Que Linda la Brisa James Drake, Jimmy Santiago Baca, Benjamin Alire Sáenz, Pamela Auchincloss Gallery (New York, N.Y.), 2000 Three poetic statements unite and intertwine in this slim volume to create a rare insight into the lives of people who bear witness to the exclusionary nature of society's most basic assumptions about the nature of gender and desire men in women's bodies outcasts who make their living as prostitutes With the caring eye of an intimate observer Benjamin Alire Saenz allows the reader to witness the hopes fears and dangers of their transformations sketching their daily lives in a series of short fragmentary prose poems showing the familiarity of the seemingly alien Jimmy Santiago Baca's first person poem pushes the transformation further still allowing as well as forcing the reader to recognize the frailty and pain caused by a culture's ideas of what constitutes the normal James Drake's photographs unite the poems complementing them with a visual thread of equally poetic intensity changing faces reflections in mirrors blood and fears as well as hopes and guardian angels

Lateral Thinking Toby Kamps, 2002 Edward de Bono invented the term lateral thinking and defined it as such 1 You cannot dig a hole in a different place by digging the same hole deeper 2 Lateral Thinking is for changing concepts and perceptions instead of trying harder with the same concepts and perceptions 3 In self organizing information systems asymmetric patterns are formed Lateral Thinking is a method for cutting across from one pattern to another As the title of this book Lateral Thinking refers to the non traditional approach that the Museum of Contemporary Art San Diego has applied to building its collection Curatorially independent striking a balance between the regional and the global the emerging artist and the established figure the MCA has always worked to represent important developments in mainstream art while also identifying significant developments that fall outside of conventional categories The museum's efforts to illuminate a new axis mapping the contemporary art world one running north and south through North Central and South America instead of east and west through the United States and Europe Featuring the work in virtually all media of more than 65 artists including Matthew Barney Jose Bedia Vanessa Beecroft John Currin David Hammons Gary Hill Gabriel Orozco Edward Ruscha Cindy Sherman and Lisa Yuskavage

righteous and prayerful Booklist Award winning writer Jimmy Santiago Baca is lauded for his talent in weaving personal and political threads to create a pertinent and poignant narrative. He addresses universal issues with passion, grace, and vivid sensory detail. Singing at the Gates is a collection of Baca's work stretching across four decades: poems that revitalize the national dialogue, raging against war and imprisonment; celebrating family and the bonds of friendship; heightening appreciation for and consciousness of the environment. A career spanning selection, it includes poems drawn from Baca's first chapbook, letters he wrote from prison to a woman named Mariposa, and recent meditations on the significance of breaking through oppression. A poet whose voice, brutal and tender, is unique in America. The Nation Aristotle and Dante Discover the Secrets of the Universe Benjamin Alire Sáenz, 2022-11-08 Aristotle is an angry teen with a brother in prison. Dante is a know-it-all who has an unusual way of looking at the world. When they meet at the swimming pool, they seem to have nothing in common. But as the two loners start spending time together, they discover that they share a special kind of friendship, the kind that changes lives and lasts a lifetime. San Diego Magazine, 2004-10 San Diego Magazine gives readers the insider information they need to experience San Diego from the best places to dine and travel to the politics and people that shape the region. This is the magazine for San Diegans with a need to know. Amor en alta mar Pablo Huneus, 1996 Spilling the Beans in Chicanolandia Frederick Luis Aldama, 2006-04-01 Since the 1980s, a prolific second wave of Chicano writers and artists has tremendously expanded the range of genres and subject matter in Chicano literature and art. Building on the pioneering work of their predecessors, whose artistic creations were often tied to political activism and the civil rights struggle, today's Chicano writers and artists feel free to focus as much on the aesthetic quality of their work as on its social content. They use novels, short stories, poetry, drama, documentary films, and comic books to shape the raw materials of life into art objects that cause us to participate empathetically in an increasingly complex Chicano identity and experience. This book presents far-ranging interviews with twenty-one second-wave Chicano poets, fiction writers, dramatists, documentary filmmakers, and playwrights. Some are mainstream, widely recognized creators; while others work from the margins because of their sexual orientations or their controversial positions. Frederick Luis Aldama draws out the artists and authors on both the aesthetic and the sociopolitical concerns that animate their work. Their conversations delve into such areas as how the artists or writers' life experiences have molded their work; why they choose to work in certain genres; and how they have transformed them. What it means to be Chicano in today's pluralistic society and how Chicano identity influences and is influenced by contact with ethnic and racial identities from around the world. El Fogón, 1903 Feeding the Roots of Self-Expression and Freedom Jimmy Santiago Baca, Kym Sheehan, Denise VanBriggle, 2018 Jimmy Santiago Baca, one of the foremost poets in America today, collaborates with two literacy professionals to present a teaching tool that includes curricular activities and probing questions crafted to help students heal through writing.
