Paradise Gardens Landscape Gardening In The Islamic Tradition:

Paradise Gardens Arnaud Maurieres, Eric Ossart, 2001 Most sacred texts describe paradise as a garden and the very word derives from the ancient Persian word for garden pardis Within the walls of this garden the abundance of fruit the colour and scent of flowers the softness of the ground the murmur of water and the music of birdsong arouse the senses

Paradise Gardens Monty Don, Derry Moore, 2018-03-22 Lavish a celebration of the history and enduring romance of Islamic gardens Washington Post As seen on the highly acclaimed BBC2 series Monty Don's Paradise Gardens a glorious celebration of the richness of Islamic culture through some of the most beautiful gardens on earth In the Islamic tradition a garden with its central elements of water the scent of fruit trees and places for rest and reflection celebrate heaven on earth Paradise gardens play a central role in everyday life in the Islamic world yet little is known about them Monty Don and acclaimed photographer Derry Moore set off on a journey to find out more about the principles and immersive delights of paradise gardens and how a very different culture and climate has influenced garden design round the world Their journey covers twenty nine gardens from the Real Alcazar and the Alhambra in Spain and Le Jardin Majorelle in Morocco to Highgrove and a Mughal garden in Bradford in England There are some spectacular and rarely seen examples such as Pasargadae and the Maidan in Isfahan Iran the birthplace of paradise gardens as well as the more renowned examples such as Turkey's Topkapi Palace and the Amber Palace and Taj Mahal in India A garden green and filled with water is heaven on earth it is paradise Monty Don ALSO BY MONTY DON DERRY MOORE JAPANESE GARDENS A JOURNEY An exploration of the exquisite beauty and fascinating history of the most beautiful and famous gardens across Japan from Kenrok-en to the Zen gardens of Tokyo A fabulous bonsai filled book Daily Mail Islamic Gardens and Landscapes D. Fairchild Ruggles, 2011-12-30 Western admirers have long seen the Islamic garden as an earthly reflection of the paradise said to await the faithful However such simplification Ruggles contends denies the sophistication and diversity of the art form Islamic Gardens and Landscapes immerses the reader in the world of the architects of the great gardens of the Islamic world from medieval Morocco to contemporary India Just as Islamic culture is historically dense sophisticated and complex so too is the history of its built landscapes Islamic gardens began from the practical need to organize the surrounding space of human civilization tame nature enhance the earth's yield and create a legible map on which to distribute natural resources Ruggles follows the evolution of these early farming efforts to their aristocratic apex in famous formal gardens of the Alhambra in Spain and the Taj Mahal in Agra Whether in a humble city home or a royal courtyard the garden has several defining characteristics which Ruggles discusses Most notable is an enclosed space divided into four equal parts surrounding a central design element The traditional Islamic garden is inwardly focused usually surrounded by buildings or in the form of a courtyard Water provides a counterpoint to the portioned green sections Ranging across poetry court documents agronomy manuals and early garden representations and richly illustrated with pictures and site plans Islamic Gardens and Landscapes

Persian Gardens and Pavilions

Mohammad Gharipour, 2013-04-02 From Timur's tent in Samarqand to Shah Abbas's palace in Isfahan and Humayun's tomb in Delhi the pavilion has been an integral part of Persianate gardens since its earliest appearance at the Achaemenid garden in Pasargadae in the sixth century BC Here Mohammad Gharipour places both the garden and the pavilion within their historical literary and artistic contexts emphasizing the importance of the pavilion which has hitherto been overlooked in the study of Iranian historical architecture Starting with an examination of the depictions and representations of gardens in religious texts Gharipour analyses the how the idea of the garden developed from the model of pre Islamic gardens in Achaemenid and Sassanian Persia to its mentions in the Zoroastrian text of Aban Yasht and on to its central role as paradise in the Qur'an Continuing on with an exploration of gardens and pavilions in Persian poetry Gharipour offers in depth analysis of their literal and metaphorical values It is in the poetry of major Persian poets such as Ferdowsi Naser Khosrow Sa'di Rumi and Hafez that Gharipour finds that whilst gardens are praised for their spiritual values they also contain significant symbolic worth in terms of temporal wealth and power Persian Gardens and Pavilions then goes on to examine the garden and the pavilion as reflected in Persian miniature painting sculpture and carpets as well as accounts of travelers to Persia With masters such as Bizhad representing daily life as well as the more mystical prose and poetry in for example Sa'di's Bustan The Orchard and Golestan The Rose Garden the garden and the pavilion can be seen to have crucial semiotic significances and cultural meanings But in addition to this they also point to historical patterns of patronage and ownership which were of central importance in the diplomatic and social life of the royal courts of Persia Gharipour thereby highlights the metaphorical spiritual symbolic and religious aspects of gardens as well as their more materialistic and economic functions This book reaches back through Persia's rich history to explore the material and psychological relationships between human beings pavilions and gardens and will be a valuable resource for Art History Architecture and Iranian Studies

The Islamic Villa in Early Medieval Iberia GlairD. Anderson,2017-07-05 Exploring the aristocratic villas and court culture of C ba during its golden age under the reign of the Umayyad dynasty r 756 1031 AD this study illuminates a key facet of the secular architecture of the court and its relationship to the well known Umayyad luxury arts Based on textual and archaeological evidence it offers a detailed analysis of the estates architecture and gardens within a synthetic socio historical framework Author Glair Anderson focuses closely on the C ban case study synthesizing the archaeological evidence for the villas that has been unearthed from the 1980s up to 2009 with extant works of Andalusí art and architecture as well as evidence from the Arabic texts While the author brings her expertise on medieval Islamic architecture art and urbanism to the topic the book contributes to wider art historical discourse as well it is also a synthetic project that incorporates material and insights from experts in other fields agricultural economic and social and political history In this way it offers a fuller picture of the topic and its relevance to Andalusí architecture and art and to broader issues of architecture and social history in the caliphal lands and the Mediterranean An important contribution of the book is that it illuminates the social history of the C ban villas drawing on the medieval Arabic texts to explain patterns of patronage among the court elite An overarching theme of the book is that the C ban estates fit within the larger historical constellation of Mediterranean villas and villa cultures in contrast to long standing art historical discourse that holds villas did not exist in the medieval period Contemporary Urban Landscapes of the Middle East Mohammad
