Walters,2012-02-01 Constituting Communities explores how community functions within Therav da Buddhist culture Although the dominant focus of Buddhist studies for the past century has been on doctrinal and philosophical issues this volume concentrates on discourses that produced them and why and how these discourses and practices shaped Therav da communities in South and Southeast Asia From a variety of perspectives including historical literary doctrinal and philosophical and social and anthropological the contributors explore the issues that have proven important and definitive for identifying what it has meant individually and socially to be Buddhist in this particular region The book focuses on textual discourse how communities are formed and maintained within pluralistic contexts and the formation of community both within and between the monastic and lay settings The Maha-Bodhi ,1923 Proceedings and Transactions of the ... Lepard,2005 In a groundbreaking book that calls on the world s religions to look at what they have in common author and scholar Brian Lepard offers hope to a world community that has become dangerously fractionalized by economic social religious and political differences In Hope for a Global Ethic Lepard cogently argues that different societies have much more in common than they might otherwise think beginning with a profound historic and lasting belief in religion and that our fearful and often suspicious view of other people may be overcome by exploring what is shared in these religions Hope for a Global Ethic moves significantly beyond ideology to discuss the values that all people have shared through the faiths of the world It is these values that offer hope in our fearful disordered and terrorized world Proceedings of the All-India Oriental Conference ,1987 Historical and Indological Institutions in India Parma Nandan Sahay,1987 Encyclopedia of Monasticism William M. Muller recounts the glorious days of Duttha Gamini s reign With blazing energy the king transformed Anuradhapura into the greatest Buddhist city of ancient times The gods smile down on him he is blessed with a son and mysterious discoveries of flowers bearing gems caves with silver and many other riches are made all over the kingdom These divine treasures help him erect enduring wonders of Buddhism like the colossal Maha Thupa and Ridi Vihara in Anuradhapura Vividly told full of rich mythology Grandeur of the Lion is an extraordinary book about one of the most astounding periods of Sri Lankan history
