Quarry New Poems:

The Quarry Richard Eberhart, 1964 The eleventh collection of poetry from a major American poet Abandoned Quarry John Lane, 2010 In 1995 with the publication by New Native Press of Against Information Other Poems John Lane's poems were hailed on the front page of Small Press Review as a fearless celebration of the materials of words a sign of hope The title poem of the collection has been mistaken for an advertisement widely praised both nationally and internationally in reviews scripted into an independent video and featured on Canadian Public Radio's popular news program As it Happens Now Abandoned Quarry publishes for the first time in a trade edition John Lane's poems from Against Information and earlier small press limited editions broadsides and little magazines Out of print obscure or simply unavailable except in rare book collections the selection of poems in Abandoned Quarry show the growth and fullness of spirit of one of the important poets to emerge in the 1980s Abandoned Quarry is a collection of poems by one of the South's most admired environmental writers The collection makes available for the first time under one cover poems from a dozen full collections and chapbooks The poems range in subject matter through relationships nature improvisational pieces and rants about the strangeness of the modern condition Abandoned Quarry includes nearly all of John Lane's published poetry over thirty years plus a selection of new poems Quarry Carolyn Guinzio, 2008-10-07 Since at least the days of Horace poets have found in nature in the local flora and fauna an invitation to observe name meditate and wonder In QUARRY Carolyn Guinzio's second collection this tradition continues in poems of tautly drawn subtle eloquence Her tone is somber her pace gradual as if at any moment something might happen to alter everything and toss the great endurance of life into ruin or revelation A tremendous question hangs in the December sky Ann Lauterbach Collected Poems Djuna Barnes, 2005 This collection of many unpublished works of American writer Djuna Barnes is accompanied by her autobiographical notes which describe the expatriate scene in Paris during the 1920s including her interactions with James Joyce and Gertrude Stein and her intimate recollections of T S Eliot Chicorel Index to Poetry in Anthologies and Collections in Print Marietta Chicorel, 1974

Women, Modernism and British Poetry, 1910-1939 Jane Dowson, 2017-03-02 Primarily a literary history Women Modernism and British Poetry 1910-1939 provides a timely discussion of individual women poets who have become or are becoming well known as their works are reprinted but about whom little has yet been written This volume recognizes the contributions overlooked previously of such British poets as Anna Wickham Nancy Cunard Edith Sitwell Mina Loy Charlotte Mew May Sinclair Vita Sackville West and Sylvia Townsend Warner and the impact of such American poets as H D Amy Lowell Edna St Vincent Millay Marianne Moore and Laura Riding on literary practice in Britain This book primarily maps the poetry scene in Britain but identifies the significance of the network of writers between London New York and Paris It assesses women's participation in the diversity of modernist developments which include avant garde experiments quiet but subtly challenging formalism and assertive new woman voices It not only chronicles women's poetry but also their publications and involvement in running presses bookshops and writing criticism Although historically situated it is written from the perspective of contemporary debates concerning the interface of gender and modernism The author argues that a cohering aesthetic of the poetry is a denial of femininity through various evasions of gendered identity such as masking male and female impersonations and the rupturing of realist modes The Poet as Experienter Adam Staley Groves,2025-08-13

In The Poet as Experienter Wallace Stevens and Nonhuman Intelligence Adam Staley Groves approaches Stevens not merely as poet thinker but rather as experienter and theorist of what is today called the phenomenon UFOs Challenging both Stevens scholarship and our broader understanding of poetic consciousness the book presents a radical appraisal of Stevens s oeuvre as an extended coded testimony of contact with nonhuman intelligence Drawing from journals uncollected poems and landmark works such as Harmonium and The Necessary Angel Groves argues that Stevens s poetic evolution mirrors the psychological and spiritual trajectory of an experienter grappling with anomalous phenomena long before cognitive frameworks for such were culturally available From moths and owls to missing time and the ethics of the imagination Groves reads Stevens s work as a sustained effort to reckon with anomalous phenomena whose language has not yet come Through careful textual analysis and historical correlation Groves positions the poet within a lineage that includes Coleridge Baudelaire Kierkegaard and Nietzsche who are recast not only as theorists of the imagination but as precursors to a modern metaphysical crisis now resurfacing through the contemporary discourse on UFOs and UAPs Unidentified Anomalous Phenomena Integrating rigorous literary scholarship with insights from ufology psychology and metaphysical philosophy Groves investigates Stevens s use of abstraction the ethics of poetic imagination and the emergence of the true subject as a form of ontological rupture In doing so the book bridges the hermetic with the historical and the poetic with the paranormal

The Tragic Life Story of Medea as Mother, Monster, and Muse Jana

Rivers Norton,2019-11-13 This volume offers a critical yet empathic exploration of the ancient myth of Medea as immortalized by early Greek and Roman dramatists to showcase the tragic forces afoot when relational suffering remains unresolved in the lives of individuals families and communities Medea as a tragic figure whose sense of isolation and betrayal interferes with her ability to form healthy attachments reveals the human propensity for violence when the agony of unresolved grief turns to vengeance against those we hold most dear However metaphorically her life story as an emblem for existential crisis serves as a psychological touchstone in the lives of early twentieth century female authors who struggled to find their rightful place in the world to resolve the sorrow of unrequited love and devotion and to reconcile experiences of societal abandonment and neglect as self discovery
