book looks at how the late Ottoman era set the stage for the on going Palestinian Israeli conflict It presents an innovative analysis of the struggle in its first years when Palestine was still an integral part of the Ottoman Empire And it argues that in the late Ottoman era Jews and Palestinians were already locked in conflict the new freedoms introduced by the Young Turk Constitutional Revolution exacerbated divisions rather than serving as a unifying factor Offering an integrative approach it considers both communities together and separately in order to provide a more sophisticated narrative of how the conflict unfolded in its first years Muslim-Christian Relations in Damascus amid the 1860 Riot Rana Abu-Mounes,2022-01-31 On 9 July 1860 CE an outbreak of violence in the inner city Christian quarter of Damascus created shock waves locally and internationally This book provides a step by step presentation of events and issues to assess the true role of all the players and shapers of events It critically examines the internal and external politico socio economic factors involved and argues that economic interests rather than religious fanaticism were the main causes for the riot of 1860 Furthermore it argues that the riot was not a sudden eruption but rather a planned and organised affair

Frontiers of the State in the Late Ottoman Empire Eugene L. Rogan, 2002-04-11 A theoretically informed account of how the Ottoman state redefined itself during the last decades of empire The Best School in Jerusalem Laura S. Schor, 2013-12-03 Annie Edith Hannah Judith Landau 1873 1945 born in London to immigrant parents and educated as a teacher moved to Jerusalem in 1899 to teach English at the Anglo Jewish Association s Evelina de Rothschild School for Girls A year later she became its principal a post she held for forty five years As a member of Jerusalem s educated elite Landau had considerable influence on the city s cultural and social life often hosting parties that included British Mandatory officials Jewish dignitaries Arab leaders and important visitors Her school which provided girls of different backgrounds with both a Jewish and a secular education was immensely popular and often had to reject candidates for lack of space A biography of both an extraordinary woman and a thriving institution this book offers a lens through which to view the struggles of the nascent Zionist movement World War I poverty and unemployment in the Yishuv and the relations between the religious and secular sectors and between Arabs and Jews as well as Landau s own dual loyalties to the British and to the evolving Jewish community Taste of Modernity Itzhak Weismann, 2000-10-26 Modernization in the Muslim world was determined by the two interrelated processes of indigenous state formation and European economic penetration These drove governments to enlist the orthodox and the masses in support of the consolidation of their central authority and religious reformers to seek partly through Western devices checks on their autocracy Concentrating on late Ottoman Damascus a focal point in the modernization of Islam in the Arab world this study analyses the conceptual and social evolution among the three consecutive reform trends of the period the Kh lid branch of the Naqshbandiyya order the Akbar interpretation of Ibn Arab s theosophy and the Salaf adaptation of Ibn Taymiyya s teaching Through these reform trends the study traces the emergence of modern Islam from its pre modern Sufi reformist tradition It also examines the relationship of Islamic modernization to the rise of Arab nationalism Syrian Jewry in Transition, 1840-1880 Yaron Harel, 2010-02-01 This pioneering study offers a comprehensive account of Syria s key Jewish communities at an important juncture in their history that also throws light on the broader effects of modernization in the Ottoman empire The Ottoman reforms of the mid nineteenth century accelerated the process of opening up Syria up to European travellers and traders and gave Syria s Jews access to European Jewish communities The resulting influx of Western ideas led to a decline in the traditional economy with serious consequences for the Jewish occupational structure It also allowed for the introduction of Western education through schools run by the Alliance Isra lite Universelle influenced the structure and the administration of Jewish society in Syria and changed the balance of the relationship between Muslims Christians and Jews Initially Syria s Jewish communities flourished economically and politically in these new circumstances but there was a developing recognition that their future lay overseas After the opening of the Suez Canal in 1869 the bankruptcy of the Ottoman empire in 1875 and the suspension of the Ottoman constitution in 1878 this feeling intensified A process of decline set in that ultimately culminated in large scale Jewish emigration first to Egypt and then to the West From that point on the future for Syrian Jews lay in the West not the East Detailed and compelling this book covers Jewish community life the legal status of Jews in Syria their relationship with their Muslim and Christian neighbours and their links with the West It draws on a wide range of archival material in six languages including Jewish Christian Arab and Muslim Arab sources Ottoman and European documents consular reports travel accounts and reports from the contemporary press and by emissaries to Syria of the Alliance Isra lite Universelle Rabbinic sources including the archive of the chief rabbinate in Istanbul are particularly important in opening a window onto Syrian Jewish life and concerns Together these sources bring to light an enormous amount of material and provide a broad multifaceted perspective on the Syrian Jewish community The Hebrew edition of the book was the winner of the Ben Zvi Award for Research in Oriental Jewry in 2004 For the first time in the historiography of the Jews of Muslim countries we are presented with a rich picture well written and riveting of the history of important Jewish communities in the period of the Tanzimat From the award citation

Sacred Law in the Holy City Judith Mendelsohn Rood, 2020-11-09 The Muslim community's political and socio economic role in Jerusalem under Ottoman administration during the 1830s is analyzed in this volume from a natural law perspective A bitter political contest between Sultan Mahmud II and Muhammad Ali Pasha resulted in the military occupation of Syria and imposition of a brutal new political and legal regime which crushed the indigenous elites of southern Syria Through a careful analysis of the archives of the Islamic law court of Jerusalem the study offers a fresh appraisal of how the Ottoman Empire ruled Jerusalem and considers the Muslim response elucidating the reasons for the breakdown of their relations with non Muslim Ottoman subjects and differentiating the Ottoman understanding of law and government from that of their enemies the Wahhabis

The Making of the Arab-Israeli Conflict, 1947-1951 Ilan Pappé, 2025-02-20 This seminal text by renowned Israeli historian Ilan Pappé discusses one of the most significant periods in the Arab Israeli conflict Based on archival material it presents the reader with a comprehensive and general history of the origins and consequences of the 1948 war While among Arabs and especially Palestinians the events of that year are known as the nakba the catastrophe the trauma the disaster for Jews and in particular for Israelis their victory in the war of 1948 is a veritable miracle For them against tremendous odds and through heroic military effort the Jewish community succeeded in thwarting attempts by the Arab states to destroy it Pappé shows here that in sharp contrast to the recollections and myths of both sides the military events of 1948 were not decisive The victory of the Zionist organization and the fate of the Palestinians was determined by politicians on both sides in the discussions and decisions of the United Nations in 1947-8 and in the Arab League long before a shot had been fired He argues that Israel's failure to take advantage of the genuine opportunity for peace with the Arabs at the UN sponsored Lausanne Conference in 1949 resulted in the prolonged and tragic conflict between Israel and the Arab states still very much alive today Complete with a new foreword by the author the book remains the authority on the subject for a new generation of readers Piety, Politics, and Power David D. Grafton, 2009-03-16 From the time of Martin Luther's writing of On War Against the Turk in 1529 to American Lutheran military chaplains serving in the U.S. led invasion of Iraq in 2003 Lutheranism has had a symbiotic relationship with Islam in the Middle East framed across cultural and religious borders There have been those who have crossed these borders to engage in mission and dialogue In Piety Politics and Power David Grafton examines the origins of the American Lutheran missionary movement in the Middle East with a focus on its encounter with Muslims and the varied Lutheran theological responses toward Islam The narrative is placed within historical contexts to provide an overarching background of Middle Eastern history and Christian Muslim Relations The survey covers Lutheran missionary communities in Persia Iraq Egypt Lebanon and Jerusalem and the West Bank including the work of the Lutherans working for the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions the Anglican Church Missionary Society the Lutheran Orient Mission the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America Whether enthusiastic Pietists seeking the conversion of Muslims and Jews cautious theologians in dialogue with Islam Judaism or Oriental Orthodoxy or social activists working on behalf of refugees in Egypt and the West Bank Grafton argues that these Christian missionaries were all enmeshed in the politics of the communities in which they lived and either contributed to or suffered from the realities of Middle Eastern and international politics Given the current reality of Pax Americana in the Middle East the author asks the driving question about the role of American Lutheran missions and Lutheran Middle Eastern Muslim dialogue in the age of American power in the Middle East From Coexistence to Conquest Victor Kattan, 2009-06-20 This book shows how the Arab Israeli conflict developed by looking beyond the legality argument to the men behind the policies It argues that Zionism was adopted by the British Government in its 1917 Balfour Declaration primarily as a way to control immigration The book places the violent reaction of the Palestinians to mass Jewish immigration in the context of Zionism and revisits the controversies over the question of self-determination and the partition of Palestine Arguing that Israel was created through an act of conquest and subjugation the book concludes with a sobering analysis of the conflict arguing that neither Jews nor Arabs were to blame for starting it The Development of Human Resource Management Across Nations Bruce E. Kaufman, 2014-07-31 This is an excellent book Bruce Kaufman in his ever thoughtful way has not just analyzed the history of the development of HRM but assembled 17 chapters in which world class local experts report on that history in their own country The book is full Living in the Ottoman Lands: Identities Administration and Warfare Burhan Çaglar, Ömer Faruk Can, Hacer Kılıçaslan, 2021-03-01 The long and elaborate past of the Ottoman Empire encompassing a wide geographical area presents a mosaic of knowledge and acquisition of experience Upon this complicated and plural nature Ottoman history looks like a puzzle that requires a wealth of skills and approaches to decipher The foremost step to achieve this sophisticated task is to go beyond the borders of formalistic narratives and gain a multiplicity of perspectives through collaborative studies This book is one of the outputs of such cooperation toward a more comprehensive Ottoman historiography The first part entitled Religious Identities Intercommunal Relations and Social Life focuses on the communal structure of the Ottoman society In this part the transformation of the multilingual multi ethnic and multi religious empire and of the world around it is discussed on the basis of changes in social and administrative structures The second part Administration and Business in the Center or Periphery consists of the studies on the administrative instruments of the political and economic reforms in the 19th century Ottoman world and the way these instruments reshaped market mechanisms The third part entitled Personal Documents Public Prints and Medical Approaches contains articles on personal narratives diaries travel notes and the Ottoman press The final part which discusses the military and geopolitical strategies that the Ottoman Empire followed throughout its journey from a principality to an empire is entitled Warfare and Intelligence In the book a panorama of the empire's lifestyle is manifested and the course of history is outlined from various perspectives It analyses the story of the Ottomans based on various personal communal social economic and military affairs In the Shadow of Sectarianism Max Weiss, 2010-10-15 Contrary to the conventional wisdom that sectarianism is intrinsically linked to violence bloodshed or social disharmony Max Weiss uncovers the complex roots of Shi'i sectarianism in twentieth century Lebanon The template for conflicted relations between the Lebanese state and Shi'i society arose under French Mandate rule through a process of gradual transformation long before the political mobilization of the Shi'i community under the charismatic Imam Musa al Sadr and his Movement of the Deprived and decades before the radicalization linked to Hizballah Throughout the period the Shi'i community was buffeted by crosscutting political religious and ideological currents transnational affiliations versus local concerns the competing pull of Arab nationalism and Lebanese nationalism loyalty to Jabal Amil the cultural heartland of Shi'i Lebanon and the modernization of religious and juridical traditions Uncoupling the beginnings of modern Shi'i collective identity from the rise of political Shi'ism Weiss transforms our understanding of the nature of sectarianism and shows why in Lebanon it has been both so productive and so destructive at the same time

Jerusalem and Its Environs Ruth Kark, Michal Oren-Nordheim, 2001 It covers the construction of institutional complexes the introduction of significant changes in Jerusalem's administration the creation of new planning frameworks the planning of new settlements around the city the concentration of large tracts of agricultural land by Jerusalem's Arab effendis and the development of the Arab and Jewish villages in the rural hinterland BOOK JACKET Enclosure Gary Fields, 2017-09-05 Enclosure marshals bold new arguments about the nature of the conflict in Israel Palestine Gary Fields examines the dispossession of Palestinians from their land and Israel's rationale for seizing control of Palestinian land in the contexts of a broad historical analysis of power and space and of an enduring discourse about land improvement Focusing on the English enclosures which eradicated access to common land across the English countryside Amerindian dispossession in colonial America and Palestinian land loss Fields shows how exclusionary landscapes have emerged across time and geography Evidence that the same moral legal and cartographic arguments were used by enclosers of land in very different historical environments challenges Israel s current claim that it is uniquely beleaguered This comparative framework also helps readers in the United States and the United Kingdom understand the Israeli Palestinian conflict in the context of their own histories

The Origins of Arab Nationalism Rashid Khalidi, Lisa Anderson, Muhammad Y. Muslih, Reeva S. Simon, 1991 Contributors including C Ernest Dawn Mahmoud Haddad Reeva Simon and Beth Baron provide a broad survey of the Arab world at the turn of the century permitting a comparison of developments in a variety of settings from Syria and Egypt to the Hijaz Libya and Iraq
